NEW & IMPROVED DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM

6,800 SQ FT OF HD

When the Seminoles open up the 2016 season, fans will be greeted with the tallest video board structure in college football, broadcasting in 1080p true high-definition. The upgraded board is three-times larger and twice as high as the old one. The new board will stand 63 feet high and it will be accompanied by new high definition ribbon boards throughout the stadium as well. Overall, 6,800 square feet of LED displays were added to Doak Campbell Stadium, and there is over 1,000 linear feet of HD LED throughout. Most impressively, every camera transmitting to the video board will be shooting the action in high-definition, as well, giving fans one of the highest-quality pictures in the world.

CHAMPIONS CLUB

The Champions Club is a premium club seating experience surrounding the University Center Club located in Doak Campbell Stadium. This exclusive section allows FSU fans to hear the roar of the crowd from the comfort of cushioned club seats and to move between indoor club amenities and the covered rooftop terraces with cabanas without losing sight of the action on the field. The benefits include:

- Private entrances with six high-speed elevators and two interior elevators
- Reserved, cushioned, chair-back seats with arm rests, cup holders, extended leg room and food/beverage service
- Access to more than 70,000 square feet of air-conditioned space plus 34,000 square feet of covered rooftop terraces with cabanas
- Variety of upscale food and beverage options included
- WiFi access
- Numerous HD TVs to watch Seminole replays and games from around the nation
- Panoramic views of Doak, Campus and Downtown Tallahassee

SEMINOLE FOOTBALL IN THE COMMUNITY IN 2016

The Florida State football team has made service to the community a priority in 2016 by volunteering at camps, speaking at schools and mentoring youth.

2013 NATIONAL CHAMPS

156.6

Florida State led the nation in pass defense, allowing opponents to throw for just 156.6 yards per game.

723

Total points scored in 2013, a new FBS record previously held by Oklahoma's 2008 team who scored 716 total points.

94

Touchdowns scored by Florida State the most in the country and an FSU and ACC record.

Average points scored by Florida State in 2013 to set new FSU and ACC records.

The Seminoles led the nation and set a school record with 26 interceptions.

wins over ranked teams in 2013.
The Noles defeated those five schools by a combined total of 234-66.

2012 ORANGE BOWL

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPIONS JAN. 1, 2013

Florida State captured its first BCS bowl victory since 2000 by routing Northern Illinois 31-10 in the Orange Bowl at Miami Gardens, Fla. Senior fullback Lonnie Pryor grabbed MVP honors by rushing for a career-high 134 yards and two scores on only five carries. Quarterback EJ Manuel added 291 yards through the air and was responsible for two touchdowns, while linebackers Vince Williams and Christian Jones had 10 tackles apiece.

2013 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

2013 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS JAN. 6, 2014

Florida State closed out a perfect 14-0 regular season by completing a stirring comeback and defeating Auburn, 34-31, to claim the final BCS National Championship at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. The Seminoles rallied from 18 points down after trailing 21-3 with 5:01 remaining in the second quarter. FSU trailed 31-27 with 1:11 remaining in the game when it took over at its own 20-yard line. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Jameis Winston engineered a seven-play, 80-yard game-winning drive by completing 6-of-7 passes and finding wide receiver Kelvin Benjamin for the 2-yard winning score with 13 seconds left to complete the comeback.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL SEMIFINALISTS

JAN. 1, 2015

The Seminoles capped their second straight undefeated regular season by advancing to the first College Football Playoff Semifinals against Oregon at the Rose Bowl. Although the Noles fell to the Ducks, it marked the end to one of the greatest two-year runs in college football history as Florida State finished 27-1 over a two-year span behind head coach Jimbo Fisher and players like Nick O'Leary, Jameis Winston, Rashad Greene, Eddie Goldman and Mario Edwards Jr.

2015 PEACH BOWL

CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL

DEC. 31, 2015

Florida State became one of only two schools to reach a BCS/New Year's Six bowl each of the past four seasons when they faced Houston in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta to close the 2015 season. Despite falling to the 12-1 Cougars, sophomore wide receiver Travis Rudolph set an FSU bowl record with 201 yards receiving and a 65-yard touchdown in the third quarter. The game was the last for FSU's senior class, which set a Seminole record (and second-most all-time) with 49 wins over their four years in Tallahassee, including a national championship in 2013. Cornerback Jalen Ramsey and kicker Roberto Aguayo went on to get selected in the NFL Draft in April.

THE 29-GAME WIN STREAK

29-GAME WIN STREAK

ACC RECORD • FSU RECORD 12TH-LONGEST WIN STREAK IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL HISTORY

- The Seminoles won an incredible 29 straight games during the 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons.
- The streak began with FSU's 21-15 win over Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship Game on Dec. 1, 2012, and ended with the Noles' loss to Oregon at the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 2015.
- The 29-game win streak shattered the ACC and FSU records and was the second-longest NCAA-recognized streak this century and the second-longest streak over the last 20 years.
- FSU became just the 14th team in college football history to win 29 consecutive games.
- Thirty-one players that played during the winning streak were drafted into the NFL, including Jalen Ramsey and Roberto Aguayo in 2016.
- Florida State scored 96 more touchdowns than its opponents during the streak, totaling 155 TDs, while allowing only 59.
- Fifteen First Team All-Americans and 36 All-ACC selections played during the streak.

2012 ACC CHAMPIONS

FLORIDA STATE: 21 | GEORGIA TECH: 15

DEC. 1, 2012

The Seminoles combined to total 194 yards and three touchdowns on the ground, while holding Georgia Tech's vaunted triple-option offense to just 183 rushing yards as FSU won its first ACC Championship since 2005.

2013 ACC CHAMPIONS

FLORIDA STATE: 45 | DUKE: 7

DEC. 7, 2013

Behind Game MVP Jameis Winston's 330 passing yards and four total touchdowns, FSU won its second straight ACC Championship at Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium. Duke didn't score until 1:01 remaining in the game as Timmy Jernigan (10 tackles) and Telvin Smith (8 stops, 2 TFLs, 1 INT) led a suffocating defense.

2014 ACC CHAMPIONS

FLORIDA STATE: 37 | GEORGIA TECH: 35

DEC. 6, 2014

Freshman running back Dalvin Cook carried the Seminoles to their third straight ACC Championship by totaling career highs in rushes (31) and rushing yards (177) en route to MVP honors. Rashad Greene scored a pair of touchdowns and Roberto Aguayo nailed three second-half field goals to hold off a late Yellow Jacket rally.

SEMINOLE PRO DAY

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S BIGGEST AND BEST PRO DAY

- Florida State routinely hosts the most-attended and most-covered Pro Day in the country. Over the past two years, Jameis Winston and Jalen Ramsey have cemented their top-five pick statuses by putting on a show at the Albert J. Dunlap Athletic Training Facility.
- FSU's 2015 Pro Day was the largest of all time as over 250 scouts and media attended and all 32 NFL teams were represented. ESPN, ESPN2 and the NFL Network televised over 12 hours of live content. SportsCenter dedicated a live one-hour show to the event and was the highest-rated hour of the week on the network.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

All media who wish to cover FSU athletics will be expected to comply with all the procedures of the University, ACC and FSU Sports Information Office in order to be credentialed. Procedures will be provided in detail at the start of the 2016-17 athletic year.

Interviews

Media interviews with all FSU players and coaches MUST be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Contact Zach Stipe, Director of Football Communications, via email at zstipe@fsu.edu or by calling (850) 645-7683 to arrange interviews with head coach Jimbo Fisher and all other Seminole player requests. Please give as much advance notice as possible when requesting players for midweek interviews.

Players are available following practice on Mondays and prior (around lunch time) to practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Player's phone numbers will not be given to the media and players should not be called directly or contacted through social media sites to arrange interviews or ask questions.

Head Coach Jimbo Fisher Stream & Call-In

FSU Head Coach Jimbo Fisher will meet with the media on Mondays during the season. Contact the Sports Information Office or refer to the weekly release for exact times and location for the press conferences which will begin during the week of the first game and run throughout the season. Media can request a call-in number to listen live or ask Coach Fisher questions. The entire press conference is also streamed live and available for embed on websites via Seminole.com.

All interview requests for Coach Fisher are coordinated through Director of Football Communications Zach Stipe via email at zstipe@fsu.edu or by calling (850) 645-7683. Coach Fisher will participate in the ACC head coaches' weekly teleconference with the other 13 league coaches each Wednesday. He will also meet with the media immediately following practice Tuesday-Thursday.

Video Services

Florida State's Sports Information Office has the ability to assist networks and television stations by providing video services through Seminole Productions, Inc. (SPI). Please call general manager Mark Rodin at (850) 644-6275 to arrange for these services. For video footage, contact T3Media at T3media.com.

XOS Digital Exchange

The Florida State Sports Information Office has partnered with XOS Digital in order to provide over-the-air television stations with instantaneous access to video content. The partnership involves the use of the company's Digital Media Xchange Server that will allow television stations to pull down video content year round. The data transfer speed is much faster than a traditional FTP service allowing very large files to be downloaded in just minutes.

The password protected video FTP site will be hosting Monday press conferences with Florida State Football Head Coach Jimbo Fisher and the starting quarterback and a Thursday Jimbo Fisher interview.

If you have an interest in creating an account that gives you access to the video weekly, please email Elliott Finebloom (efinebloom@fsu.edu). If you are looking for access just for a particular game week, please email prior to that game to set up a guest account.

Social Media

Florida State Sports Information is making a continued effort in 2016-17 to utilize social media outlets as another way of passing information to our fans and those who cover our programs. FSU Football's twitter account @FSU_Football and Instagram feed @fsufootball provide updated information and behind-the-scenes news as does the Noles' Facebook page - <http://www.facebook.com/FSUFootball>.

Credential Requests

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be directed to our online credentialing site located on the Seminoles.com Media Relations page no later than four days prior to the game. PHOTOS WILL BE REQUIRED AND MUST BE UPLOADED AT THE TIME YOU REQUEST CREDENTIALS. PHOTO MUST BE IN COLOR AND PROVIDE A CLEAR VIEW OF THE FACE. Requests for season credentials should be made at least two weeks prior to the first game. Space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the FSU Sports Information Office. Any credential questions can be answered by Assistant A.D./SID and Digital Media Elliott Finebloom.

Press Parking

Once again, parking is limited in 2016 and passes will be issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials. Press parking is approximately 600 yards from the press box, located in the parking garage just north of the Seminole Soccer Complex on Spirit Way.

Media Will Call

Media Will Call is located near Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. Do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance" where the media will call table is located right inside the doors.

Press Box

All media, with the exception of the live network telecast crew, will work from the ninth level of the press box. Media can access the press box only through the designated elevator in the northwest tower of the University Center. After parking, media should proceed down Stadium Drive and move towards Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. To enter the press box, do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance." The press box opens three hours before kickoff.

Internet Access

Internet access is available in the ninth level press box and photo work room. Access to the wireless internet requires guests to register through their computer. Guests should connect to the FSUGuest internet connection and then open an internet browser. Guests will be taken to a welcome screen where they will click on Guest Registration and fill out the necessary information to receive the appropriate login information.

Radio-TV

Florida State will host both home and visiting radio in booths in the press box. Network television (or the network broadcasting live) will be working from a mid-field booth on the eighth level (one below working press). Both home and visiting radio will broadcast from booths at the south end of the ninth level.

Photographers

Florida State reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes and who are shooting for editorial purposes only. All photographers working FSU games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college football. Florida State uses a double photo line system on its sidelines. Only those photographers actually shooting the game will be allowed on the "front" line. These shooters will be given photo vests upon check-in to allow them front line access. All other photo personnel will be required to stay behind a second line as not to obstruct the view of the shooters. This would include grips, runners and sideline reporters. No media personnel are allowed in the team area of the sidelines at any time during a game. Sideline passes for over-the-air television will be limited to shooters only. Still photographers may have access to the sidelines only. Those holding a photography credential should report to the Press Box where they will be issued a vest, rosters and a pre-game meal. The only access to the field is through the gate at the northwest corner of the stadium near Gate A. A guarded photo workroom is available and located underneath Section 8 on the East side of the stadium in (E-142).

Postgame Interviews

Florida State's locker room is closed to media following games, both at home and on the road. Coach Fisher will hold his postgame press conference in the media room, while requested players will be brought to the media room to meet with media representatives after Coach Fisher has finished. FSU sports information personnel will take player requests during the fourth quarter of each game.

Digital Media

The Digital Media Department is responsible for presenting the Seminoles online. Offices are located on the second floor of the Moore Athletics Center.

The department manages FSU's official site Seminoles.com, the official social media platforms for the Seminoles, online stores, auctions, apps, promotional and championship sites.

SEMINOLES.COM ALSO PROVIDES:

- Live game audio featuring "The Voice of the Seminoles" Gene Deckerhoff and William Floyd
- Live video of the Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show
- Live in-game stats
- Unique written and video content aimed at engaging and informing Seminole fans
- Access to the Florida State Seminole Facebook and Twitter pages (@Seminoles.com; @FSU_Football)
- Roster, Schedules, Media Guides, Game Notes and more.

SEMINOLE IMG SPORTS NETWORK

IMG College is the nation's leading collegiate sports marketing company, offering national, regional, and local multi-platform marketing opportunities targeting 190 million college sports fans – the largest and most attractive sports fan base. IMG College is blazing new trails in the growing collegiate market with exclusive rights to nearly 90 universities. IMG's exclusive rights include intellectual property, experiential and promotional assets, event signage, digital, tickets, hospitality, live event radio, and shoulder programming including coaches' TV and radio shows.

Headquartered in Winston-Salem, N.C., IMG College employs more than 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S.

Voice of the Noles Still Booming in 38th year

Gene Deckerhoff joined an elite list of esteemed radio broadcasters when he called his 400th Florida State football game against Virginia in 2011. Now in his 38th season, the Jacksonville native and Florida grad moved to Tallahassee for the job he has now held since the 1979 season.

Deckerhoff was selected over two other broadcasters of some note - the late Tom Mees, who became a national figure at ESPN, and Craig Sager, who is best known for his NBA work on TBS.

A bona fide legend in broadcasting and one of only four announcers ever inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, Deckerhoff has also called FSU basketball since 1974 and been the voice of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since 1989.

In 2015, Deckerhoff was presented with the prestigious Lindsey Nelson Award for broadcasting excellence. He has been honored with the Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award 14 times and is a member of the Florida State University Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2013, Deckerhoff won the National Football Foundation Chris Schenkel Award.

The only FSU football games he has missed were bowl games that the school did not have the rights to broadcast.

IMG College is the leader in capturing consumer devotion to college sports through partnership opportunities. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites. IMG College is a division of WME IMG, a global sports, fashion and media business. For more information, please visit www.imgworld.com.

Florida State's broadcast crew is known as one of the nation's best, as it provides insight and entertainment, as well as detailed and expert analysis. The broadcast features award-winning play-by-play announcer Gene Deckerhoff, a veteran of the Seminole broadcasts heading into his 38th season. Deckerhoff is nationally known as one of the finest announcers in the South. The "Voice of the Seminoles" is a 14-time winner of the NSSA Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award and has been inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Deckerhoff has been the play-by-play announcer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the NFL for the past 27 years, making for some very busy fall weekends. He runs Gene Deckerhoff Productions, a firm specializing in sports broadcasting and the production of radio and television commercials.

National Champion and Super Bowl winner William Floyd joins Deckerhoff in the booth as the color analyst. Floyd is now in his ninth season broadcasting FSU football games after joining the team in 2008. The former Florida State great is very familiar with the broadcasting world as he has hosted his own radio show in the Bay Area and worked as a reporter and studio analyst for SUN Sports. Sideline reporter Tom Block joins Deckerhoff and Floyd in providing in-depth analysis during the game. Florida State's game-day broadcasts begin two hours prior to every kickoff.

The Jimbo Fisher Show

"The Jimbo Fisher Show," televised throughout the entire state of Florida, features the head football coach of the Florida State Seminoles. Coach Fisher is joined each week on the show by host Tom Block. Every Monday afternoon during football season, Coach Fisher along with Block review the action-packed highlights of the previous week's game.

Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show

On Wednesday evenings, Seminole fans have the chance to visit with FSU head coach Jimbo Fisher and "The Voice of the Seminoles" Gene Deckerhoff during "The Jimbo Fisher Call-In Show" live from the Four Points Sheraton in downtown Tallahassee. Coach Fisher's call-in show is an hour-long broadcast beginning at 7 p.m. The show features Coach Fisher and Deckerhoff talking directly with fans from across the country, touching on game insights, trivia, and random Seminole banter.

SEMINOLE PRODUCTIONS

Anyone who has visited the second floor broadcast facilities in the Moore Athletics Center has seen them - the two very large, yet overcrowded trophy cases in the Seminole Productions area. That's because each and every year, Florida State's Seminole Productions is recognized for excellence. With an experienced, award-winning staff and talented students, Seminole Productions is viewed as a leader in sports production, graphics, and visual communications. ESPN executives visited the state of the art SP facility and were so impressed, that they set in motion the groundwork to form a strategic partnership with Seminole Productions. ESPN has contracted Seminole Productions to produce both live events and show programming for their sports networks including ESPN3, ESPN2, and ESPNU. Since then, Seminole Productions has produced over 350 Live Events for ESPN including Football Pro Day, Football National Signing Day and Football Spring Games, as well as Baseball, Basketball, Soccer, Softball, Volleyball, Tennis, and also multiple NCAA Championships, just to name a few. Seminole Productions also recently completed a multi-million dollar renovation to its control room's and studio facilities in conjunction with the new video boards in Doak Campbell Stadium. The new and enhanced state of the art facility is now capable of running multiple network broadcasts and video board productions simultaneously. The new broadcast area is so advanced that major networks can run their broadcasts out of Seminole Productions control rooms without the need of expensive broadcast TV and satellite trucks.

Established in 1987, Seminole Productions handles virtually every video production need for Florida State Athletics. It produces the Jimbo Fisher, Leonard Hamilton, Sue Semrau and Mike Martin TV shows, as well as Seminole Sports Magazine and other contracted shows for major networks. Seminole Productions also provides all of the production elements and support for Seminole Vision, the in-game entertainment productions for all Florida State football, basketball and baseball home contests. Creating the perfect blend of high-tech wizardry with outstanding Seminole sports action is a big part of what Seminole Productions is all about. Seminole Productions also provides visual communication support for the government and other agencies throughout the State of Florida.

Over the years, Seminole Productions has won over 200 national and international awards in a variety of production and graphics categories. It has been recognized for its work with Florida State athletics on both TV programs, and for content running on FSU's Big Screen displays. SP has won the Golden Matrix award twice as the Nations Best College Video in game productions voted on by the NFL, NHL, MLB, and NBA. In addition, SP staff members were nominated for Emmy awards by the NATAS Suncoast Chapter over 3 consecutive years.

Seminole Productions has also established itself as a leader in stereo 3D (S3D) video production while producing Florida State football's highlight video in S3D. FSU is the only school in the nation to have their football highlights in S3D. Executive Director Mark Rodin continues to test the boundaries of S3D with experimentation in other sports and various programming. Seminole Productions has partnered with several industry leaders in broadcast production to test and evaluate S3D equipment, while seeking new techniques and applications.

Beyond it's professional work, Seminole Productions main mission is one of teaching and is a part of the FSU College of Communications and Information. Director Mark Rodin is a Faculty member and Senior Directors Jim Garbarino and Kirby Kander as well as producer Jerry Tootle are all Adjunct Professors for the College. FSU Communications students get to learn from industry professionals while working on real world professional productions for national networks learning their craft on state of the art equipment. Seminole Productions has placed students in the broadcasting and film industries everywhere from New York to Los Angeles and with professional sports teams nationwide.

2016 FLORIDA STATE FOOTBALL

Led by one of the NATION'S MOST ELECTRIFYING PLAYMAKERS, the Florida State football team enters the 2016 season with aspirations of RETURNING TO SUPREMACY in both the Atlantic Coast Conference and the nation.

The Seminoles RETURN 17 STARTERS from a team that went 10-3 and finished the season in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, and they received further reinforcements in February when they welcomed in a RECRUITING CLASS that several analysts RATED AS THE BEST IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL.

Needless to say, COACH JIMBO FISHER IS OPTIMISTIC as he begins his seventh season at the helm in Tallahassee.

"I like this team," Fisher said. "I see a lot of hungry players. I really do."

That starts with Dalvin Cook, the junior running back who last season cruised to a SCHOOL RECORD 1,691 RUSHING YARDS and begins this year on the shortlist of HEISMAN TROPHY CONTENDERS.

It continues with a DEEP STABLE of quarterbacks pushing each other in practice with hopes of being under center when the Seminoles open the season against Mississippi on Labor Day.

In Sean Maguire, FSU has a FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR who has played and WON on some of the BIGGEST STAGES in the sport. And in freshmen Deondre Francois and Malik Henry, the Seminoles have a pair of signal-callers looking to show that the FUTURE IS NOW. Finally, in sophomore J.J. Cosentino, FSU has a mix of both EXPERIENCE AND POTENTIAL.

It all adds up to what should make for a compelling race throughout fall camp.

"You have to look at who gives you the best chance to be SUCCESSFUL IN THE GAME," Fisher said. "And the bottom line, that's what it gets down to. All decisions are based on the SUCCESS OF THE TEAM."

Whichever quarterback emerges will find an offensive huddle LOADED with EXPLOSIVE running backs, VERSATILE receivers and a DEEP, EXPERIENCED offensive line.

I LIKE THIS TEAM. I SEE A LOT OF HUNGRY PLAYERS.

WALKER

In addition to Cook, FSU'S BACKFIELD will benefit from the CONTINUED DEVELOPMENT of sophomore Jacques Patrick, who, at 6-2, 233 pounds, is a PERFECT physical complement for Cook.

The Florida State RECEIVING CORPS returns its TOP THREE TARGETS from a year ago, a group that includes RIISING STAR Travis Rudolph as well as the SPEEDY DUO of Kermit Whitfield and Jesus Wilson. And tight end Ryan Izzo could be on the verge of a BREAKOUT SEASON after a promising 2015 campaign.

Up front, junior ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE Roderick Johnson leads FSU's offensive line, but the Seminoles RETURN EVERY STARTER from last year's group and an oversized class of freshmen will give FSU 19 SCHOLARSHIP LINEMEN this fall.

Despite the departure of star cornerback Jalen Ramsey to the NFL, FSU defensive coordinator Charles Kelly still has plenty of TALENT and LEADERSHIP at his disposal.

That includes SENIOR All-America candidate DeMarcus Walker, the defensive end who recorded 10.5 SACKS in 2015, as well as veteran linebacker Ro'Derrick Hoskins and senior defensive backs Nate Andrews and Marquez White.

Finally, the Seminoles may have found their NEXT GREAT DEFENSIVE BACK in the form of sophomore safety Derwin James, a freshman All-American whose PHYSICAL GIFTS allow him to line up from nearly anywhere on the field.

SPECIAL TEAMS will have a NEW LOOK this year, as freshmen Ricky Aguayo and Logan Tyler look to FILL THE SHOES of the departed Roberto Aguayo and Cason Beatty. Aguayo, Roberto's younger brother, got off to a STRONG START by enrolling at FSU in January and participating in spring practice. But he'll be pushed by Tyler, a TOP KICKING PROSPECT who can also handle punting duties.

As usual, the Seminoles will traverse one of the most CHALLENGING SCHEDULES in the country. After starting the season with Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference, FSU will return home to face Charleston Southern before heading back on the road for back-to-back games at Louisville and South Florida.

A LOADED OCTOBER slate features a RARE HOME GAME against defending ACC Coastal champion North Carolina, a visit to Miami and new coach Mark Richt, and a date with national runner-up Clemson in what should be one of the MARQUEE GAMES of the COLLEGE FOOTBALL SEASON.

In addition to a trip to NC State, FSU in November will also HOST A FRIDAY NIGHT GAME against Boston College before heading north to Syracuse and then finishing the regular season at home with the TRADITIONAL MATCHUP against RIVAL Florida.

2016 SEASON PREVIEW

QUARTERBACKS

■ With a seasoned veteran and a trio of promising young players in the mix, Florida State is rich with options at quarterback for the 2016 season. That begins with Sean Maguire, a fifth-year senior who owns a 5-2 career record as a starter. After starting the 2015 campaign as a reserve, Maguire kick-started the FSU offense midway through the year and finished with 1,520 passing yards (190.0 per game), 11 touchdowns and six interceptions. The Sparta, N.J., native could be the first fifth-year senior quarterback to start for the Seminoles since eventual first-round draft pick E.J. Manuel in 2012.

■ Maguire, however, suffered an injury during the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, which forced him to miss spring practice and opened the door for redshirt freshman Deondre Francois to get extra work in his absence. Sharing reps with redshirt sophomore J.J. Cosentino, Francois got plenty of action with the first-team offense, and he capped off his spring with an impressive showing (20-33, 246 yards, two touchdowns) at the Garnet and Gold Game in his hometown of Orlando.

■ Malik Henry, an early-enrollee freshman from Inglewood, Calif., offered a brief glimpse of the future with his own breakout performance at the spring game (15-22, 205 yards, two touchdowns).

RUNNING BACKS

■ In junior Dalvin Cook, the Seminoles boast one of the most electrifying players in the country, a potential superstar who enters the season on the short list of Heisman Trophy candidates. As a sophomore Cook shattered FSU's single-season records for rushing yards (1,691) and all-purpose yards (1,935), on his way to multiple All-ACC and All-America accolades, as well as the Jim Brown Award, which is presented to college football's top running back by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. The Miami native enters his third season in Tallahassee needing just 1,260 yards to become FSU's all-time career rushing leader. If he reaches the mark, Cook will have passed FSU legend Warrick Dunn (3,959 yards from 1993-96) in just three seasons.

■ At 6-foot-2, 233 pounds, sophomore Jacques Patrick has the size to provide the thunder to Cook's lightning. Patrick got off to a promising start, scoring five touchdowns while averaging 5.0 yards per carry (63-314) as a freshman. He'll look to increase his production in 2016 and bring a little more balance to FSU's rushing attack. Senior Ryan Green, back at running back after a year on defense, can also help in that regard.

■ When injuries struck FSU's backfield in 2015, it was Tallahassee native Johnathan Vickers who stepped up to carry the load. Vickers' nine-yard touchdown helped seal Seminoles' victory at Wake Forest, and, now a junior, his versatility and toughness will give him an opportunity to contribute even more.

■ Steady senior Freddie Stevenson will once again anchor the Seminoles at the fullback position. A native of Bartow, Fla., the 6-1, 243-pounder started 10 games in 2015 and often cleared a path for Cook's dynamic runs. Stevenson also showed some proficiency as a receiver, where he caught nine passes for 64 yards a year ago.

RECEIVERS

■ The receiving corps is one of the deepest and most experienced segments on Florida State's roster. That's thanks in large part to seniors Kermit Whitfield and Jesus Wilson and junior Travis Rudolph, who combined to make up more than 70 percent of FSU's receiving production in 2015.

■ Rudolph in particular appears on the verge of stardom, as he finished with a team-high seven receiving TDs while flirting with a 1,000-yard season as a sophomore. Even better, Rudolph steadily improved as the season went on and had his best performances toward the end of the year. That includes a dominant, 191-yard, three-touchdown effort against Syracuse as well as a 201-yard outburst in the season finale against Houston.

■ Wilson and Whitfield have been mainstays in the offense since 2013 and each brings an element of speed and elusiveness to the Seminoles' attack. Whitfield enjoyed a big junior season (57 catches, 798 yards, six TDs) and, as one of the fastest players in the country, can be used in a variety of ways.

■ A pair of juniors, Ermon Lane and Ja'Vonn Harrison, enter the season looking to capitalize on the potential they've flashed over the last two years. Lane, who has emerged as an imposing blocker, has reeled in 19 catches for 317 yards in his career. And Harrison was off to a strong start in spring camp before being sidelined by turf toe.

■ The Seminoles have a number of promising youngsters waiting in the wings. Tops on that list is Auden Tate, a 6-5, 218-pound sophomore who dazzled with six catches for 100 yards and two TDs in the Garnet and Gold Game. He's joined by fellow classmates George Campbell, Nyqwan Murray and Da'Vante Phillips.

■ The receiver group will get a boost this fall when freshman Keith Gavin arrives on campus. An Under Armour All-American from nearby Crawfordville, Fla., Gavin scored touchdowns on more than 30 percent (16 of 52) of his receptions as a senior at Wakulla High.

TIGHT ENDS

■ In his first season as a regular contributor, Ryan Izzo became FSU's fifth-leading receiver (behind Rudolph, Wilson, Whitfield and Cook) and his 15.0 yards per reception were second-most among players with at least 10 catches. At 6-5, 243 pounds, Izzo is one of the FSU offense's most physically imposing threats and is in the hunt for All-ACC honors.

■ Joining Izzo are the versatile Jeremy Kerr and former prep basketball standout Mavin Saunders. Kerr provided one of the most memorable plays of 2015 when he caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from Maguire in the Seminoles' win at Florida. Saunders' size and athleticism give him the potential to draw favorable matchups from opposing defenses.

■ There's an old face in a new place this season, as fifth-year senior Chris Casher has moved from defensive end to tight end. Fisher praised Casher's hands and route-running throughout the spring.

OFFENSIVE LINE

■ After taking a season to gain experience and chemistry, Florida State's offensive line has the potential to be one of the best in the ACC, if not the nation, in 2016. The Seminoles return every starter up front, as well as a number of key reserves with significant game experience.

■ FSU's success on the line starts with junior left tackle Roderick Johnson, the reigning ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner as well as a former freshman All-American. The Florissant, Mo., native has started 18 consecutive games and is a strong candidate for both All-America designations and postseason awards this year.

■ While FSU has the luxury of returning starters, there will still be some position battles in fall camp. Rick Leonard, a former defensive end who switched to right tackle, made some impressive progress at his new position in the spring. The Seminoles can also expect Corey Martinez (three starts at center in 2015), Ryan Hoefeld (eight career starts at center), Cole Minshew and David Robbins to have a say in how the front five shakes out as well.

■ Offensive line coach Rick Trickett is also set to welcome in a deep and impressive class of freshmen that will give the Seminoles as much depth up front as they have had in years. With FSU's six newcomers – Andrew Boselli, Landon Dickerson, Jauan Williams, Baveon Johnson, Mike Arnold and Josh Ball – included, the Seminoles will have 19 scholarship linemen on the roster this fall.

FSU DEFENSE

INTERIOR DEFENSIVE LINE

■ With two years of learning from more experienced players under his belt, it's Derrick Nnadi's turn to anchor the FSU defensive line. Nnadi led FSU's interior linemen with 45 tackles a year ago, and he contributed two sacks as well. He'll be joined by Demarcus Christmas, another junior stepping into a larger role after the departure of some key veterans. Together, they'll look to continue FSU's recent tradition of dominant play in the trenches.

■ The Seminoles are also blessed with plenty of depth for when Nnadi and Christmas need a breather. Beyond those two, FSU has five defensive tackles with at least two years in the program, including fifth-year senior Justin Shanks and redshirt junior Keith Bryant. Also in the mix are redshirt sophomores Fredrick Jones and Arthur Williams. And FSU got extra reinforcements in January, when junior college standout Walvenski Aime' and local freshman Cedric Wood joined the fold.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

■ FSU's defense has received top-rate leadership throughout the Jimbo Fisher era, from Lamaricus Joyner to Telvin Smith to Jalen Ramsey. This year, that torch passes to DeMarcus Walker, the senior defensive end who passed on professional football for one more year in Tallahassee. An All-America candidate, Walker became FSU's first player with double-digit sacks (10.5) since eventual first-round draft pick Bjoern Werner in 2012. Along the way, he posted career highs in tackles, tackles for loss, pass breakups and forced fumbles while helping to pace an FSU defense that allowed the ninth-fewest points per game in the country.

■ The Seminoles appear to have a rising star in sophomore Josh Sweat, a former top recruit who worked his way back from a serious knee injury to start nine games a year ago. In addition to 41 tackles, Sweat posted 5.0 TFLs, two sacks, an interception and three fumble recoveries. Redshirt junior Keith Bryant and redshirt sophomore Adam Torres will also provide experienced depth in the rotation this fall.

■ The defensive ends will get some reinforcements this fall from early-enrollee Janarius Robinson and incoming freshman Brian Burns, each of whom participated in the U.S. Army All-American Game.

LINEBACKERS

■ Ro'Derrick Hoskins, who emerged as one of the team's most pleasant surprises in 2015, is back to lead the linebackers as a redshirt junior. The Orlando native appeared in 12 games last year (six starts), and his 52 tackles and 6.5 TFLs are most among FSU's returning linebackers.

■ Redshirt junior Matthew Thomas is back in the mix after recovering from shoulder surgery, and reviews from spring camp suggest that the former five-star recruit hasn't missed a beat. Given the departures of seniors Terrance Smith and Reggie Northrup, Thomas will likely have an opportunity to make a quick impact. Sophomores Delvin Purifoy and Sh'mar Kilby-Lane also will look to contribute at all linebacker spots.

■ Junior Jacob Pugh is listed as a linebacker, but he can also be used as an edge rusher. The Tallahassee native finished with 32 tackles and three sacks a year ago.

■ Josh Brown, an early-enrollee freshman from Charlotte, N.C., drew rave reviews from teammates and coaches for his performance during spring camp. A U.S. Army All-American, Brown racked up 130 tackles and 14 sacks while leading his high school to a third straight state championship.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

■ For the fifth-straight season, the Seminoles must replace a defensive back drafted into the NFL. And this time, it's Jalen Ramsey, the All-American who went fifth overall to the Jacksonville Jaguars in April's NFL draft.

■ FSU, though, seems up to the task with a stable of DBs that may be as deep and talented as any in the nation. That starts with sophomore safety Derwin James, a freshman All-American who football analysts at Pro Football Focus suggested could already be the best defensive player in the nation. James is FSU's top returning tackler (91 stops) and his 9.5 tackles for loss are second only to Walker. The Haines City, Fla., native can play any position in the secondary, and he has the versatility to move into the box as a hybrid linebacker as well.

■ James' counterpart at safety, senior Nate Andrews, is one of team's most experienced defenders. Since carving out a role for himself as a freshman on FSU's 2013 national championship team, Andrews has appeared in 41 games in career. Sophomores Calvin Brewton and A.J. Westbrook are also in the safety rotation.

■ Junior Trey Marshall is set to return after an injury cut short a promising start to the 2015 season. Marshall, who hails from nearby Lake City, has played both safety and "star" throughout his career, and his versatility allows him to move around the field as situations dictate.

■ The Seminoles boast an embarrassment of riches at the cornerback position. Leading the way is senior Marquez White, who stepped up in a big way in his first year as a starter in 2015. Despite lining up across from Ramsey, White allowed completions on just 32.1 percent of the passes thrown his way, and opposing quarterbacks targeted him just seven percent of the time.

■ After White, there are a number of talented, young cornerbacks vying to fill Ramsey's old spot. That includes former high school All-American Tarvarus McFadden, as well as Washington, D.C., native Marcus Lewis, who had an impressive and confident outing at the Garnet and Gold Game. Junior Malique Jackson will provide depth and experience at the position as well.

■ Finally, Levonta Taylor, a consensus five-star prospect and the No. 1 high school cornerback in the nation, headlines a freshman DB class that may be the nation's best. Taylor, a native of Virginia Beach, Va., forced 10 turnovers as a senior. He'll be joined by Under Armour All-American Carlos Becker of Kissimmee, Fla., and Louisiana standout Kyle Meyers. All three have a chance to compete for playing time in a secondary that loves to use a deep rotation.

FSU SPECIALISTS

SPECIAL TEAMS

- For the fourth straight year, there will be an Aguayo kicking at FSU. With his older brother, Roberto, now with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, freshman Ricky Aguayo is set to continue his family's legacy. Aguayo joined the Seminoles in January and gave a fine preview of coming attractions by going 2 for 2 (from 45 and 46 yards) during the spring game. His 46-yarder tied the game with just seconds remaining on the clock.
- With four-year starter Cason Beatty having graduated, FSU will have a new punter for the first time since the 2012 season. Incoming freshman Logan Tyler will likely get a crack at it, having averaged 43 yards per punt as a high school senior. Tyler, who played quarterback, running back, safety and linebacker at Nixa High in Missouri, is also expected to compete for the kicking job.
- Kermit Whitfield enjoyed a startling return to form as a kick returner last year, with a 26.7 yards-per-return average that ranked 17th in the country. He'll likely be joined by longtime partner Jesus Wilson, who also handled most of FSU's punt returns in 2015. But, as usual, special teams coordinator Jay Graham has several speedy and talented options with which to experiment.
- Long snapper Stephen Gabbard enters his junior season having handled every punt, field goal and extra-point over the last two years. Since Gabbard took over, FSU hasn't missed a single extra point (104 for 104), and his snaps helped Beatty to a career year in 2015.

SEMINOLE FOOTBALL COACHES

JIMBO FISHER

HEAD COACH

Six years in to what is quickly becoming a legendary head coaching career, Florida State's Jimbo Fisher has established the Seminoles as one of the nation's premier college football programs and himself as one of the elite coaches of the current era.

Fisher already dots the record books by having captured a national championship in 2013, holding by far the highest winning percentage in ACC history (.829), leading all active coaches in wins per season (11.3) and collecting the most wins (68) of any "Power Five" coach through their first six seasons in modern history.

He has guided the Noles to unparalleled success, while developing NFL talent at an unprecedented rate. FSU set a modern-day record with 29 draft picks over a three-year span from 2013-15, including No. 1 overall pick Jameis Winston in 2015.

Fisher's goal when he succeeded iconic head coach Bobby Bowden in 2010 was to foster a program that sustained success by graduating student-athletes, turning out elite players and winning consistently. The Clarksburg, West Virginia, native has done just that while developing a family atmosphere. Fisher treats his players like his own family, challenging and praising when necessary to develop relentless competitors who are immune to adversity and have all the tools to become responsible young adults.

The results speak for themselves.

In his fourth year as head coach in 2013, Fisher planted the Seminoles back at the top of the college football world, leading Florida State to a 14-0 mark en route to the final national championship of the BCS era. FSU has built on that success in the two seasons since. Fisher followed up the historic campaign -- which included an NCAA record 723 points and the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (12.1) -- by leading Florida State to the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinals at the Rose Bowl and capturing the Noles' third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship in 2014. The Seminoles won an incredible, ACC-record 29 consecutive games along the way.

Despite losing 11 draft picks to the NFL the following year, Fisher led the Seminoles to a fourth-consecutive BCS/New Year's Six bowl game in 2015 and finished with 10 wins for the fifth time in six years. Defensive back Jalen Ramsey, kicker Roberto Aguayo and running back Dalvin Cook all collected All-America honors.

Fisher enters his seventh season with a 68-14 record, including four bowl wins and three ACC Championships. His winning percentage is the second-best in the nation among active coaches, while FSU's 49 victories since 2012 are the third-most over a four-year span in college football history.

Fisher and the Seminoles show no signs of slowing down, either. FSU returns 17 starters in 2016, including all 11 on offense, and signed the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in February.

After 22 seasons as a college assistant, including three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher in 2010 took over for Bowden - the second-winningest coach in major college football. The Seminoles' first new coach in 35 years, and just the ninth in program history, Fisher hit the ground running and hasn't looked back. He led the Noles to a 10-4 mark in 2010 - the most wins by a first-year coach in FSU history - and the first of four ACC Atlantic Division titles. He followed with a 9-4 season in 2011 and improved to 12-2 in year three before the perfect 14-0 2013 campaign, the one-loss 2014 season and the 10-3 mark in 2015.

Known for his success in developing quarterbacks, Fisher has tutored three first-round NFL draft picks at the position while at FSU. That includes Winston, who became the first Seminole selected first overall in the NFL Draft, going to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015. Christian Ponder (12th overall pick, 2011) and current Buffalo Bills quarterback EJ Manuel (16th overall, 2013) also developed under Fisher. Fisher guided Winston to one of the greatest seasons ever by a collegiate quarterback in 2013. Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while collecting several other awards in addition to consensus All-America honors.

Overall, Fisher has seen 38 Seminoles drafted into the NFL in his first six seasons, including 17 first- or second-rounders. In 2016, cornerback Jalen Ramsey was selected with the No. 5 overall pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars, while Roberto Aguayo was picked in the second round (59th overall) to become the highest drafted kicker in over a decade.

Florida State has been just as dominant on the recruiting trail under Fisher, putting together five top-five classes in the last six years. In addition to the No. 1-ranked 2016 class, the 2014 and 2015 classes were both ranked No. 3 in the nation by ESPN and the 2013 class was a consensus Top 10. Fisher's 2011 class was ranked No. 1 or 2 by every major recruiting service, while the 2012 haul finished at No. 2 per ESPN.

Off the field, Fisher has been arguably even more impressive. Since becoming head coach in 2010, Fisher has been very active in several efforts to raise funds and awareness for children with diseases, including his foundation, Kidz1stFund.

Kidz1stFund was founded in 2011 and is a national fund to raise awareness and research funds to find a cure for Fanconi anemia, a rare blood disease that affects many, including Fisher's youngest son Ethan. Kidz1stFund has already donated more than $3.5 million to FA research at the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital, the largest FA treatment center in the country.

In May 2015, Fisher helped Dick Vitale and the V Foundation raise $2.38 million in one night for pediatric cancer research at the longtime ESPN basketball analyst's 10th annual gala event. Fisher was honored at the event for his philanthropic efforts.

YOUNG NOLES CONTINUE SUCCESS IN 2015

The 2015 season saw Fisher guide the Seminoles into the nation's Top 10 for the majority of the season despite returning only eight full-time starters and having no four-year seniors. Behind Cook, who set school records with 1,691 rushing yards and 1,935 yards of total offense, Florida State won its first six games and was able to extend the nation's longest-active home winning streak to 21 games. Cook rushed for 266 yards and three TDs against USF and finished with 269 all-purpose yards against Miami. The Noles defeated the Hurricanes and their other in-state rival, Florida, for the third straight season to secure the "State Championship." The performance against the Gators in "The Swamp" was particularly impressive as Fisher's Noles dominated the ninth-ranked Florida team to the tune of 27-2 and earned FSU's first-ever three-game winning streak in Gainesville.

The season culminated with a fourth consecutive BCS or "New Years Six" Bowl appearance for the Seminoles at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl - an unprecedented feat matched only by Alabama. It continued the nation's longest active bowl streak to 34. The ACC honored 17 Noles for the third straight season with all-conference selections following the regular season led by Cook, Ramsey, Aguayo and left tackle Roderick Johnson, who all garnered first team accolades. Johnson also received the Jacobs Blocky Trophy, which is presented annually to the ACC's top offensive lineman. Cook was tabbed the winner of the Jim Brown Award given by the Touchdown Club of Columbus to the nation's top running back. FSU finished the season at No. 9 in the final College Football Playoff rankings and No. 14 in both the AP and Coaches polls.

TWENTY-NINE IN A ROW & FIRST-EVER COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

Florida State continued its historic run under Fisher in 2014, winning its first 13 games before falling to Oregon in the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl. The Seminoles capped a 29-game win streak by winning their third consecutive ACC Championship, defeating Georgia Tech, 37-35, on Dec. 6, 2014. The 29-game win streak shattered both the ACC and FSU records and was the nation's second-longest streak over the last 20 years. FSU became just the 14th team in college football history to win 29 straight games.

While the 2013 FSU team was historically dominant, the 2014 Seminoles showed the most resilience of arguably any team in the country. As the defending national champion, FSU had a significant bulls-eye on its back and received every team's best shot. And yet for 13 straight weeks, FSU refused to be knocked out. The Noles led the nation with five come-from-behind victories, including a school-record 21-point, come-from-behind win at Louisville and a 16-point rally at Miami.

A host of Seminoles collected awards at the end of the season. Nick O'Leary won the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end. O'Leary joined senior right guard Tre' Jackson, redshirt sophomore kicker Roberto Aguayo, redshirt senior offensive lineman Cameron Erving and sophomore safety Jalen Ramsey as First Team All-Americans. Senior receiver Rashad Greene wrapped up his career by setting the FSU record for career receptions and the FSU and ACC record for career receiving yardage. Fisher was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Paul Bear Bryant Coach of the Year awards for the second year in a row.

THE NATIONAL CHAMPION

Considered to have one of the best offensive minds in the college ranks, Fisher's early success has come in all three phases of the game: offense, defense and special teams. The 2013 season personified that balance with one of the all-around most prolific years in college football history.

The Seminoles set the national record for points in a season (723), while leading the nation in scoring defense (12.1). Aguayo, then a redshirt freshman, set the national record for points by a kicker (157) and won the Lou Groza Award.

The Seminoles captured their third national championship in school history in the final Bowl Championship Series National Championship Game, completing the largest comeback (18 points) in the game's 16-year history to defeat Auburn 34-31. Winston engineered an 80-yard, game-winning drive and threw the winning two-yard score to Kelvin Benjamin with 13 seconds left.

Head Coach Jimbo Fisher A CLOSER LOOK

- Fisher has the second- highest winning percentage of any active head coach (minimum five years) with a record of 68-14 (.829).
- FSU has won 49 games since 2012, tied for the third-most in college football over that span. The Noles have won 49 of their last 55 games.
- Fisher led FSU to three consecutive ACC Championships. The Seminoles' 37-35 victory over Georgia Tech in the 2014 ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C., gave the Seminoles 15 conference championships. FSU defeated Duke, 45-7, in 2013 and dropped Georgia Tech, 21-15, in the 2012 conference title game.
- Guided FSU to 29 consecutive victories during the 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons. The 29-game win streak shattered the ACC and FSU records and was the second-longest streak over the last 20 years and 12th-longest streak in college football history.
- Helped the Seminoles to their 34th consecutive bowl appearance in 2015 - the longest active streak in the nation and second all-time to Nebraska's 35.
- The Noles have an impressive 4-2 record in bowl games under Fisher. The Seminoles have advanced to four straight BCS/"New Year's Six" Bowl games since 2012 (Orange Bowl, BCS National Championship, Rose Bowl and Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl).
- Off the field, 72 Seminoles have received degrees since Fisher became head coach.
- Led FSU to its first National Championship win since 1999 and second consecutive Bowl Championship Series victory with a 34-31 victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Vizio BCS National Championship on Jan. 6, 2014 in Pasadena, Calif. FSU finished a perfect 14-0 and ranked No. 1 in both the USA Today Coaches and Associated Press polls for the first time since 1999.
- In 2013, Fisher was named the Rawlings National College Football Coach of the Year and the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year for Region 1 as the Seminoles became the sixth team ever to win 14 games and the first ACC team to accomplish the feat.

- Fisher's 2013 team set a new FBS record for points scored (723) which was previously held by Oklahoma's 2008 team who scored 716 total points. The 'Noles also set new FSU and ACC records for yards per play (7.67), points per game (51.6), touchdowns (94) and total offensive yards (7,267). The Seminoles' defense led the nation in scoring defense (12.1 points allowed per game) and interceptions (26). The 26 INTs also tied an FSU record.
- In 2014, Fisher's Noles led the nation with five come-from-behind victories, including a school-record 21-point, comeback win at Louisville and a 16-point rally at Miami.
- Has compiled a 14-1 mark against schools from the state of Florida: Miami (6-0), Florida (5-1), USF (2-0) and Bethune Cookman (1-0).
- Has guided Florida State to a perfect home record each of the last three seasons and is 38-4 at home in his six seasons. The 21-game home winning streak is the longest current streak in the country.
- Florida State has averaged 36.5 points per game since Fisher became the head coach in 2010 (82 games) and outscored opponents by 19.1 points per game (36.5 - 17.4).
- Fisher mentored quarterback Jameis Winston into the top quarterback in the country and Florida State's first-ever No. 1 NFL Draft pick in 2015. Winston became the youngest player to win the Heisman Trophy in 2013 and had arguably the greatest debut season in college football history. Winston set an FBS freshman, ACC and FSU record with 40 touchdown passes in a season and led the nation in pass efficiency (184.8). Winston finished his two-year collegiate career with a 26-1 record while tying the FSU record for career 300-yard passing games (14).
- Fisher coached rising junior running back Dalvin Cook to the greatest rushing season in Florida State history. Despite missing one full game and all but a few plays of another, Cook shattered the school records for rushing yards (1,691) and total yards (1,935) en route to All-America honors and the Jim Brown Award, given to the nation's top running back by the Touchdown Club of Columbus.

- 10 Seminoles have captured consensus All-America honors since Fisher became head coach (2015 - Ramsey; 2014 - Aguayo; Jackson, O'Leary; 2013 - Joyner, Stork, Winston; 2012 - Werner; 2011 - Powell; 2010 - Hudson).
- Under his guidance the last six seasons, the Seminoles have garnered 76 All-ACC honors (first team, second team, third team or honorable mention).
- Responsible for developing three straight FSU quarterbacks into first-round draft picks, including Christian Ponder, who was the 12th overall pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft, EJ Manuel who was the 16th pick of the Buffalo Bills in the 2013 NFL Draft, and Jameis Winston who became FSU's first-ever No. 1 overall pick to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2015.
- Has already turned out 38 NFL Draft picks in his first six seasons, including 17 first- or second-round draft picks. FSU set a modern day collegiate record with 29 draft picks over a three-year span (2013-15).
- Put together six straight top 10 recruiting classes, including five top five recruiting classes: 2011 class ranking (No. 1 by ESPN.com, No. 1 by Scout.com, No. 2 by Rivals.com, No. 2 by 247Sports.com); 2012 class ranking (No. 2 by ESPN.com, No. 3 by 247Sports.com, No. 6 by Rivals.com); 2013 class ranking (No. 9 by ESPN.com, No. 10 by Rivals.com, No. 10 by 247Sports.com); 2014 class ranking (No. 3 by ESPN.com, No. 3 by Scout.com, No. 4 by Rivals.com, No. 4 by 247Sports.com); 2015 class ranking (No. 2 by ESPN, No. 3 by Rivals and No. 3 by 247Sports) and 2016 class ranking (No. 1 by ESPN.com, No. 2 by Rivals and No. 2 by 247Sports).

JIMBO FISHER

The 2013 season was truly historic for Fisher and the Seminoles. On offense, Florida State set FSU and ACC records for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67). FSU led the nation with 94 touchdowns, which also was a school and ACC record. Florida State's 42 passing TDs was a school and conference record, while its 42 rushing scores set a new FSU mark.

On defense, FSU led the nation in scoring defense (12.1), pass defense (156.6) and interceptions (26), while ranking third in total defense (281.4). The Seminoles also led the conference in pass defense efficiency (93.8) and ranked third in rushing yards allowed per game (124.8). Only two teams scored more than 17 points against the Seminoles in 2013.

Fisher was named the 2013 Rawlings National College Football Coach of the Year and the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year for Region 1, as the Seminoles became the sixth team ever to win 14 games and the first ACC team to accomplish the feat.

Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while also nabbing the Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year honor and consensus All-America honors. He became the first freshman to win ACC Player of the Year honors and set the conference, FSU and national freshman record for single-season touchdown passes (40). Winston also broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057).

In addition to Winston's numerous accolades, center Bryan Stork won the Rimington Trophy awarded to the nation's top center, while Aguayo nabbed the Lou Groza Award and All-America honors. Joyner collected unanimous All-America honors and was a finalist for the Jim Thorpe and Bronko Nagurski awards.

The unprecedented success of the 2013 season came on the heels of FSU having an ACC-record 11 players selected in the NFL Draft and losing several key assistant coaches after the 2012 season. Those coaches became hot commodities themselves after FSU's success in Fisher's first three seasons and received coaching promotions.

EARLY SUCCESS AT THE HELM

In 2012, Florida State's defense led the nation in yards allowed per play (3.86) and ranked second nationally in total defense (254.14 ypg), while the offense churned out a then-school record of 6,591 total yards and 40 rushing touchdowns.

The 2012 team, Fisher's third as FSU's head coach, had a league-leading 12 Seminoles split between All-ACC First and Second Teams, while another four 'Noles garnered honorable mention honors. With a win over Georgia Tech in the ACC Championship Game and a win over Northern Illinois in the Orange Bowl, FSU closed the year ranked No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 10 in the Associated Press poll.

Quarterback EJ Manuel capped off his senior year with one of the most memorable seasons in FSU history, not only finishing as the school's most accurate passer in FSU history, but ranking among the top five Seminole quarterbacks all-time for passing yards, total offense, completions and attempts, despite only two seasons as a full-time starter.

Two-time Lou Groza Award finalist Dustin Hopkins became the ACC and FSU all-time leading scorer in 2012, and also set a new NCAA FBS record for scoring by a kicker, finishing his career with 466 points. That came one year after Shawn Powell's departure as a consensus All-America punter.

Fisher wrapped up his second season at the helm of the FSU program in 2011 by guiding the Seminoles to a 9-4 record, capped by their 18-14 victory over Notre Dame in front of a Champs Sports Bowl record crowd. Florida State ranked No. 23 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls after rallying in its 30th consecutive bowl appearance. It was a fitting finish to a season that saw the Seminoles successfully defend their state title, sweeping both Miami and Florida for a second consecutive season - something that had not been done since the 1998 and 1999 seasons.

Florida State's success under Fisher has not been unexpected. Fisher set the standard for expectations in his first season, delivering the Seminoles back to a place of national prominence with a 10-4 record in 2010. FSU capped the season with a 26-17 win over No. 19 South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl and finished at No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. In addition to their season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, the Seminoles won the ACC Atlantic Division title en route to their first 10-win season since 2003.

Three of his players in 2010 earned All-America honors: offensive guard Rodney Hudson (consensus All-America selection), Brandon Jenkins and Xavier Rhodes. Rhodes was named the ACC Rookie of the Year and National Defensive Freshman of the Year. Fisher capped off the 2010 season with three seniors selected in the 2011 NFL Draft, led by Ponder - the No. 12 overall pick in the draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Jimbo Fisher was honored at the 2015 Dick Vitale Gala for his philanthropic efforts.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS FORGED FORWARD-THINKING VISION

While maintaining the core values that legendary coach Bobby Bowden instilled over the course of his 34 seasons in Tallahassee, Fisher has a simple explanation for the sweeping changes he has brought to the program: You don't run a business the same way today as you did 10 years ago.

Fisher has carefully crafted his vision by borrowing from two major influences – Bowden and Nick Saban – both of whom Fisher served under as an assistant. Their influence, though very different, can be seen sprinkled throughout Fisher's own blueprint for success. Fisher wasted no time putting his stamp on the Seminoles. From assembling a staff of seasoned, ambitious assistants, to dramatically overhauling the program's infrastructure, he has left no stone unturned. His attention to every aspect of the program - from strength & conditioning, GPS monitoring, nutrition, mental training, academic support, talent evaluation and recruiting, player development and peer mentoring among teammates - is centered on establishing an unshakeable foundation that emphasizes the whole development of each player, and it's why Florida State was crowned national champions in just his fourth year.

FISHER'S Kidz1stFund LEADS THE FIGHT AGAINST FANCONI ANEMIA

Five years ago, on Aug. 5, 2011, Jimbo Fisher and Candi Fisher launched their public battle against Fanconi anemia (FA) after their youngest son, Ethan (now 11-years-old), was diagnosed with the rare disease that spring. Kidz1stFund was created with the goals of improving treatment options, raising national awareness of the disease, and helping to fund research that will lead to a cure. The returns on the hard work have been impressive as Kidz1stFund has given more than $3.5 million for FA research to the University of Minnesota's Fanconi Anemia Comprehensive Care Program. However, there remains no cure for FA and life expectancy is only about 33 years (although an increasing number of patients are living into their 40s and beyond). There is still a lot of work to be done, but the Fishers' commitment to defeating the disease is already showing progress, and most importantly, hope, for the thousands of families affected by the disease nationwide.

WHAT IS FA?

FA is a disease that a child is born with even if they seem healthy, but many patients can have a variety of health issues, including short stature, dark and light areas of skin, arm and hand abnormalities, kidney problems, heart defects and hearing problems among others.

FA is a disease that a child is born with even if they seem healthy, but many patients can have a variety of health issues. Patients with FA can have a variety of health issues, including short stature, dark and light areas of skin, arm and hand abnormalities, kidney problems, heart defects and hearing problems among others. Some patients have no physical findings, but nearly all will have a decline in their blood counts over time, eventually leading to bone marrow failure.

There is no cure for the disease itself, but a bone marrow transplant can treat the bone marrow failure associated with FA. While bone marrow transplants are risky, discoveries at the University of Minnesota have markedly improved survival for FA. In 1995, only 1 out of every 4 patients with FA survived an unrelated donor transplant. Today, 9 out of every 10 are expected to survive.

WHAT ARE THE GOALS OF Kidz1stFund?

The Fishers created a fund at the University of Minnesota Foundation titled "Kidz1stFund for Fanconi Anemia Research" in which all proceeds are donated to support FA research as directed by Drs. Margaret MacMillan and John Wagner, co-directors of the University of Minnesota Fanconi Anemia Comprehensive Care Clinic – the single largest treatment center for patients with FA in the country.

Through research, the survival rate after unrelated donor bone marrow transplants for FA has jumped from less than 30 percent to greater than 90 percent in the last 15 years.

It was estimated at the time of Ethan's diagnosis that he would need a bone marrow transplant in the following 3-5 years. Since the Fisher's elder son, Trey, is not a match, Ethan's transplanted bone marrow will come from an unrelated donor. The Fishers and Kidz1stFund support the efforts of the C.W. "Bill" Young Cell Transplantation Program, a federal program that supports bone marrow and cord blood donation and transplantation, by encouraging participation in the national bone marrow registry for Ethan and all patients across the country needing a life-saving transplant.

THE IMPACT OF Kidz1stFund

Kidz1stFund hosts bone marrow drives year-round in the Tallahassee area and inspires people across the country to register on their own. Since its inception, Kidz1stFund has added over 5,000 new registrants to the national bone marrow registry.

Fisher's players have also gotten involved. Most recently, NFL star and former Florida State cornerback Xavier Rhodes, of the Minnesota Vikings, partnered with Kidz1stFund and the University of Minnesota to help raise money and awareness. Former FSU tight end Kevin Haplea orchestrated the creation of a chapter of Uplifting Athletes at Florida State in 2013 to help bring awareness to FA and add support to Kidz1stFund through annual Touchdown Pledge drives and Lift For Life events. Current Seminole center Alec Eberle continues to lead the Uplifting Athletes efforts.

Kidz1stFund has already given more than $3.5 million to the University of Minnesota Masonic Children's Hospital for FA research and that money has had a direct impact on making some incredible advancements in the fight against FA. These include:

- Developing new and exciting strategies for improving outcomes after a bone marrow transplant;
- Manipulating the patient's immune system and the donor's cells to minimize the risk of infection while at the same time allowing the newly transplanted cells to grow;
- Conducting gene editing research aimed at correcting the defective FA gene in patients who have the disease and eliminating the need for a conventional bone marrow transplant;
- Developing a program to study all aspects of FA patients' health to reduce their risk for malignancies and to optimize their physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being;
- Using the new CliniMACS Prodigy, a leap forward in automated cell processing, to find out whether it is possible and safe to treat or prevent life-threatening viral infections in FA patients who are undergoing transplantation;
- Applying our FA discoveries to improve treatments for myeloma, breast cancer and ovarian cancer.

JIMBO FISHER

The Fisher Family

Yet the greatest influences in Fisher's life have been his parents, John James and Gloria Fisher. His late father, a coal miner and farmer who demanded accountability from sons Jimbo and Bryan, helped them understand the value of hard work from an early age. For Fisher, those lessons extended beyond the family farm and home and onto the fields and courts as a promising young football, basketball and baseball player.

By the time Fisher reached junior high school and became his team's starting quarterback, he was calling plays in the huddle. Win or lose, the car rides home with his father always included a critique of what transpired on the field.

Fisher learned about tough love from his father, but his future was also shaped by his mother, who retired in 2011 from the West Virginia public schools system after teaching high school chemistry for 51 years. It was Gloria who made sure that her son escaped a life in the coal mines and followed his dream after an all-state career at Liberty High School.

He has done both and with a high degree of success. After a one-semester stop at Clemson, where he was going to play baseball, Fisher returned home to Salem College in West Virginia. He starred for three seasons at quarterback, establishing a school and conference record for career passing yardage. A two-time conference player of the year and an All-American in his final season at Salem, Fisher transferred to Samford College in Birmingham, Alabama, for his final season of eligibility. He enjoyed a record-setting season in 1987 with the Bulldogs, earning NCAA Division III National Player of the Year honors, which he parlayed into a season with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League.

RIISING THROUGH THE COACHING RANKS

In 1993, Fisher joined the staff at Auburn and over the next 14 seasons, including stops at Cincinnati and LSU, he built a reputation as a keen play-caller whose development of quarterbacks was second to none in major college football. His list of standout pupils included record-setters Stan White, Patrick Nix and Dameyune Craig, who is the lone 3,000-yard passer in Auburn history. After guiding Cincinnati to one of its most prolific seasons in a one-year stint, Fisher joined Saban's staff at LSU. Over the course of a seven-year run with the Tigers, quarterbacks Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck, JaMarcus Russell and Matt Flynn were selected in the NFL Draft. Russell, who was the first player selected in the 2007 NFL Draft, and Davey were the first two 3,000-yard passers in LSU history.

LSU made seven consecutive bowl appearances, won two SEC titles, posted a 70-20 record and won the 2003 BCS National Championship with Fisher as its offensive coordinator. He was a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Fisher accepted Bowden's invitation to join the Florida State staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January 2007 and by the end of his first year was tabbed as Bowden's successor upon retirement. The quick ascent followed a similar arc to the Seminoles' offense, which improved statistically in each of his first four seasons.

Along the way he has significantly impacted FSU's recruiting, been instrumental in the development of quarterbacks and set the table for the inevitable transition to the seat occupied by Bowden since 1976. The time as a coach-in-waiting allowed Fisher the opportunity to closely evaluate the players and program as a whole; what changes needed to be made and how to work the proper channels to get that accomplished.

FAMILY FIRST

Fisher's sons, Trey and Ethan, are regular visitors in the football office. Trey follows his dad's same game day routine which is highlighted by running out of the tunnel on Saturdays. He and Ethan are heavily involved in community sports. Trey is a quarterback like his father and Ethan excels on the baseball diamond.

As a hands-on head coach who will continue to work with the quarterbacks and call plays, Fisher remains a vocal presence on the field, while balancing a myriad of off-the-field responsibilities, including raising funds and awareness for his foundation, Kidz1stFund.

Fisher does it all with a sense of responsibility and appreciation for Florida State's rich past and the men - Bowden and the players who have come before those he coaches today - who have built the program. Not surprisingly, he has welcomed those players back with open arms in an effort to bridge the past with the present and future.

It's that rich tradition that drew Fisher to Florida State and his time under Bowden. He's built on it thus far, and delivered the program's third national championship. The challenge now is to stay at the top of the mountain. It's a challenge Fisher is equipped for and wholeheartedly accepts.

• Charles Kelly in 2016 enters his fourth season at Florida State and his third as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach. Kelly coached linebackers and served as the special teams coordinator in his first season at FSU - the Seminoles' undefeated national championship season in 2013.

• Kelly led one of the nation's top defenses in 2015. Florida State ranked ninth in the country in scoring defense (17.8), 10th in yards per play allowed (4.69) and 19th in total defense (336.9). FSU was the only team in the nation that did not surrender 25 points in a regular season game, including a historic defensive performance at Florida where the Seminoles held the ninth-ranked Gators without an offensive point for the first time in over 28 years (1988) in the 27-2 victory. • Despite losing both previous starting cornerbacks early to the 2015 NFL Draft, Kelly's defensive backs paced the Seminoles defense behind consensus All-American Jalen Ramsey. Ramsey, who was selected with the No. 5 overall pick of the 2016 NFL Draft, moved from nickelback to boundary cornerback and combined with first-year starters Marquez White (CB), Trey Marshall (DB), Derwin James (S), Lamarus Brutus (S) and former walk-on Javien Elliott (DB) to form one of the nation's best units.

• Kelly's defense made huge improvements across the board in nearly every major category, moving from 50th in scoring defense in 2014 (25.6) to ninth in 2015 (17.8), from 63rd in total defense (396.9) to 19th (336.9), from 73rd in rushing defense (170.14) to 37th (145.31) and from 60th in passing defense (226.8) to 21st (181.6). One of the most notable leaps in improvement came in sacks, where FSU totaled 32 to finish in a tie for 31st nationally after registering 17 in 2014. The Noles also finished 15th in the country in opponent passer rating (110.94) and 19th in opponent passing TDs (14).

• In addition to Ramsey, who earned first team All-America and All-ACC honors, several other Seminoles grabbed honors on defense in 2015, including defensive tackle Nile Lawrence-Stample (All-ACC First Team, signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns) defensive end DeMarcus Walker (10.5 sacks, All-ACC second team), linebacker Reggie Northrup (All-ACC second team, signed a free agent contract with the Washington Redskins), linebacker Terrance Smith (signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Chiefs, three-time All-ACC) and James (freshman All-American).

• In two seasons as the defensive coordinator at FSU, Kelly has already had five defensive players selected in the first three rounds of the NFL Draft with Mario Edwards, Jr. (second), Eddie Goldman (second), Ronald Darby (second) and P.J. Williams (third) joining Ramsey. Kelly was also the linebackers coach for the fifth-round pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars and FSU All-American Telvin Smith and current Chicago Bears linebacker Christian Jones during the 2013 season. During his 21-year collegiate coaching career, Kelly has seen over 20 of his players appear in NFL games.

• Kelly's defense in 2014 led the Seminoles to the first-ever College Football Playoff and helped continue Florida State's program-record 29-game winning streak.

• The Noles' defense proved to be one of the nation's best at making second-half adjustments as FSU made five fourth-quarter comebacks in 2014. FSU also ranked in the Top 20 nationally in opponent red-zone conversions. The Seminoles held eight of nine ACC opponents to fewer points in the second half than their first-half total and only allowed four fourth-quarter touchdowns to conference foes.

• Several Florida State defensive players captured national awards in 2014, including Ramsey and cornerback P.J. Williams, who were each named All-Americans. Edwards Jr. and Goldman also collected All-America honors. Ramsey, Williams, Edwards, and Goldman all collected All-ACC first team honors as well. Smith, Northrup and Darby also grabbed all-conference honors.

• Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher promoted Kelly to defensive coordinator in February 2014, following a 2013 season where his linebackers helped guide a dominant defense that led the nation in scoring defense (12.1), pass defense (156.6) and interceptions (26), and ranked third in total defense (281.4). Only two teams scored more than 17 points against the Seminoles.

• In 2013, FSU's linebackers helped Florida State rank third in the ACC and 18th in the nation in rushing defense (124.79) and eighth in the country in opponent third down conversions (31.92 conversion percentage).

• Additionally, Kelly led the nation's most prolific special teams units with freshman kicker Roberto Aguayo and freshman kick returner Kermit Whitfield rewriting the ACC and NCAA record books in 2013. Aguayo set the national record for points by a kicker (157) and extra points (94) en route to capturing All-America honors and the Lou Groza Award, given to the nation's top kicker. Whitfield returned two kicks for touchdowns, including the 100-yard return that gave FSU the lead in the national championship game. His 36.4 return average shattered the FSU and ACC record and led the nation.

• Kelly came to FSU after seven years as a special teams and defensive backs coach at Georgia Tech. He was elevated to interim defensive coordinator in the sixth game of the 2012 season when the Yellow Jackets had a 2-4 record. After taking over as defensive coordinator, Kelly helped Georgia Tech finish 5-3 (7-7 overall), including a Hyundai Sun Bowl victory over USC. Kelly's defense limited the high-powered Trojan offense to 205 yards and seven points in the bowl win.

• In 2011, Kelly inherited four new starters in the secondary and molded that youthful unit into a group that helped Georgia Tech rank second in the ACC and 28th nationally in pass defense.

• Kelly served as the Yellow Jackets' special teams coordinator in 2006 and 2007. He was instrumental in making Georgia Tech one of the nation's best special teams units in 2007. That group went from 119th in the nation in kick-return defense in 2006 to second in 2007. Under Kelly's guidance, punter Durant Brooks and placekicker Travis Bell each earned first team All-ACC accolades. Brooks earned the prestigious Ray Guy Award in 2007 and recorded the highest career punting average in ACC history.

• Kelly spent the previous four seasons at Nicholls State, an NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) program, which captured the Southland Conference title in 2005. Under Kelly, who served as defensive backs coach during his first two seasons at Nicholls, the Colonels finished as the top-ranked defense in the Southland Conference in 2005 and 17th nationally among FCS programs.

• Kelly was instrumental in developing two-time All-America cornerback Chris Thompson, who was drafted in 2004 by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

• Kelly went to Nicholls State in 2002 from Eufaula (Ala.) High School, where he served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for two seasons. Prior to his move to the high school ranks, the Ozark, Ala., native spent one season (1999) as defensive coordinator at Henderson State and two seasons as defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State.

• Before going to Jacksonville State, Kelly served one year as a graduate assistant at Auburn and was part of the Tigers' 11-0 season in 1993.

• Kelly has coached over 20 players that have made it to the NFL, including Ramsey, Aguayo, Terrance Smith, Brutus, Northrup, Giorgio Newberry, Javien Elliott, Edwards Jr., Goldman, Darby, Williams, Telvin Smith, Jones, Brooks, Thompson, Delvin Hughley, Rod Sweeting, Isaiah Johnson, Jemea Thomas, Calvin Jackson, Chris Shelling, Dell McGee, Jahi Word-Daniels and Mario Butler.

• A 1990 graduate of Auburn with a degree in secondary math education, Kelly played defensive back under former Tiger coach Pat Dye. His senior class put together a four-year record of 39-7-2 while participating in four bowl games. In 2002, Kelly earned a master's degree in education from Troy State.

• Kelly and his wife, Kristy, have three daughters, Caroline, Kathleen and Charli Grace.

• Lawrence Dawsey enters his 10th season coaching wide receivers on the Florida State staff and his third season as co-offensive coordinator. Dawsey added passing game coordinator duties in 2010 and has been instrumental in the offensive game plan as the Seminoles have consistently had one of the nation's best offenses over the last six seasons.

• Dawsey has one of the most impressive playing résumés of any collegiate coach in the country, starting at wide receiver for the Seminoles from 1987-90 before becoming a third-round selection of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. Dawsey enjoyed a seven-season NFL career that included Sports Illustrated Rookie of the Year honors.

• Florida State's wide receivers have prospered under Dawsey's direction. Four Seminole wide receivers have joined the NFL ranks in recent years, including Kelvin Benjamin, who was a first-round selection (No. 28) by the Carolina Panthers in 2014 and Rashad Greene, who was a fifth-round pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2015. Kenny Shaw has spent time on the rosters of the Jaguars, Cleveland Browns and Oakland Raiders, while Rodney Smith has played for the Dallas Cowboys, Minnesota Vikings and the Cleveland Browns since his final season with the Noles in 2012.

• In 2015, Dawsey helped guide an offense that ranked near the top of the ACC in nearly every important category, including fourth in scoring offense (31.7), fourth in passing offense (255.8) and fourth in total offense (424.0). The Seminoles stayed at the top of the conference despite losing nearly their entire offense to the NFL, including the NFL Draft's No. 1 pick (QB Jameis Winston), FSU's career leader in receptions, the nation's top tight end and four offensive linemen.

• The Noles' offense in 2015 was led by Dalvin Cook, who set school records for rushing yards (1,691) and total yards (1,935) to go along with 20 touchdowns en route to All-America honors, while left tackle Roderick Johnson was named the ACC's top offensive lineman. Dawsey's wide receiver corps stepped up as one of the most impressive units in the country as Travis Rudolph (59 receptions, 916 yards, 7 TDs) and Kermit Whitfield (57 receptions, 798 yards, 6 TDs) each earned All-ACC Second Team accolades, while Jesus Wilson (58 receptions, 622 yards, 3 TDs) started all 13 games and provided consistency. FSU was the country's only "Power 5" team to have three players record 55 or more receptions. The receiving trio, Cook and Johnson all return in 2016 to lead the Noles offense.

• In 2014, the Seminoles averaged 33.7 points and 441.4 total yards per game under a balanced attack that saw Winston lead the ACC with 3,907 passing yards and 25 touchdowns, while also having running back Dalvin Cook register an FSU freshman-record 1,008 rushing yards. Senior tight end Nick O'Leary caught 48 passes for 618 yards and seven touchdowns and won the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end.

• Greene wrapped up one of the greatest receiving careers in ACC history in 2014. He set several records in his final campaign, including single season receptions (99), career receptions (270), career receiving yards (3,830), and consecutive games with a catch (43). The career receiving yardage mark is also an ACC record. Winston's favorite target during their two seasons together, Greene ended his Seminole career with 15 100-yard receiving games, including a career-high 203 yards in the 2014 season opener against Oklahoma State. Greene was a two-time All-ACC first team selection and an All-American in 2014.

• The 2013 season may have been the most productive for Seminole pass-catchers all-time as Greene, Benjamin and Shaw led a record-breaking offense. Greene (1,128 receiving yards) and Benjamin (1,011) became the first Florida State receivers to gain 1,000 yards in 11 years (Anquan Boldin, 1,011, 2002). The duo became just the second pair of Garnet and Gold wide receivers to cross the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season, joining E.G. Green and Andre Cooper in 1995. Greene led the Noles with 76 receptions and scored nine touchdowns en route to All-ACC first team honors. The 6-5, 234-pound Benjamin proved to be one of the nation's most dangerous red zone threats in just his second season on the field, leading the ACC with 15 touchdown receptions, including the game-winning scoring grab in the BCS National Championship Game. He captured All-America and All-ACC honors, while Shaw snagged all-conference honors after catching 54 balls for 933 yards and six touchdowns. Florida State set the FSU and ACC records for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67) in addition to the national record for points (723). FSU led the nation with 94 touchdowns, which also was a school and ACC record. Florida State's 42 passing scores marked a school and conference record.

• In Dawsey's role as the passing game coordinator, he and the wide receiver unit had direct roles in helping Winston complete one of the greatest seasons by a collegiate quarterback in 2013. Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while also nabbing the Davey O'Brien Award, Manning Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year honor and consensus All-America honors. He became the first freshman to win ACC Player of the Year honors and set the conference, FSU and national freshman record for single-season touchdown passes (40). Winston also broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057). Winston became FSU's first-ever No. 1 overall NFL Draft pick when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him in 2015.

• In 2012, Greene captured SI.com honorable mention All-America honors after leading the Seminoles with 57 receptions for 741 yards and six touchdown catches. Rodney Smith capped his four-year career by setting the then-FSU record for consecutive games with a reception (39). He finished his career with 106 receptions for 1,540 yards and 10 touchdowns.

• In 2011, six different receivers averaged better than 11 yards per reception for a passing offense that produced 25 TD receptions and 3,341 yards. Dawsey guided Greene, FSU's leading receiver, to one of the best freshman campaigns in FSU history as he posted the second-most receptions (38), receiving touchdowns (7) and third-most receiving yards (596). He ranked among the top five freshmen nationally in receiving touchdowns.

• FSU's wideouts also had a hand in quarterbacks Winston, Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel becoming first round NFL draft picks. Ponder was selected with the 12th overall pick by the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft, while Manuel was the first signal-caller off the board in the 2013 draft, going 16th overall to the Buffalo Bills.

• In 2007, Dawsey's first season, Florida State boasted three receivers - Preston Parker, De'Cody Fagg and Greg Carr - with 700 or more receiving yards for the first time in school history.

• Beyond the playing field, Dawsey has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He's picked up the Seminoles' efforts in the Tampa area and helped FSU attract a Top 5 recruiting class in five of the last six years, including No. 1 in 2016. In 2015, he was selected as one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals and one of the ACC's Top 10 recruiters, titles he also earned in 2011 and 2012. He was also selected as one of the top 50 recruiters in the country by 247Sports in 2012, 2013 and 2015, and one of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011. Additionally, Dawsey was named the 2011 ACC Recruiter of the Year by SI.com.

• Dawsey's first coaching job came as a high school assistant at Tampa Catholic in 1998. He did not return to the sideline until serving as a training camp assistant coach with the NFL's St. Louis Rams in 2001 and returned to the high school ranks in 2002 at Blake in Tampa.

• He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant on Nick Saban's LSU staff, where he worked with Jimbo Fisher. The Tigers posted a 13-1 record and won the BCS National Championship.

• Dawsey was an integral part of the Seminole football dynasty as a player. His four seasons at wide receiver corresponded with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by FSU during the dynasty era. As a player, he was known for his work ethic, accountability, precision route-running, down-field blocking and the ability to rise to the occasion in big games.

• A third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991, Dawsey enjoyed a seven-season NFL career. He also played for the New York Giants (1996), Miami Dolphins (1997) and New Orleans Saints (1999).

• Dawsey was named the NFL Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated and named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1991 after he led Tampa Bay with 55 receptions and set the club's rookie record with 818 receiving yards. Dawsey also led the team in receptions (60) and receiving yards (776) in 1992.

• Dawsey's family also has enjoyed success as well. His stepdaughter Dominique Arce is an FSU graduate and earned her M.D. at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tenn. She is an anesthesiologist at Brigham and Women's Hospital - a Harvard University Hospital. He and his wife, Chantal, also have a son, Lawrence, Jr., who graduated from Hillsborough High School with a diploma from the International Baccalaureate Program and is a freshman on the football team at Florida State.

• Randy Sanders enters his fourth season as quarterbacks coach at Florida State and his third as the co-offensive coordinator. Sanders' tenure has coincided with one of the most successful three-year stretches in Florida State football history. Since Sanders arrived in 2013, the Seminoles have gone 37-4, captured two ACC titles, won the 2013 National Championship and had a Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback.

• An 11-year offensive coordinator in the SEC at Tennessee and Kentucky, Sanders also won a national championship in 1998 with the Volunteers.

• Under the tutelage of Sanders, Jameis Winston became the youngest Heisman Trophy winner in 2013, the same season he led the Seminoles to a 14-0 record and Florida State's third national championship. During that historic 2013 season, Florida State set the national record for points in a season with 723, led the nation with a passing efficiency mark of 174.69, and set school and ACC marks with 7,267 yards of total offense, 51.6 points per game, 94 touchdowns, and 7.67 yards per play. Winston set the national record for touchdown passes by a freshman with 40, had seven 300-yard games and 11 consecutive games scoring 40-plus points.

• After a 2014 season that saw the Seminoles start the year 13-0 and reach the inaugural College Football Playoff, Winston entered the 2015 NFL Draft and was taken with the No. 1 overall selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He became the first Seminole to be the first player selected in the draft. Winston finished his two-year career with touchdown passes in all 27 games played, third in career passing yards (7,964), second in career touchdown passes (65), tied with fellow Heisman winner Chris Weinke with 14 career 300-yard games, the third-most wins for a starting quarterback in school history with 26, and his .963 winning percentage (26-1) is the best among Florida State starters.

• The Seminoles averaged 33.7 points and 441.4 total yards per game in 2014 under a balanced attack that saw Winston lead the ACC with 3,907 passing yards and 25 touchdowns, while also having running back Dalvin Cook register an FSU freshman-record 1,008 rushing yards. Senior tight end Nick O'Leary caught 48 passes for 618 yards and seven touchdowns and won the John Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end.

• The 2015 season found more success for FSU and the Seminoles' offense under the Sanders' direction. The Noles finished 10-3 and were led by running back Dalvin Cook, who set a school record for rushing yards (1,691) and all-purpose yards (1,935) while totaling 20 touchdowns and earning All-America honors. FSU's offense averaged 31.7 points per game and totaled 424 total yards per game – both ranking fourth in the conference. Sanders helped a pair of quarterbacks pass for over 300 yards in a game (Everett Golson and Sean Maguire) and the Seminoles' offense also had the league's top offensive lineman in sophomore left tackle Roderick Johnson. The Seminoles stayed at the top of the conference on the offensive side of the ball despite losing nearly all of their production to the NFL, including the NFL Draft's No. 1 pick (QB Jameis Winston), FSU's career leader in receptions, the nation's top tight end and four offensive linemen.

• Sanders joined the Seminoles after a stint at Kentucky where he was the Wildcats' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach since 2009. The Morristown, Tenn., native previously spent his entire coaching career in the SEC, where he began as a volunteer assistant with the Volunteers in 1989. Sanders has served as the offensive coordinator at both Tennessee and Kentucky and has been a part of coaching staffs that have been to 24 bowl games in his coaching career, including the 1999 National Championship game where he served as Tennessee's offensive coordinator for the Fiesta Bowl win over FSU that year.

• Upon his arrival at Kentucky in 2006, Sanders helped Andre' Woodson develop into one of the top quarterbacks in the nation. Seemingly overnight, Woodson blossomed as a player and a field general, leading the Wildcats to some of the most memorable triumphs in school history, including a pair of Music City Bowl championships.

• Along the way, Woodson led the Southeastern Conference in passing yardage, total offense and touchdown passes, including an SEC record 40 in 2007. He earned All-SEC honors both seasons and was drafted by the NFL's New York Giants.

• Sanders turned in another deft coaching performance in 2009. Mike Hartline was the starting quarterback until going down with an injury in the fifth game. For the remainder of the season, Sanders juggled Randall Cobb, seldom-used junior Will Fidler and true freshman Morgan Newton at QB. And, once again, the offense produced enough points to advance to a bowl game, along with ground-breaking victories at Auburn and Georgia.

• Prior to Kentucky, Sanders spent 22 seasons (1984-2005) as a player and coach at Tennessee, including the last seven as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He was named offensive coordinator after the 1998 regular season when David Cutcliffe became head coach at Ole Miss. Sanders' first game as offensive coordinator was the 1999 Fiesta Bowl when the Volunteers defeated Florida State for the national championship.

• Sanders was a quarterback on the Tennessee football team from 1984-88. He earned four varsity letters and was a four-year member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He remained with the team as a volunteer assistant coach, helping coach the quarterbacks in 1989-90 under head coach Johnny Majors.

• Sanders was promoted to a full-time assistant coach at Tennessee in 1991, working with the wide receivers in 1991-92. New head coach Phillip Fulmer named him running backs coach and recruiting coordinator in 1993. Sanders stayed in those roles through 1998, recruiting the players that took Tennessee to the national title, before moving to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach following Cutcliffe's departure.

• While Sanders was on the Tennessee coaching staff, the Vols had a record of 162-46-2 (.776) and won four SEC championships and six Eastern Division crowns in addition to their national title. The Vols played in bowl games his first 16 seasons, including four Citrus Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, three Cotton Bowls, two Peach Bowls, and once each in the Sugar, Orange, Hall of Fame and Gator bowls.

• Sanders and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Kelly and Kari.

• Odell Haggins was promoted to associate head coach in 2014 and is the longest-tenured member of the Florida State coaching staff, entering his 23rd season at the school where he starred on the defensive line from 1986-89. He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach in 1994 with the Seminoles and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture and helped the Seminoles to a pair of national titles in 1999 and 2013.

• Haggins has repeatedly developed future NFL pros while at Florida State. He has coached 17 defensive linemen that have been selected in the NFL Draft, including recent second-round picks Eddie Goldman (Chicago Bears, 2015) and Timmy Jernigan (Baltimore Ravens, 2014) and first-rounders Brodrick Bunkley (2006), Travis Johnson (2005), Corey Simon (2000) and Andre Wadsworth (1998). In 2015, Nile Lawrence-Stample captured All-ACC first team honors and signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns following the season.

• Led by Lawrence-Stample, Haggins' defensive line had another standout season in 2015 by anchoring one of the nation's best defenses. The Seminoles ranked ninth in the country in scoring defense (17.8), 19th in total defense (336.9) and 21st in passing defense (181.6). Most impressively, FSU allowed only 10 rushing touchdowns, fifth-fewest in the country, and improved from 17 sacks in 2014 to 32 in 2015. Sophomore defensive tackle Derrick Nnadi (45 tackles, 2.0 sacks) joined Lawrence-Stample (36 tackles, 3.5 TFLs) on the all-conference squad, snagging third team accolades, while redshirt freshman Demarcus Christmas (19 tackles) emerged as a potential star.

• In 2014, Haggins oversaw a young interior defensive front line anchored by defensive tackle Goldman. Despite the youth on the defensive front, the Seminole defense still ranked in the top 30 in the country in six different categories. Goldman tallied a team-high 4.0 sacks, 8.0 tackles for loss and 35 total stops. He captured All-America third team honors from the Associated Press and was an All-ACC first team selection. The Seminoles advanced to the first-ever College Football Playoff, set a Florida State record with a 29-game winning streak and captured the program's third straight Atlantic Coast Conference Championship. After Lawrence-Stample was injured in the season's third game, Haggins got great production from redshirt junior Derrick Mitchell Jr. (20 tackles), senior Desmond Hollin (33 tackles, 4.0 TFLs) and Nnadi (18 tackles, 1.5 TFLs).

• A staunch interior defense played a prominent role in helping Florida State to its third national championship in the 2013 season. Jernigan, the Noles' star nose guard, enjoyed another fine season as he earned All-America nods from several organizations including the Football Writers Association of America, Associated Press and USA TODAY. The high-powered run-stuffer in the trenches led a defensive front that surrendered just seven rushing touchdowns, the fewest in the nation. Florida State's defensive tackles paved the way for the nation's top scoring defense (12.1 ppg) and the third-best total defense (281.4 ypg). The work of the front four was noticeable on several fronts, including allowing just 124.8 yards per game by opposing rushers. Opponents averaged just 3.3 yards per rush against the stout defensive front of the Seminoles, and FSU continued its strong pass rush, racking up 35 sacks in 2013.

• Following the 2013 season, Jernigan was the 48th overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Ravens, while two other veteran standout defensive tackles, Jacobbi McDaniel (Browns) and Demonte McAllister (Seahawks), signed professional contracts as free agents.

• The 2012 season was another banner year for Haggins' charges on the interior defensive line as three Seminole defensive tackles earned All-ACC honors with senior Everett Dawkins and sophomore Jernigan capturing All-ACC second team honors, while senior Anthony McCloud picked up All-ACC honorable mention accolades. In part due to suffocating pressure up front, the Seminoles ranked second in the nation in total defense in 2012, yielding just 254.14 yards per contest.

• The Noles also ranked first in the nation in pass efficiency defense (95.43), pass defense (161.86), third in rushing defense (92.29) and sixth in scoring defense (14.71) in 2012. FSU allowed opposing running backs just 2.75 yards per carry, which tied for fourth in the country.

• Haggins has been able to build depth with his interior defensive line group that at one point in 2011 was four-deep at each position. That season, his regular rotation of McCloud, Dawkins, Cameron Erving and freshman All-American Jernigan produced 100 tackles, including 16.5 behind the line of scrimmage. FSU's run defense allowed opposing backs to average just 2.35 yards per carry, which led all 120 FBS programs. The Seminoles ranked fourth nationally in total defense (275.0), second in rushing defense (82.69), fourth in scoring defense (15.1), eighth in tackles for loss (8.62) and tied for eighth in sacks (3.08 per game).

• Haggins helped produce one of the best defensive lines in the nation in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks per game, 21st in tackles for loss and 42nd in total defense. The Seminoles tied with Boise State for first nationally in total sacks with 48.

• Named one of the six best defensive line coaches in college football by CBS Sports columnist Dennis Dodd in 2008, Haggins has repeatedly turned out top-flight talent with Bunkley, Johnson, Simon and Wadsworth all being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. The No. 3 overall pick (Arizona) in the 1998 draft, Wadsworth remained the highest drafted player in FSU history until Jameis Winston was selected No. 1 overall in 2015.

• In addition to the first-rounders, Haggins' pupils have also included Pro Bowler Darnell Dockett (third round) - whom he recruited and mentored - Larry Smith (second), Andre Fluellen (third), Jerry Johnson (fourth), Julian Pittman (fourth) and Letroy Guion (fifth). Most recently, Goldman was selected with the 39th pick in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

• Haggins has won at every level as a player and a coach. He was on the front end of Florida State's dynasty years, starring at nose guard for the Seminoles. FSU posted a 39-8-1 record with Haggins in the lineup from 1986-89 and he was part of four bowl-winning teams. He earned Kodak, Walter Camp and UPI All-American honors as a senior in 1989.

• A ninth-round pick in the 1990 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, Haggins went on to play for the Buffalo Bills during their 1991 Super Bowl season. Following a three-year NFL career, he returned to Florida State, completed his degree and joined Bobby Bowden's staff following the Seminoles' 1993 national championship season.

• As an assistant coach, Haggins has established himself as an outstanding recruiter, developer of talent and a role model to his players. He earned ACC Top Recruiter of the Year honors from ESPN in 2012. For the fourth consecutive year, Haggins was named one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2014. In 2016, Haggins captured the same Top 25 mention from 247Sports. He has been a part of FSU staffs which have posted a 218-65 record with 22 consecutive bowl appearances.

• Haggins' 1999 defensive front included future NFL standouts Corey Simon and Jerry Johnson, who were instrumental in FSU's 12-0 run to the national championship.

• The Seminoles boasted the nation's top-ranked defense in 1998 and the No. 1 rushing defense in 1996 and 1997. The 2008 defense ranked first nationally in tackles for loss.

• Haggins and his wife, Robin, have one daughter, Amelia Grace.

• One of the top and most respected offensive line coaches in all of college football, Rick Trickett enters his 10th season at Florida State and his 44th overall in 2016. He is nationally recognized for his ability to identify, recruit and develop talent. The 2013 and 2014 seasons proved that Trickett was not only one of the top offensive line coaches in the nation, but one of the best assistant coaches in college football as the Seminole offensive line served as the foundation for the highest scoring offense in college football history, a 29-game winning streak, and an undefeated national championship season.

• Trickett's coaching performance in 2015 will go down as one of the most impressive feats of his career. Despite returning just one starter and no seniors and juggling six different starting lineups that featured nine different starters because of injuries, the Seminole offensive line opened holes for running back Dalvin Cook, who tallied school records in rushing yards (1,691) and total yards (1,935) en route to All-America honors. Led by All-ACC award-winners Rod Johnson (first team), Kareem Are (honorable mention) and Chad Mavey (honorable mention), the FSU line paced an offense that averaged 31.7 points per game and totaled 424 total yards per game - both ranking fourth in the conference. At the end of the season, Johnson was named a second-team All-American and became the third consecutive Seminole to capture the Jacobs Blocking Trophy given to the ACC's top offensive lineman, joining Cameron Erving, who won the award in 2013 and 2014. Trickett's linemen have won the Jacobs Trophy five times in the last seven years, as Rodney Hudson captured the honor in 2009 and 2010.

• In 2014, the Seminoles returned four of five starters from the BCS National Championship win against Auburn. The line helped Cook to break the 1,000-yard barrier, the first freshman in Seminole history to reach that milestone. Trickett also presided over the move of Erving, an All-American, from left tackle to center for the final five games of 2014, opening a spot for Johnson, a true freshman, at left tackle. Johnson collected several freshman All-America honors, while Erving earned first team All-ACC honors at left tackle and second (media) and third (coaches) team honors at center.

• Jackson was named a unanimous All-American in 2014 and the South Team MVP in the Senior Bowl. Jackson collected All-ACC first team three consecutive years. Erving was named the ACC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner for the second straight season. Matias and Hart also snagged all-conference honors.

• Trickett's standout offensive line paved the way for the Seminoles to have the most prolific offense in the country in 2013 and capture the BCS National Championship en route to a perfect 14-0 season. FSU set school and ACC records for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67) as well as the national record for points (723) while leading the nation in touchdowns (94). FSU set the ACC and school records for total touchdowns, passing touchdowns (42) and the school record for rushing touchdowns (42). Florida State ranked first in the ACC and sixth in the nation in total offense (519.1). With the nation's top offensive line providing protection and opening holes, Florida State rushed for 2,844 yards (5.6 ypc), while passing for 4,423 yards, helping first-year quarterback Jameis Winston (4,057 yards, 40 touchdowns) win a plethora of awards and become the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In addition, Trickett's offensive line created running lanes for tailback Devonta Freeman to become the first Seminole since 1996 to gain 1,000 yards rushing.

• In 2013, Stork captured consensus All-America honors and won the Rimington Trophy, given to the nation's top center. Stork became the second Trickett-coached player to earn the Rimington, joining 2006 winner Dan Mozes of West Virginia.

• The 2012 season was FSU's most productive offensive season until the 2013 campaign and Trickett's offensive line was vital to Florida State's success. The Seminoles set a then-FSU record with 6,591 yards of total offense and surpassed 500 yards of total offense six times behind a front line in which all five starters captured all-conference honors. Florida State ranked second in the ACC in rushing offense (206.21) and third in total offense (471.50) and scoring offense (39.29).

• In 2010, Trickett's line featured Hudson, who became one of the most decorated offensive linemen in school and ACC history, earning unanimous first team All-America honors in 2010. Hudson was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, won his second consecutive Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's most dominant lineman and was only the second lineman in league history to be selected All-ACC four times.

• Trickett came to FSU from West Virginia, where he coached from 2001-2006. The Mountaineers finished among the top 15 rushing offenses from 2002-2006 and three times were among the top-five nationally behind Trickett-coached lines. In 2006, the Mountaineers were second in the nation in rushing, third in scoring offense and fifth in total offense.

• More than 35 players Trickett has coached have gone on to play in the NFL and more than 38 players have won all-conference honors, including four of his five linemen at West Virginia in 2005 and 2006 and all five Seminole starters in 2012 and 2013. At LSU in 2000, three of his players earned All-SEC honors.

• Additionally, Trickett is one of the nation's top recruiters and he was instrumental in the Seminoles' No. 1 ranked recruiting class in 2016 after which he was named one of the nation's Top 5 Recruiters by ESPN and was named to 247Sports Top 10 Recruiters list and among Rivals Top 25 Recruiters.

• Trickett earned his undergraduate degree in 1972 from Glenville (W.Va.), where he was an all-conference strong safety. He received his master's degree from Indiana (Pa.) in 1975.

• Trickett is a U.S. Marine Corps and Vietnam War veteran.

• Trickett released a book in 2012, "Complete

Offensive Line" is a comprehensive guide to the techniques, drills and game strategies necessary to develop an effective offensive front.

• The Trickett's have been a fixture on the FSU campus since Rick's 2007 arrival in Tallahassee. All three of Tara and Rick's sons have been involved in the football program with Travis serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 after serving as a videographer. He received his master's degree from FSU and is now the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Florida Atlantic. Travis and his wife, Tiffany, have a 2-year-old son, Maverick. Clint spent three years as a quarterback for the Noses and graduated with a degree in social science, and two seasons at West Virginia, where he passed for 4,890 yards and 25 touchdowns for the Mountaineers. Clint is now the quarterbacks coach at East Mississippi Community College. Chance graduated from FSU in spring 2011 with his bachelor's degree and worked in the FSU recruiting office. After a stint as the Director of Recruiting at Louisiana Tech, Chance now works in the scouting department for the Los Angeles Rams.

• Tim Brewster enters his fourth season as the Seminoles' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator in 2016, having firmly cemented himself as not only the nation's premier tight ends coach, but also college football's top recruiting coordinator.

• The Seminoles' 2016 recruiting class is ranked No. 1 in the nation and features 18 four- or five-star rated players as well as 13 Under Armour All-Americans and four U.S. Army All-Americans. It marks the Noles' third straight top-three class. Brewster was named the ACC's Top Recruiter by ESPN and made 247Sports' Top 10 Recruiters list and was among Rivals' Top 25 Recruiters.

• Brewster also developed current Buffalo Bill Nick O'Leary into the nation's top tight end. In 2014, O'Leary won the John Mackey Award, given to college football's most outstanding tight end, and was a consensus All-American. O'Leary became the top tight end in Seminole history and one of the best in ACC history from 2013-14. O'Leary finished with 618 yards receiving and six touchdowns on 48 catches en route to All-ACC first team honors in 2014, after hauling in 33 receptions for 557 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013. Overall, O'Leary left Florida State as the school leader in every category among Seminole tight ends, including receptions (114), yards (1,591) and touchdowns (18). O'Leary was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

• After the departure of O'Leary, Brewster's tight end corps was still an integral part of the Florida State offense in 2015. Redshirt freshman Ryan Izzo led the way with 14 receptions for 210 yards and two touchdowns, while becoming an outstanding blocker that helped pave the way for Dalvin Cook's school record 1,691 rushing yards and an offense ranked fourth in the ACC in scoring offense (31.7), passing offense (255.8) and total offense (424.0). Redshirt sophomore Jeremy Kerr's 1-yard, fourth-and-goal touchdown at Florida propelled the Noles to a 27-2 victory over the ninth-ranked Gators.

• In 2013, O'Leary was a dominant force on a Florida State squad that set the national record for points (723). One of three finalists for the Mackey Award, O'Leary was named to the All-ACC Second Team and scored All-America Third Team from CBSSports.com and Lindy's. O'Leary averaged 16.9 yards per catch - a mark that led all tight ends in the nation. In addition to helping the Seminoles set the national points mark, O'Leary's blocking and receiving talents helped the Noles set the FSU and ACC record for single-season total offense (7,267 yards), points per game (51.6) and yards per play (7.67), while leading the country with 94 touchdowns.

• It's no coincidence that Florida State has had some of the nation's top tight end play in Brewster's three years at FSU. Brewster was the tight ends coach for the San Diego Chargers from 2002-04 and the Denver Broncos from 2005-06 after coaching that same position at North Carolina from 1989-97 and Texas from 1998-2001. Brewster coached All-Pro tight end Antonio Gates while with the Chargers and saw six tight ends sign NFL contracts during his UNC and Texas tenures. He was the head coach at Minnesota from 2007-10 and the wide receivers coach at Mississippi State in 2012.

• In addition to FSU's No. 1-ranked class by ESPN in 2016, Brewster and the Seminoles landed the nation's second-best recruiting class by ESPN and No. 3-ranked class from 247Sports in 2015. Among the 2015 recruiting class was three five-star and 12 four-star recruits, including three of the top 11 players in the country as rated by ESPN.

• FSU had another spectacular Signing Day in 2014, inking 13 ESPN Top 300 prospects, three consensus five-star recruits in the 247Sports composite rankings, 13 four-star players and 11 three-star Noles. ESPN ranked Brewster the nation's No. 6 recruiter for 2014, while 247Sports rated him No. 7. The Seminoles' recruiting class was rated No. 3 nationally by ESPN and No. 4 by 247Sports in 2014.

• Brewster joined the Florida State coaching staff in February of 2013 following a stint in 2012 as the wide receivers coach at Mississippi State where he helped the Bulldogs break several records. Brewster was the head coach of the Minnesota Golden Gophers from 2007-2010 before spending the 2011 season as a college football analyst for Fox Sports. He led the Golden Gophers to the Insight Bowl in both 2008 and 2009, while Brewster's teams have played in 15 bowl games overall. Prior to Minnesota, Brewster spent five seasons in the National Football League. He concluded his second season as tight ends coach for the Denver Broncos in 2006. Brewster instructed the San Diego Chargers tight ends from 2002-04 and held additional responsibilities as the team's assistant head coach for the 2004 season.

• During his tenure with the Chargers, Brewster oversaw the rapid development of Gates, who in 2004 earned first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and a Pro Bowl selection after playing only his second year of football since high school. Gates set an NFL single-season touchdown record (13) for tight ends in 2004 while ranking third in receiving yards (964) and fourth in receptions (81) among NFL tight ends.

• Before working for San Diego, Brewster enjoyed success coaching tight ends at the University of Texas (1998-2001) and the University of North Carolina (1989-97). He worked on Mack Brown's staffs at both schools and developed six tight ends who signed NFL contracts.

• In four years at Texas, Brewster tutored two tight ends who earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, including 1998 first-team selection Derek Lewis, and coached two players who signed NFL contracts in Lewis and Bo Scaife, who was drafted in the sixth round by Tennessee in 2005. Brewster's tight ends at Texas blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his four seasons at the school, highlighted by Ricky Williams' 2,124-yard season in 1998.

• In nine years at North Carolina, Brewster mentored four All-ACC selections at tight end and helped the school advance to six consecutive bowl games from 1992-97. As recruiting coordinator, his efforts secured the talent that helped the 1997 team go 11-1 and finish fourth in the nation.

• Brewster guided Alge Crumpler to a second-team All-ACC distinction and honorable mention All-America accolades from Football News as a sophomore in 1997. He also mentored Freddie Jones to a first-team All-ACC selection in 1995 and again in 1996 when Jones set a North Carolina single-season record for receptions by a tight end (32) to garner third-team All-America honors from Football News.

• His tight ends at North Carolina were critical to the team's rushing success as their blocking helped clear the way for five different 1,000-yard seasons, including Natrone Means' back-to-back 1,000-yard years in 1991 and '92. Greg DeLong, a first-team All-ACC tight end in 1994, twice earned ACC Lineman of the Week honors for his blocking in 1996 under Brewster's tutelage.

• Brewster spent 1987-88 as head coach at Central Catholic High School in Lafayette, Ind., directing a wide-open offense while his squad's won 15 of 23 games during that period. He developed Indiana's passing leader in both of his seasons as head coach.

• Brewster began his coaching career in 1986 at Purdue, where he coached tight ends and offensive tackles as a graduate assistant.

• A former two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection at the University of Illinois, Brewster led the nation's tight ends in receiving in 1983 and captained Illinois to the 1984 Rose Bowl against UCLA. Brewster, who graduated from Illinois with a bachelor's degree in political science, participated in training camps of the New York Giants (1984) and Philadelphia Eagles (1985).

• Brewster was born Oct. 13, 1960, in Phillipsburg, N.J. He and his wife, Cathleen, have three sons: Eric, Clint and Nolan.

• Jay Graham enters his fourth season at Florida State in 2016, and third as both the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The former All-SEC and NFL running back has coached the running backs in all three of his seasons at Florida State, including current NFL players Carlos Williams (Buffalo Bills), Devonta Freeman (Atlanta Falcons) and James Wilder Jr. (Buffalo Bills), as well as 2015 All-American Dalvin Cook.

• Under Graham's tutelage, Cook authored the greatest season by a running back in Florida State history in 2015 by setting school records for rushing yards (1,691) and total yards (1,935) while collecting the Jim Brown Award, given to the nation's top running back by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. Cook finished the year as the only player nationally to rank in the top 10 in the following offensive categories: rush yards/carry (2nd), rushing yards/game (5th), all-purpose yards (6th), rushing yards (6th), rushing touchdowns (8th) and scoring (10th). Cook tallied six 150-yard rushing games in 2015 including two 200-yard games (266 vs. USF, 222 vs. Miami). Cook's 2015 season came on the heels of an outstanding freshman campaign that saw the Miami, Fla., native become the first Seminole to break the 1,000-yard barrier (1,008). He rushed for 100 yards in the final three games of the 2014 season, including 177 in an MVP performance in the ACC Championship Game.

• Graham also prepped true freshman running back Jacques Patrick for a standout performance when Cook missed the Syracuse game with an injury. Patrick rushed for 162 yards and three touchdowns and recorded six catches for 62 yards against the Orange in his first career start.

• Williams was selected by the Bills in the fifth round of the 2015 draft, completing an impressive transition from safety to running back under the guidance of Graham. Freeman was a fourth-round selection by the Falcons in 2014 and has emerged as one of the NFL's top running backs after his Pro Bowl season in 2015. Wilder enters his third season in his professional career, signing with the Bills in the offseason.

• Graham also coached South Carolina running back Marcus Lattimore, who posted consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons, before being selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft.

• A native of Concord, N.C., Graham was a standout All-SEC running back from 1993-96 at Tennessee, rushing for 2,609 yards and totaling 14 career 100-yard games. Graham earned All-SEC second team honors as both a junior and a senior and helped the Vols to three bowl victories.

• Following his successful career at Tennessee, Graham was a third-round pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 1997. He spent six seasons in the NFL with Baltimore, Seattle, and Green Bay.

• Graham has spent 11 years coaching, including three seasons in the SEC at South Carolina and two at his alma mater, Tennessee. He began his coaching career in 2005 as a graduate assistant with the Vols before returning in 2012 as the running backs coach.

• Graham has lost just four games since joining the Seminoles in 2013, guiding the Seminoles to 27 consecutive victories to open his career with Florida State. FSU is 37-4 since the start of the 2013 season.

• Before Graham arrived in Tallahassee, no Seminole had rushed for 1,000 yards in a season since Warrick Dunn in 1996. Graham has seen a running back eclipse that mark every year since he arrived, beginning with Devonta Freeman's 1,016-yard campaign in 2013 and followed by Cook's back-to-back record breaking seasons.

• Graham has also done a fantastic job as FSU's special teams coordinator for the past two seasons. Senior punter Cason Beatty saw incredible improvement his senior year and led the ACC in punting average (45.2 yards per punt) in 2015. Redshirt junior kicker Roberto Aguayo wrapped up one of the greatest careers ever for a collegiate kicker by grabbing All-America first team honors for the third consecutive season. He left FSU as the most accurate kicker in college football history with a .9673 conversion rate. He made all 198 of his extra point attempts and 69-of-78 field goals. He became the highest drafted kicker since 2005 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft. Aguayo was also one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award in 2014 after drilling 27 of 30 field goals and all 55 extra points in Graham's first year as the Noles' special teams coordinator.

• One of Graham's most impressive coaching jobs came with Williams. Graham oversaw the conversion of Williams from defensive back to running back in 2013, a move that saw Williams rack up 22 rushing touchdowns and finish ninth on the Seminoles all-time list before joining the NFL.

• Graham's first year of work at Florida State resulted in a tremendous ground attack that helped the Seminoles go undefeated (14-0) and have one of the most productive offenses in college football history, as the Seminoles set an FBS record for points in a season (723). Graham was influential in the continued progression of Freeman. Freeman registered 1,016 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns, while Williams broke through with 730 yards rushing and added 11 scores as he averaged an astounding eight yards per carry. Rounding out the trio was Wilder Jr., who totaled 563 yards and eight scores while averaging seven yards per tote. FSU set a school record with 42 rushing touchdowns.

• Graham's influence on both the kickoff return and kickoff coverage units in 2013 cannot be understated. Working with Charles Kelly, Florida State finished first in the nation averaging 28.2 yards per kickoff return, and wound up 16th nationally allowing just 18.6 yards per kickoff return. Kermit Whitfield emerged as the nation's top kick returner, leading the country and setting the ACC record with 36.4 yards per return while finishing tied for second with two kickoff return TDs.

• Throughout the majority of his coaching career, Graham has worked with running backs. His first full-time position in 2006 was as the running backs coach at Chattanooga. He went on to coach the backs at San Diego, UT-Martin, Miami (Ohio) and South Carolina and then back at his alma mater, Tennessee.

• In just one year in Knoxville under Graham's guidance, the Vols more than doubled their rushing output from 70.4 yards per game in 2011 to 160.3 yards per game in 2012.

• Prior to his success in Tennessee, Graham tutored Lattimore while with the Gamecocks. Lattimore was on pace to become the first South Carolina rusher to post consecutive 1,000-yard seasons for the school since Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers before suffering an ankle injury that sidelined him for the final five games.

• Overall, Graham has coached and played in eight bowl games during his career.

• Graham and his wife, Kelly, are the parents of three daughters, Nia, Denae and Kierra, and two sons, Jayson and Kellan.

• Bill Miller enters his third season as linebackers coach at Florida State in 2016 with an impressive background and over 35 years of collegiate coaching experience.

• Throughout his career, Miller has worked with some of the most successful and innovative collegiate coaches, including Nick Saban (Michigan State), Jimmy Johnson (Oklahoma State), Butch Davis (Miami) and now Jimbo Fisher.

• In Miller's first two years with the Seminoles, FSU has a record of 23-4 and has advanced to back-to-back "New Year's Six" Bowl games - the 2014 College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Rose Bowl and the 2015 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

• Under Miller's guidance, Florida State's linebackers have been leaders of the FSU defense.

• In 2015, senior linebackers Reggie Northrup and Terrance Smith both captured all-conference honors for the second straight year to lead an FSU defense that ranked ninth in the country in scoring defense (17.8) and 19th in total defense (336.9). Northrup rebounded from an ACL injury to lead FSU in tackles (94) for a second straight year en route to All-ACC second team honors, while Smith battled injuries but still totaled 65 tackles in nine games en route to All-ACC honorable mention honors. Redshirt sophomore Ro'Derrick Hoskins emerged as one of FSU's top defensive players as well, starting six games at linebacker and finishing with 52 tackles and 6.5 tackles for loss.

• Smith (Kansas City Chiefs) and Northrup (Washington Redskins) both signed free agent contracts with NFL teams following the season.

• In 2014, Smith (87 tackles) grabbed All-ACC second team honors and Northrup (122 stops) collected All-ACC third team accolades to lead the Seminoles to an ACC Championship and a berth in the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal. Northrup's tackle total was the most by a Nole since 2002.

• Miller came to Florida State from Minnesota, where he was the assistant head coach and linebackers coach from 2011 to 2013.

• Miller also served as the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma State (1989-94), Miami (1995-98), Michigan State (1999-2002) and Arizona State (2005-06), and was the associate head coach at Florida (2003-04).

• Before Minnesota, Miller coached linebackers and was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas in 2009 and linebackers coach at Louisville in 2008. Miller was also defensive coordinator at Western Michigan in 2007.

• At Arizona State, he took the Sun Devils defense from last in the Pac-10 to second in total defense (behind USC) in one year. He helped ASU reach the 2005 Insight Bowl and the 2006 Hawaii Bowl.

• Miller has twice been a semifinalist for the Broyles Award, given annually to the top assistant coach in college football. Miller was a semifinalist in 2000 at Michigan State, when his Spartan defense was ranked seventh nationally in pass defense, and in 2003 at Florida.

• In his first season at Michigan State with Saban (1999), Miller helmed a defense that ranked fifth nationally in rush defense and 12th in total defense, as well as the No. 1 defense in the Big Ten. The Spartans allowed less than 300 total yards per game and had the nation's fifth-best rushing defense, allowing only 77 yards per game on the ground. Michigan State finished the 1999 season ranked No. 7 and tied the school record for wins (10), including a victory over Florida in the Citrus Bowl.

• In 2001, Miller's defense at Michigan State paced the Big Ten Conference and ranked 14th in the nation in pass defense (176.1 ypg). Miller's 2000 defense led the conference in total defense for the second consecutive year and ranked 22nd nationally (318.3 ypg).

• Throughout his career, Miller's teams have played in 14 bowl games and won six conference championships. At Nevada in 1983 and 1985, he helped lead the Wolf Pack to the semifinals of the I-AA playoffs.

• Miller, who graduated from Texas Arlington in 1978, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1978 and filled the same role at Oklahoma State from 1979-80. His first full-time position was as the defensive backs coach at Drake from 1981-82.

• Miller and his wife Lisa, have two grown children, Cole and Jackson.

• Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher named Brad Lawing defensive ends and outside linebackers coach in January 2015 and the veteran assistant coach was a major part of the FSU defense's success the following fall.

• Under Lawing, junior defensive end DeMarcus Walker emerged as one of the nation's top defensive ends by leading FSU with 10.5 sacks, 15.5 tackles for loss and an ACC-best four forced fumbles. Walker's sack total was the most by a Seminole since 2012 and tied for fifth in the ACC. He grabbed All-ACC second team honors. True freshman Josh Sweat was also a force on the edge en route to freshman All-America honors after leading the ACC with three fumble recoveries and totaling 41 tackles, 5.0 TFLs, two sacks and an interception. Additionally, redshirt senior Giorgio Newberry saw extensive playing time for the first time in his career and totaled 20 tackles, 3.0 TFLs and six pass breakups, second-most on the team. He signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers following the season.

• In part because of stellar play from the Noles' defensive ends and outside linebackers, FSU improved across the board in nearly every major defensive category, including finishing in the Top 20 nationally in scoring defense (ninth, 17.8), total defense (19th, 336.9), opponent passer rating (15th, 110.9) and opponent passing TDs (14).

• FSU's fierce pass rush led to incredible improvement in sacks in 2015. After registering 17 in 2014, the Seminoles totaled 32 sacks in 2015. FSU finished 10-3 in 2015 and advanced to the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

• Lawing came to Florida State from Florida, where he spent two seasons as assistant head coach and defensive line coach. Before joining the Gators, Lawing worked under Steve Spurrier at South Carolina, Nick Saban at Michigan State, and for one year with Mack Brown at Appalachian State.

• Lawing has overseen the development of some great defensive linemen, including four first-round picks in the last four years. He coached 2014 No. 1 overall pick Jadeveon Clowney at South Carolina as well as fellow first-round picks Dante Fowler (2015, No. 3) and Dominique Easley at Florida (2014, No. 29), and Melvin Ingram (2013, No. 18) at South Carolina.

• With the Gators, Lawing was instrumental in helping UF finish near the top of the nation and the SEC in total defense in 2013 and 2014. Florida ranked in the Top 20 nationally in scoring defense (21.1), rushing defense (116.2), total defense (329.8) and forced fumbles (10) in 2014. In 2013, Florida ranked eighth in total defense (314.3) and 15th in scoring defense (21.1). In the SEC, the Gators ranked third in rushing defense in 2014 and second in total defense and rushing defense in 2013.

• At South Carolina from 2006-12, Lawing helped the Gamecocks set a school record and led the SEC with 43 sacks in 2012 as Clowney totaled 13 sacks and added 23.5 tackles for loss. In 2010, South Carolina led the SEC and set a then-school record with 41 sacks. From 2008 to 2012, South Carolina finished in the nation's Top 15 in total defense every year, including a high of No. 3 in 2011. Over that time, the Gamecocks reached a bowl every season and went 11-2 in each of Lawing's last two seasons with the Gamecocks.

• In 2012, Ingram earned consensus All-America honors, while Clowney was named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

• Before South Carolina, Lawing served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for North Carolina from 2003-05, at Michigan State from 1999-2002, his initial stint with the Gamecocks from 1989-98, and with Appalachian State from 1983-88.

• At North Carolina, Lawing was a part of the Tar Heels' Continental Tire Bowl team. With the Spartans in 1999, Lawing worked under head coach Nick Saban as Michigan State finished the season 10-2, 6-2 in the Big Ten and Citrus Bowl champions.

• At Michigan State, Lawing coached 1999 first team All-American Julian Peterson. The first round draft pick was a five-time Pro Bowler who played 11 years in the NFL. The Spartans set a school-record with 57 sacks in 1999. Lawing also coached future NFL players Robaire Smith, Jace Saylor, Josh Shaw, Matthias Askew and Kevin Vickerson at Michigan State.

• During his initial run with the Gamecocks from 1989-98, Lawing coached three future NFL players in Corey Miller, Gerald Dixon and Henry Taylor, and, as recruiting coordinator, signed defensive end John Abraham, who went on to be a five-time Pro Bowler.

• Prior to his first stint with the Gamecocks, Lawing served under Mack Brown with Appalachian State in Brown's only season in Boone, N.C. Lawing coached the offensive tackles and tight ends in 1983. Lawing was the defensive line coach for the next five years as ASU won back-to-back Southern Conference titles and advanced to the Division I-AA Playoffs in 1986 and 1987. The Mountaineers entered the playoffs as the No. 1 seed in 1987 and reached the semifinals.

• Appalachian State's Anthony Downs was named the Southern Conference Player of the Year in 1987. Lawing coached future NFL players Tommy Dawkins and Mike Frier at ASU.

• Lawing has served as the recruiting coordinator for 17 years at three of his stops, including his first time at South Carolina (1989-98), Michigan State (1999-2002), and North Carolina (2003-05). His classes regularly ranked in the Top 25.

• Lawing was born in Frankfurt, Germany, and was a four-year starter at linebacker at Lenoir-Rhyne before graduating with a bachelor's degree in 1979. He received his master's degree from Appalachian State in 1985. He was inducted into the Lenoir-Rhyne Sports Hall of Fame in fall of 2015.

• Lawing and his wife, Laura, have two grown children, a son, Will, and a daughter, Susie Hughes, a son-in-law, Thomas Hughes, and two grandchildren, Natalie Hughes and Mary Brooks Hughes. Will is in his third year on the Houston Texans staff in the NFL.

VIC VILORIA

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH/FOOTBALL

Experience: 13th Season/7th at Florida State
Hometown: Chalmette, La.
Alma Mater: Southern Methodist, '02
Birthdate: July 22, 1979
 daughters, Taylor Ann and Mady

- Widely considered one of the best and most innovative strength coaches in the country, Vic Viloria enters his seventh season as Florida State football's head strength and conditioning coach.

- The Chalmette, La., native joined head coach Jimbo Fisher's staff in January 2010 from his alma mater SMU, where he spent the previous three seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach.

- Since joining the Seminoles over six years ago, Viloria and his staff have been a major part of Florida State's resurgence. Over the last four years, Florida State has won three ACC Championships, compiled a 49-6 record, completed an ACC-record 29-game win streak, went undefeated (14-0) and captured the BCS National Championship in 2013, and appeared in four straight BCS/"New Year's Six" bowls. Along the way, FSU set the modern-day three-year record for players selected in the NFL Draft with 29 Seminoles going in the 2013, 2014 and 2015 Drafts.

- The foundation for the unprecedented success is forged by Viloria. The Seminoles have made noticeable physical gains across the board and significantly cut back on injuries as Viloria and his staff remain on the cutting edge of technology. Under Viloria, FSU became the first college football program to utilize advanced GPS technology to measure energy exertion and regulate rest and physical action.

- Viloria was at LSU for three years where he worked under the supervision of Tom Moffitt before going to SMU. While at LSU he worked with the Tigers' nationally-ranked football and baseball programs as well as the swimming and golf teams.

- A disciple of renowned weightlifting coach Gayle Hatch, Viloria endorses the "Hatch System" which develops functional and explosive strength in players through the use of free weights, plyometrics and jumping drills.

- Viloria was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker for SMU and a three-time member of the All-Western Athletic Conference team. He led the Mustangs in tackles each of his final three seasons and recorded at least 10 tackles in 21 games over the course of his career.

- He was a member of the NFL Europe's Scottish Claymores and is certified by USA Weightlifting.

- He is married to former SMU sprinter Randi Taylor. They have two daughters, Taylor Ann and Mady.

- Mark Robinson enters his second season as the Assistant Athletics Director for Football and fourth overall with the Florida State football program.
- Robinson, one of college football's top administrators and most innovative minds, completed his third season as the director of football operations for Florida State in 2015.
- Following the season, he was named the nation's top Director of Football Operations during the FootballScoop FBS support staff awards presented by ProGrass at the AFCA convention.
- Robinson oversees the day-to-day operations of the FSU football program which includes monitoring budgets, scholarships, team travel, housing, camps, clinics, NFL relations and other administrative duties. In addition, he is the football program's liaison to the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- FSU is 37-4 and has gone to three consecutive BCS/New Year's Six Bowl Games since Robinson's arrival in January 2013. In Robinson's first season, the Seminoles finished 14-0 and won the 2013 BCS National Championship. The Noles advanced to the first-ever College Football Semifinal at the Rose Bowl in 2014 and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in 2015.
- Robinson has helped develop and oversee several multi-million dollar renovation projects of the football facilities, including the coaches' offices, locker room, lobbies, and a state-of-the-art player's lounge. Robinson has kept the Noles at the forefront of the college football world with his innovative plans and accommodations for players and staff.
- Robinson joined the Florida State football program in January 2013 as the director of football operations after spending five years as Arkansas' director of football operations and five years as a football operations assistant at Texas A&M.
- Robinson oversaw all the daily operations of the Arkansas football program after beginning his stint there in January 2008. He was responsible for the operation of the football program's budget, scholarships, team travel, housing, camps and clinics, NFL relations and other administrative responsibilities. Robinson served as the staff liaison to the Southeastern Conference. He also monitored and recorded all athletic related events for the football program.

- Robinson was part of three bowl appearances at Arkansas, coordinating the Razorbacks' trip to the 2010 Liberty Bowl, the 2011 Sugar Bowl – the first BCS game in school history – and the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic.
- Robinson served as the Assistant Director of Football Operations at Texas A&M from 2003-07. At A&M, he assisted with the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, practice, game day operations, recruiting and coaching.
- Robinson played on the offensive line at Appalachian State from 1998-2002, where he earned his bachelor's degree in communications. The Mountaineers were ranked in the top 10 in the nation in I-AA and earned playoff bids all five seasons. He set the school record with a 615-pound squat lift and received the teams' Strongest Player Award his senior year.
- The Greensboro, N.C., native is married to the former Valerie Lynch. They have three children, Caroline, Rocco, and Nate.

GAME 1

16

(10/8) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, SEPT. 5, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- Florida State extended its home winning streak to 15 straight games.
- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook rushed for 156 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries, making him the first Seminole to rush for 100 yards in four consecutive games since Greg Jones accomplished the feat in five consecutive games from 2001-2002.
- Redshirt senior transfer Everett Golson eclipsed the 300-yard passing mark in his first game as a Seminole and seventh time in his career, finishing with 302 yards while tossing four touchdowns to four different receivers. Golson finished 19-for-25 with a passing efficiency rating of 230.3, good for fourth nationally and tops in the ACC during the opening weekend.
- Sophomore wide receiver Ja'Vonn Harrison caught his first career touchdown pass with 11:05 left in the fourth quarter, a 55 yard strike from Everett Golson.
- Junior All-American cornerback Jalen Ramsey took his first career kickoff return for 37 yards, while wearing Charlie Ward's retired number 17. Ramsey also had four tackles and a pass breakup.
- A pair of young defenders stood out in their first career starts in the secondary, Trey Marshall at "star" nickelback and Marquez White at cornerback. Marshall finished with four tackles and a sack while White finished with three tackles and a tackle for loss.

14

(11/8) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, SEPT. 12, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- Florida State extended its home winning streak to 16 straight games.
- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook rushed for 266 yards and a career-best three touchdowns on 30 carries. It marked the second-most rushing yards by a Seminole, only eclipsed by Greg Allen's school-record 322 rushing yards in 1981 vs. Western Carolina. Cook became the fifth Seminole ever to rush for 200+ yards in a game.
- All-American placekicker Roberto Aguayo made his 161st consecutive PAT, setting a new ACC record. He also tacked on two field goals, moving him to 51-of-55 for his career. He is now the most accurate kicker in NCAA history for the highest percentage of extra points and field goals made (minimum 100 PAT's and 50 field goals made), surpassing Alex Henery of Nebraska, who was .967 through 2007-10.
- The Florida State defense forced 10 USF punts, which was the most by an opponent since Maryland punted 11 times on Oct. 5, 2013 - 26 games ago.
- Redshirt senior transfer Everett Golson finished with 163 yards passing and 1 TD, including 13-of-17 passing in the second half.
- Sophomore linebacker Jacob Pugh and redshirt sophomore linebacker Ro'Derrick Hoskins shared a team-leading seven tackles, which was a career-high for both players.

GAME 3

(9/6) FLORIDA STATE

14

BOSTON COLLEGE

FRIDAY, SEPT. 18, 2015 • CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.

- Florida State extended its win streak against ACC opponents to 25 consecutive games. Jimbo Fisher's record improved to 61-11 (.857) and a 20-5 mark (.800) in road games after stringing together 13 straight.
- The shutout victory marked the first time FSU shut out an opponent on the road since beating Notre Dame 37-0 on Nov. 1, 2003. It's the first since FSU defeated Maryland 63-0 at home in Oct of 2013. It's the sixth of the Jimbo Fisher era and first of defensive coordinator Charles Kelly's career.
- FSU played its third consecutive game without committing an offensive turnover.
- Junior cornerback Jalen Ramsey's fumble return for a TD in the second half, aided by senior linebacker Terrance Smith's caused fumble, changed the complexion of the game. The last time FSU scored a defensive TD was against Florida in 2014 on a 94-yard interception return by Smith. It was Ramsey's second career TD.
- Senior punter Cason Beatty booted five punts out of seven over 50 yards, kicking his season-best of 58 yards in the third quarter.

GAME 4

(11/9) FLORIDA STATE

WAKE FOREST

SATURDAY, OCT. 3, 2015 • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

- Dalvin Cook's first quarter 94-yard touchdown run was the longest run in BB&T Field history. It was also the third-longest rushing touchdown in the history of FSU football and the third run of 50+ yards for Cook this season.
- Junior wide receiver Kermit Whitfield had a 5-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter – his first career touchdown reception and fifth touchdown overall. Whitfield finished the day with 135 total yards (24 yards receiving & 111 yards on kickoff returns).
- Senior linebacker Reggie Northrup stepped in and contributed 10 tackles and four QB hurries while sophomore Trey Marshall led the team with 11 tackles.
- Sophomore running back Johnathan Vickers scored his first career touchdown in the second quarter on a 9-yard run to cap a 13-play, 76-yard drive that covered six minutes and 49 seconds.
- Redshirt junior center Ryan Hoefeld made his first start of the season at center, while redshirt freshman right tackle Derrick Kelly made his first career start. Redshirt junior OL Chad Mavety also made his debut.
- With Wake Forest driving near the end of the game looking for the tie, redshirt senior Tyler Hunter picked off a pass in the endzone, sealing the win. It was his sixth career interception.
- The Seminoles played their fourth-straight game without committing an offensive turnover.

GAME 5

(12/8) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook rushed for 222 yards on 22 carries, establishing a new series high against Miami by a Seminole running back. The previous high against the Hurricanes was Greg Jones' 189 yards in 2002.
- Cook eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark for the second time this season with his 23-yard touchdown run with 6:44 remaining to give the Noles a 29-24 lead.
- Redshirt senior quarterback Everett Golson completed 25 of 33 attempts for 291 yards and one touchdown.
- FSU trailed for the first time this season (23-24) with 10:02 remaining in the game after Michael Badgley's PAT followed Brad Kaaya's 29-yard touchdown pass to Stacy Coley.
- The Seminoles went their fifth-straight game without committing an offensive turnover.
- FSU rolled up 358 total yards in the first half, which is the highest first half output of the season and the most before intermission since rolling up 374 yards vs. Syracuse on Nov. 16, 2013.
- Redshirt junior kicker Roberto Aguayo maintained his mark of never missing a FG inside the 40-yard line following conversions of 22, 32 and 25 yards.
- The Seminoles had five pass breakups on the night, including four by defensive linemen. Giorgio Newberry led the way with two, including the game-clincher on fourth down of Miami's final possession. Josh Sweat and DeMarcus Walker were credited with one each.

GAME 6

LOUISVILLE

21

(11/8) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, OCT. 17, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- After trailing 14-13 in the third quarter, the Seminoles scored 21 unanswered points in the second half that would lead to a 41-21 victory.
- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook rushed for 163 yards on 22 carries, pushing his season total to 955 rushing yards through six games. That's an ACC record for rushing yards through the first six games of the season, eclipsing the record previously held by Virginia's Thomas Jones (888 yards, 1999) according to STATS LLC.
- The Seminoles were turnover free for the fifth straight game.
- Quarterback Everett Golson completed 26 of 38 attempts for 372 yards and three touchdowns – the completions, attempts and yardage all FSU career-highs for Golson, including a 70-yard TD pass to Kermit Whitfield - his longest in the Garnet & Gold and second best of his career.
- One-time walk-on safety Javien Elliott collected his first career interception, picking off Louisville's Lamar Jackson with 3:32 remaining in the third quarter. The senior was awarded a scholarship in the preseason by Jimbo Fisher.
- FSU's pass rush produced a season-high five sacks as sophomore linebacker Jacob Pugh tallied a career-best 2.0 sacks while leading the defense with seven tackles. Redshirt senior DB Lamaricus Brutus and freshman DB Derwin James each had six tackles.

GAME 7

(9/9) FLORIDA STATE

16

SATURDAY, OCT. 24, 2015 • ATLANTA, GA.

- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook passed the 1,000 rushing mark for the 2015 season joining Warrick Dunn (who was in attendance) as the only two players in FSU history with multiple 1,000 yard rushing seasons. Dunn did it in 1994, 1995 and 1996. He also became the fastest Seminole to reach 2,000 career yards rushing.
- FSU committed its first offensive turnover in the loss to the Jackets. It happened in the fourth quarter with 8:07 remaining as redshirt senior quarterback Everett Golson fired a pass to Travis Rudolph that was juggled before being picked off in the endzone. The interception ended a streak of five consecutive games without a turnover, tying an NCAA record (STATS, LLC).
- Freshman defensive end Josh Sweat recorded his first tipped-pass that led to an interception before registering his first career sack on a big third down to force a punt.
- Redshirt senior defensive back Lamarus Brutus recorded FSU's second interception in the game during the second quarter. It was the first multiple-interception game of the season and first since Nov. 29, 2014 when the Seminoles snagged four vs. Florida.
- Redshirt junior kicker Roberto Aguayo kicked three field goals - it was the ninth time in his career he had converted three kicks into points and second time this season.
- The loss to the Jackets snapped FSU's 28-game win streak over league opponents - the second longest streak in ACC history and one win shy of FSU's league record 29-game win streak (1992-95).

GAME 8

SYRACUSE

(17/15) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, OCT. 31, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- Redshirt junior quarterback Sean Maguire stepped in and established career-highs in completions, yards and touchdowns, going 23-for-35 for 348 yards with three touchdown passes.
- Jacques Patrick became the third different true freshman running back to start in the backfield in the Jimbo Fisher era. He rushed 24 times for 162 yards with three touchdowns.
- Sophomore wide receiver Travis Rudolph caught five passes for 191 yards, reaching the end zone on three occasions against Syracuse. He eclipsed 100 yards receiving (191 yards) for the first time in his Seminole career. With his third quarter receiving touchdown, Rudolph became the first player since Kelvin Benjamin at Florida in 2013 to have three touchdown receptions in a game.
- Freshman safety Derwin James forced a fumble and shared the game-high in tackles with a career-high 12 (Reggie Northrup).
- Freshman Josh Sweat recovered the fumble forced by James. It was his third recovery of the season which tied him with Texas Tech's Ja'Shawn Johnson for the most by a player from a Power 5 conference at that point of the season.
- Three Seminoles - center Alec Eberle, tailback Jacques Patrick and defensive back Javien Elliott made their first career starts against the Orange.

GAME 9

(16/17/15) FLORIDA STATE

13

(1/3/5) CLEMSON

SATURDAY, NOV. 7, 2015 • CLEMSON, S.C.

- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook put up 194 rushing yards - including 157 in the first half and 128 in the first quarter, following an opening 75-yard touchdown run on his first touch. At the time, it marked the most rushing yards Clemson allowed all season.
- In the first quarter, junior Jalen Ramsey had three solo tackles and four total tackles and a sack. He had a key fourth down stop and a crucial pass break up in the second quarter. Ramsey had seven tackles in the first half, including five solo. Ramsey finished with a new season-high of nine tackles.
- The Seminole defense held Clemson to its lowest first half point total of the year and was the first team in 2015 to hold Clemson out of the endzone for the entire first half.
- Redshirt junior quarterback Sean Maguire made his first career road start at Death Valley. The Sparta, N.J., native became the first quarterback to start against Clemson in back-to-back seasons since Christian Ponder (2008, 2009).
- Senior linebacker Reggie Northrup registered double-digit tackles for the fifth time this season. He finished with a game-high 14 tackles.
- Redshirt senior linebacker Terrance Smith returned to the lineup after missing four games with an ankle injury and amassed 12 tackles.
- Demarcus Christmas made his first career start at defensive tackle against Clemson. He finished the game with four tackles.

GAME 10

NC STATE

(16/19/18) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, NOV. 14, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- Trailing 17-7 at the 7:32 mark in the second quarter, redshirt junior quarterback Sean Maguire replaced redshirt senior quarterback Everett Golson and helped the Seminoles rally to score 27 unanswered points. He completed 18-of-28 passes for 231 yards and two touchdowns.
- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook broke Warrick Dunn's single-season rushing mark (1,242 yards), set in 1995, on the sixth offensive play of the game for the Noles with an 11-yard scamper in the first quarter. Cook surpassed the 100-yard mark for the 11th time in his career - and the sixth time this season. Cook, who finished with 138 yards on 22 carries, recorded at least 20 carries for the eighth time in his Florida State career.
- Junior defensive end DeMarcus Walker turned in a monster performance against the Wolfpack, matching his career-high in sacks with two, while chipping in a third down pass breakup. Walker finished with four tackles, including two tackles for loss.
- Jesus 'Bobo' Wilson established a new single-game career-high in receptions with seven, breaking his previous career-high of six which came against NC State (6 rec., 109 yards; 2014) and Syracuse (6 rec., 69 yards; 2015). Wilson's 78 receiving yards mark the second most of his Seminole career behind a 109-yard outing, also against the Wolfpack, on Sept. 27, 2014.
- Kermit Whitfield recorded his second 100-yard receiving game of the season after hauling in 117 yards on six catches and two touchdowns.

CHATTANOOGA

(14/16/16) FLORIDA STATE

SATURDAY, NOV. 21, 2015 • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

- On FSU's senior day, the Seminoles donned their new black Nike jerseys for the first time.
- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook, who ended his day with 106 yards on 15 carries, reached the endzone on two occasions.
- Junior wide receiver Kermit Whitfield had two touchdown catches for the second straight game, finishing the contest with game-highs in receptions (5) and yards (91).
- Redshirt junior quarterback Sean Maguire finished the day 12-of-17 for 152 yards and 2 TD's.
- Freshman fullback Colton Plante recorded the first touchdown of his career on his first career carry (2 yards).
- Redshirt senior Lamarcus Brutus picked off Chattanooga QB Jacob Huesman on the first drive of the second half and took it 37 yards to the UTC 13-yard line. On UTC's next drive, DeMarcus Walker forced a fumble, marking the fifth time in 11 games that the Noles have forced multiple turnovers.
- Freshman safety Derwin James finished with his third double-digit tackle performance of the season, posting a game-high 10 tackles.
- Florida State scored five rushing touchdowns in a game for the first time since scoring six against Nevada on Sept. 14, 2013.

SATURDAY, NOV. 28, 2015 • GAINESVILLE, FLA.

- Make it 10 wins, a new school record for victories in a four-year span and – most importantly – another triumph over the Florida Gators. A stadium-record crowd of 90,916 watched as FSU earned its first three-game winning streak in Gainesville and held UF to its fewest points in the series' 60-game history.
- Sophomore tailback Dalvin Cook picked up the pace in the second half, wearing out the highly touted UF defense, accounting for 183 yards, 150 in the fourth quarter, on 26 carries with two TDs.
- Redshirt junior placekicker Roberto Aguayo kicked two long field goals, first converting from 45 yards before knocking the left upright to secure a season-long 51-yard attempt.
- On fourth-and-goal at the 1-yard line, redshirt junior quarterback Sean Maguire threaded a pass off a bootleg to sophomore tight end Jeremy Kerr. It was Kerr's first career catch and first career TD, lifting the Seminoles to a 10-0 lead with 7:47 left in the first half.
- The FSU defense recorded four sacks on the night as junior defensive end DeMarcus Walker accounted for 2.5 along with blocking a field goal. He also contributed 3.5 tackles for loss for 23 yards.
- The only points the Seminoles allowed came on a safety in the fourth quarter.
- Senior linebacker Terrance Smith, junior defensive tackle DeMarcus Walker, freshman safety Derwin James and senior linebacker Reggie Northrup all recorded nine tackles in the win.

GAME 13

(18/14/16) HOUSTON

(9/9/8) FLORIDA STATE

THURSDAY, DEC. 31, 2015 • CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL • ATLANTA, GA.

- After exiting the game in the first quarter with an injury, redshirt junior quarterback Sean Maguire came back in the game at the 9:29 mark in the second quarter to finish the day 22-of-44 for 392 yards and two touchdowns. He would be responsible for eight plays of 20+ yards.
- In Maguire's relief, redshirt freshman J.J. Cosentino entered his third career game.
- The Seminoles were known for taking care of the football all season, however Houston forced Florida State into a season-high five turnovers in the game.
- Sophomore wide receiver Travis Rudolph had his first career 200+ yard day, accounting for seven catches for 201 yards and a touchdown that came with 11:12 left in the game. It was a 65-yard pass from Maguire. It was the third-longest touchdown pass in FSU bowl history.
- Freshman safety Derwin James led the team with tackles for the fifth time in 2015, registering his fifth 10+ tackle game with a career-high 14 including nine solo, one sack, one PBU and two TFL.
- Junior defensive end DeMarcus Walker recorded his first career interception.
- Cason Beatty averaged 51.5 yards on six punts recording a long of 55 yards three times. He finished the bowl game with five punts of 50 yards or more to tie a season-high.
- Roberto Aguayo connected on all three extra points against the Cougars finishing his career a perfect 198-for-198 on PATs.

ADMIN

Florida State University is an elite, research-intensive, public institution and one of just two preeminent universities in Florida. Located in Tallahassee, Florida's capital city, the university affords students and faculty opportunities for interaction with state and federal agencies for internships, research and part-time employment, as well as numerous social, cultural and recreational activities.

BEGINNINGS

Florida State was established as the Seminary West of the Suwannee by an act of the Florida Legislature in 1851. The institution first offered instruction at the postsecondary level in 1857 and is the longest continuous site of higher education in Florida. In 1905, the Buckman Act reorganized higher education in the state and designated the Tallahassee school as the Florida Female College. In 1909, it was renamed Florida State College for Women. In 1947, the school returned to coeducational status, and the name was changed to Florida State University.

40,000 & COUNTING

In 1946, there were 2,583 students enrolled. In 2015, enrollment stood at 41,473. Of that number, 78.3 percent were undergraduates, 18.9 percent were graduate students, and 2.8 percent were unclassified; 81.9 percent were in-state students; 92.6 percent were from the United States; students hailed from all 50 states and the District of Columbia; 18 states contributed more than 100 students each; 18 foreign countries contributed more than 30 students each; 55 percent were female and 45 percent were male; 32.8 percent were minorities and 5.6 percent were international students.

LAY OF THE LAND

The university's main campus encompasses 476 acres in Tallahassee, Leon County; the Panama City Campus has 25.6 acres in Panama City, Bay County. The university owns a total of 1,604.35 acres in Leon, Bay, Collier, Franklin, Sarasota and Gadsden counties. In addition, sites are leased in various counties in Florida and other locations overseas.

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

A faculty of 2,409 are appointed to either full-time or part-time positions on a faculty classification...Florida State's faculty has included six Nobel laureates...13 faculty members have been elected to the National Academy of Sciences...14 faculty members have been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences... seven faculty members were selected as Fulbright Scholars in 2015-2016...two faculty members have been elected to the National Academy of Engineering...one current faculty member has been elected to the National Academy of Medicine...and two faculty members are Pulitzer Prize winners.

EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES

The Florida State College of Criminology and Criminal Justice is ranked No. 1 in the nation for its faculty research. The university is located a mere four blocks from the state Capitol, which affords students from many academic disciplines opportunities for employment or internships with legislators and state agencies. The graduate program in interior design was named No.1 in the nation by "America's Best Architectural & Design School," 2016. U.S. News & World Report, "Best Graduate Schools," 2016 edition, ranks the School of Library and Information Studies' school library media program No. 1. FSU is home to the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory, which has the world's most powerful magnets. Florida State has been named the second most efficient university in the country by U.S. News & World Report, 2015.

GOING GLOBAL

Florida State offers a variety of highly regarded overseas opportunities for students during the regular academic year. It has year-round study centers in Florence, Italy; Panama City, Panama; Valencia, Spain; and London, England. Courses at the study centers are offered each semester and cover a wide range of subject areas that are perfect for meeting general and liberal studies requirements. Summer programs are currently being offered in many locations, including Australia, China, Costa Rica, Croatia, Czech Republic, England, France, Germany, Italy, Peru, Republic of Panama, Russia, Spain, Switzerland and Thailand.

A PLACE FOR EVERYONE

Florida State has more than 600 recognized student organizations that allow students to find their own niche.

WORLD-RENOWNED RESEARCH

Florida State has built a reputation as a strong research center in both the sciences and the humanities. The faculty generates $200 million in external funds to be used for research. These external funds are in the form of contracts and grants from private foundations, industries and government agencies and are used to support research, improve research facilities and provide stipends for graduate students.

SOME SERIOUS READING

Florida State's Library System contains more than 4 million volumes, and the website offers access to more than 119,385 electronic journals and 1,064 databases. With almost 2 million visitors a year, Strozier Library, FSU's largest library, is open 134 hours a week, providing around-the-clock research assistance and other services.

Why Florida State?

One of the nation's most dynamic research universities, Florida State University — with the Carnegie Foundation's highest designation, Doctoral/Research University-Extensive — offers a distinctive academic environment built on its unique heritage, welcoming campus on the oldest continuous site of higher education in Florida, championship athletics and prime location in the heart of the state capital.

The faculty includes: members of the National Academy of Sciences, the National Academy of Engineering and the American Academy of Arts & Sciences; Pulitzer Prize winners; Oscar and Emmy winners; and Guggenheim, Fulbright and National Endowment for the Humanities fellows.

Florida State faculty members attract more than $200 million a year in research dollars.

Florida State consistently ranks in the Top 10 universities nationally in physical science grants awarded by the National Science Foundation.

Our nearly 42,000 students, of whom about 8,000 are graduate and professional students, come from across the nation and around the world.

Recognized nationally for its commitment to diversity, Florida State University has been recognized by INSIGHT Into Diversity magazine as one of seven Diversity Champion colleges and universities in the nation. The FSU College of Medicine is the only Association of American Medical Colleges-member institution ranked in the top six for enrollment of both black and Hispanic students among 136 U.S. medical schools. Its enrollment percentage for black or African-American students is double the national average. The College of Law's Black Law Students Association has been named National Chapter of the Year five times since 2006.

Programs consistently included in the top public university list include physics, chemistry, psychology, criminology, public administration, library science, information, education, business and law.

At the Ph.D. level, interdisciplinary programs draw on notable research faculty strengths that transcend the traditional disciplines, including neuroscience, molecular biophysics, computational science, materials science and research at the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory — home to the world's most powerful magnets.

MILESTONES

Florida State University leads the state of Florida in Rhodes Scholars, claiming all three of the Rhodes Scholars from public universities in Florida since 2006... highest percentage of alumni giving back than any university in Florida... highest amount of National Science Foundation research and development expenditures in the state.

HAMPSHIRE SOCIETY

Dustin Hopkins was selected to the 2013 National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame Hampshire Honor Society. The honor society is comprised of college football players from all divisions of play who each maintained a cumulative 3.2 GPA or better throughout their college career. A total of 703 players from 259 schools qualified for membership in the society's seventh year, marking the highest school participation in the history of the program, which began in 2007.

Hopkins became the sixth Seminole selected to the Hampshire Society joining Zebrie Sanders (2012), Ochuko Jenije (2011), Christian Ponder (2011), Zack Aronson (2010) and Myron Rolle (2009). Ponder also earned NFF National Scholar-Athlete honors following the 2010 season. A four-year starter as the Seminoles' placekicker, Hopkins left Florida State as the all-time Division I leader in field goals made (88) and points among kickers (466) as well as the ACC's all-time leading scorer. He was honored as a first-team All-American by the AFCA and Walter Camp, while earning a spot on the Capital One Academic All-America first team. Hopkins was a second team Academic All-American in 2011.

Head Coach Jimbo Fisher and the Seminole staff honored 20 players for their academic prowess at the 2015 year-end banquet, including Lamarqus Brutus, Derrick Mitchell, Cason Beatty, Nile Lawrence-Stample and Lucas Clark.

GOLDEN TORCH AWARD

Redshirt senior defensive tackle Derrick Mitchell Jr. and redshirt sophomore wide receiver Bryan LaCivita were two of 22 student-athletes who were recognized for their off-the-field achievements at the 25th annual Florida State Golden Torch Awards, which recognizes Seminole student-athletes' excellence in the classroom.

The Golden Torch Gala has been one of few events nationwide which solely recognizes the success of student athletes' off the playing fields. The student-athletes recognized bring distinction and honor to Florida State University by continuing to reinforce FSU's position as a superior academic and athletic institution.

These are FSU's most visible ambassadors and their hard work promotes the best interest of Florida State University. Their academic achievements are also a tribute to the many individuals and groups on campus who support the mission of the athletics department throughout the year.

Golden Torch winners are the student-athletes who achieved the highest grade point average on their respective teams for the previous academic year. Some of them will have already embarked on professional careers while the majority are still on campus continuing their education.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Giving back to the community is more than a high priority at Florida State University. It is an integral part of the development of the student-athlete. Through the Athletic Department's Office of Student Services, student-athletes are encouraged to serve the community and participate in a program that focuses on life skills as well as personal, career and leadership development.

ALEC EBERLE - ACC TOP SIX FOR SERVICE WINNER

Alec Eberle was honored at last spring's Golden Nole awards banquet as one of FSU's ACC Top Six for Service recipients. The Top Six for Service is awarded on each ACC campus annually, and the recipient has demonstrated outstanding community service and community relations.

Despite only entering his redshirt sophomore year, Eberle has quickly developed into an ambassador in the community for the Seminoles. Eberle is the Florida State Chapter President for Uplifting Athletes and led the effort to raise over $16,000 for Fanconia anemia research last year. He also is a constant volunteer to speak at local schools to youth about the importance of education and hard work.

Seminole Community Service BY THE NUMBERS

25,000

In the last four years, FSU athletic teams have performed over 25,000 hours of community service. More than 1,000 student-athletes have contributed to that total.

OVER 5,000

Florida State's athletics teams combined to provide over 5,000 hours of community service in 2015-2016, with six teams completing over 300 hours each. A majority of the hours come from serving local Tallahassee schools and organizations. More than 450 student-athletes contributed to the community service efforts. Some of the events and organizations the football team supported included speaking at nearly every high school and elementary school in the Big Bend area and volunteering at free youth football camps such as the A Different Way Out Camp in Dothan, Ala., Telvin Smith's camp in Valdosta, Ga., and Ernie Sims' Football Camp in Tallahassee.

700

In 2015-16, the FSU football team completed nearly 700 hours of community service. The team was one of six teams in the athletic department to complete over 300 hours. In just March, April and May of 2016, the Florida State football team logged over 175 hours of community service.

Doc Fauls Award

Derrick Mitchell Jr. was honored at last spring's Golden Nole awards banquet with the Doc Fauls Award. The Doc Fauls Award, presented by the FSU Varsity Club, was established in 1998, and is an award that recognizes senior Seminole Student-Athletes that have overcome the most adversity to participate in athletics for Florida State University.

As the Head Athletic Trainer at Florida State University from 1954-1986, Don Fauls had the opportunity to touch the lives of many. He consistently treated each and everyone in an honest, professional manner and was always willing to take the time to help the athletes through the physical and emotional pain that often came with participation in intercollegiate athletics.

STEVENSON SNAGS GOLDEN NOLE

Freddie Stevenson was recognized as the Golden Nole winner for the football program in 2016.

One of the great events held yearly at Florida State University is the Golden Nole Awards. Student-athletes get together as an entire group and are honored for the contributions they make on the field, in the classroom and in the community. The 22nd annual Golden Nole Awards banquet in 2016 was hosted by the Student Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) to honor the contributions Florida State student-athletes make that often go unnoticed but are never unappreciated.

Golden Nole honorees are chosen on a combination of factors which include athletic achievement, community service, attitude and dedication. Stevenson followed in the footsteps of Roberto Aguayo (2015), Rashad Greene (2014), and three-time Golden Nole winner Dustin Hopkins.

DERRICK BROOKS

Pro Football Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks produced one of the finest careers by a Seminole on the defensive side of the ball, wreaking havoc on offenses from 1991-94. Brooks guided FSU to its first national championship in the 1993 season, and would later enjoy a great 14-year career with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Among his many pro football accolades, Brooks led the Bucs to a Super Bowl win in 2002, earned AP Defensive Player of the Year in the same season, never missed a game in his career and was selected to 11 Pro Bowls. Brooks also earned the prestigious honor of being selected the Walter Payton Man of the Year in 2000 for his charitable work.

ALLAN HAVEY

Notable actor and comedian Allan Havey earned his Bachelor of Fine Arts from Florida State in 1978 before embarking on a long and successful career. From hosting comedy tours to appearing in television series and movies, Havey has made his mark across all platforms and has most recently appeared in the highly-acclaimed TV series Mad Men.

NORM THAGARD

Astronaut Norm Thagard attended Florida State and received Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Engineering Science in 1965 and 1966, respectively. Following his days as a naval aviator, Thagard became a NASA Astronaut and took his first trip to space in 1983. After several successful missions, he made history in 1995 by becoming the first American to enter space aboard a non-American craft.

BRIAN KELLEY

Former FSU baseball player Brian Kelley (above right) combines with Tyler Hubbard to form the country music duo Florida Georgia Line. FGL has achieved 11 No. 1 hits since 2013. The 2016 ACM Awards saw the pair take home their third consecutive honor for Vocal Duo of the Year. In addition, they have won three consecutive CMA Awards for Vocal Duo of the Year and three consecutive CMT Artists of the Year honors, among numerous other accolades from the ACMs, AMAs, CMT and Billboard.

1999 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

- The 1999 Florida State football team became the first in the history of the Associated Press poll to go wire-to-wire as the No. 1 team in the nation. The Seminoles completed their 12-0 campaign with a thrilling 46-29 Sugar Bowl victory over Virginia Tech on January 4, 2000.
- Not only did coach Bobby Bowden lead the Seminoles down a path no other team had traveled – wire-to-wire at No. 1 – he also recorded the first perfect season of his career. Along the way, Bowden picked up his 300th career victory.

- Florida State closed out a perfect 14-0 season with an exciting 34-31 victory over Auburn in the 2014 Vizio BCS National Championship Game on January 6, 2014. It marked the first time FSU had won 14 games in a season and was only the sixth time a team had gone 14-0 in college football history.
- The Seminoles won the final national championship in the 16-year BCS era and did so by making the largest comeback in any national championship game. FSU trailed 21-3 with 5:07 left in the second quarter and outscored the Tigers 31-10 the rest of the game, culminating in a 2-yard touchdown catch by Kelvin Benjamin from Jameis Winston with 13 seconds left.
- FSU led the nation in kickoff return yardage, interceptions, passing yards allowed, red zone offense, scoring defense, passing efficiency and set an NCAA record with 723 points. The Seminoles were also top-5 in the country in 10 other categories including total defense, scoring offense per game and turnover margin.
- Florida State finished the season with 22 All-ACC selections, 80 All-America honors and captured several national individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien Award, Lou Groza Award, Rimington Trophy, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Manning Award.
- FSU had a 1,000-yard rusher for the first time since Warrick Dunn in 1996 as Devonta Freeman amassed 1,016 yards on the ground. The Seminoles also had players break the 1,000-yard receiving mark for the first time since Anquan Boldin in 2002 as Rashad Greene (1,128) and Kelvin Benjamin (1,011) each tallied more than 1,000 yards on the season.
- Florida State set nine ACC team records (wins, total scoring, scoring per game, scoring margin, consecutive 40-pt games, TDs, TDs per game, Total Offense and Passing Efficiency) and eight individual conference marks (Jameis Winston – Passing efficiency, Yards per attempt, TD passes, Passing yards and Total Offense; Roberto Aguayo – Points Scored and PATs; Kermit Whitfield – Kickoff Return Average).
- Redshirt freshman quarterback and 2013 Heisman Trophy Winner Jameis Winston led FSU to its third undefeated season in school history and first since the Seminoles went wire-to-wire as No. 1 to win the 1999 National Championship. Florida State held seven opponents to seven points or less and scored at least 41 points in 12 of its 14 games.

6,800 SQUARE FEET OF HD

When the Seminoles open up the 2016 season, fans will be greeted with the tallest video board structure in college football broadcasting in 1080p true high-definition. The upgraded board is three-times larger and twice as high as the old one. The new board will stand 63 feet high and it will be accompanied by new high definition ribbon boards throughout the stadium as well. Overall, 6,800 square feet of LED displays were added to Doak Campbell.

NOV. 20, 2004

In a special ceremony prior to the Florida game on November 20, 2004, the home of Florida State football took on a meaning even more special when Bobby Bowden Field was dedicated. Now, with numerous additions to enhance the gameday experience, Seminole fans are treated to one of college football's greatest venues.

SOUTH ENDZONE

The south end zone houses the Florida State University School of Hospitality, where students in the program receive hands-on experience in various aspects of the food and beverage industry. The multi-level facility includes a restaurant and a sports grill on the top floor that gives a breathtaking panoramic view of Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium.

NORTH ENDZONE

The north end zone, which consisted of wood bleachers until the 1994 season kicked off, is topped by the offices of the football coaches. The offices are just part of the Daisy Parker Flory wing of the Moore Athletic Center which includes a number of amenities for the football staff. An even more drastic change came to completion in June of 2005 when the athletics department offices moved back into the newly rebuilt Moore Center.

THE LAST 175

The Seminoles have been formidable at home. In their last 175 home games — since the start of the 1988 season — the Seminoles are 151-23-1. The bulk of those games came with Bobby Bowden leading the team. Over his 34-year career the Seminoles posted a 166-33-2 home record — an .831 winning percentage. That includes an astonishing 56-1-1 record at home in the 1990s and the start of a 54-game unbeaten streak (53-0-1) which began in 1992 and stretched through the first two games of the 2001 season.

Bowden's 200th career victory came on Oct. 27, 1990, as FSU routed Louisiana State, 42-3, in Tallahassee. In 2007, Bowden won his 300th game at FSU on the field that bears his name with a 24-16 win over Maryland.

287 & COUNTING

The 'Noles are 287-87-4 (.765) all-time at Doak and 295-91-4 (.762) as the home team, which includes three seasons — 1947-49 — when they played their home games at Centennial Field. FSU was 8-4 at the downtown Tallahassee site, including 8-0 in coach Don Veller's first two seasons.

OCT 7, 1950

Doak Campbell Stadium opened on Oct. 7, 1950, with Florida State celebrating a 40-7 victory over Randolph-Macon. Since then, millions of fans have passed through the gates.

“ROUND HERE”

THE GARNET & GOLD STANDARD

Game weekends in Tallahassee can make for a legendary and exciting experience. Fridays before home games serve as primers for “College Football Saturdays in the South” giving Seminole fans from all over their first chance to come together as one. From stadium tours, downtown activities, FSU’s Friday Night Block Party and other activities centered around ‘Nole game weekends, “Round Here” FSU has made it a Garnet & Gold Standard in creating one of the best college football atmospheres in the country.

Any Given Saturday

Hours before games, students and fans crowd onto the Florida State campus, filling parking lots, the intramural fields and Langford Green to tailgate and enjoy fellowship in getting ready for the big game at Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium. Gameday experiences in four of the last five seasons have been enhanced with visits from ESPN’s College GameDay – a true testament to FSU’s reputation for one of the best environment in all of college football.

Warchantin’

Bring your best “chop” upon your arrival in Tallahassee. Fans decked out in Garnet and Gold attire often break out into spontaneous performances of the “Warchant” and the “FSU Fight Song,” as well as the famous F-L-O-R-I-D-A S-T-A-T-E chants while using their arm to emulate a Tomahawk Chop.

CollegeTown at Madison St.

In 2013, Tallahassee became home to a brand new entertainment district, CollegeTown, located just two blocks from campus. Featuring a handful of restaurants and other attractions, CollegeTown has become the heart of game day thanks to the efforts of Seminole Boosters and the City of Tallahassee.

The Marching Chiefs

Recognized as the "band that never lost a halftime" by Sports Illustrated, the Chiefs have performed for audiences at the International Trade Fair in Damascus and for the World Football League in London. In addition, the Chiefs perform at all home and select away football games as well as the annual post-season bowl game. Approximately two hours prior to kickoff on home game days, the Chiefs give a live performance, dubbed a "Skull Session," on Mike Martin Field inside Dick Howser Stadium

Tallahassee

Best known as Florida's capital city, Tallahassee shares a deep-rooted history and culture.

It is the county seat and only incorporated municipality in Leon County, and is the 125th largest city in the United States. Tallahassee became the capital of Florida, then the Florida Territory, in 1824.

Located in the Florida Panhandle, Tallahassee is a place where college town meets cultural center, politics meets performing arts and history meets nature, a place where the vibrancy of what to do is matched only by the city's inviting hospitality. Tallahassee offers something for everyone.

FRIDAY NIGHT BLOCK PARTY

The Florida State community gets rockin' on Friday nights during home weekends. The Friday Night Block Party - the official tailgate event of FSU football - features live music, onsite vendors and special appearances from 5-10 p.m. at Kleman

Plaza in downtown Tallahassee. Recent acts that have kicked off the fall and spring football weekends include Jake Owen, Chase Rice, Sam Hunt, Justin Moore, Lee Brice, Florida Georgia Line, Thomas Rhett, Easton Corbin, Parmalee, Brett Eldredge, Tyler Farr and Corey Smith. Another solid lineup is on tap for the 2016 season and features Brett Young, Clare Dunn, Chris Lane, Tucker Beathard, and The Cadillac Three.

Many of the past acts have taken off after taking the FNB stage. Florida Georgia Line stormed the country music world winning several No. 1 awards and headlined the 2013 FSU Homecoming concert. Jake Owen, Sam Hunt and Chase Rice have all had albums chart No. 1 on the country music charts.

OSCEOLA & RENEGADE

THE BEST NCAA FOOTBALL TRADITION IN THE COUNTRY

Arguably the greatest spectacle in college football unfolds moments before kickoff at Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field atop Renegade, a beautiful Appaloosa, and plants a flaming spear at midfield prior to each home game.

The tradition was born on Sept. 16, 1978, when a student led the football team from the tunnel, riding a horse as the Seminoles headed into battle against Oklahoma State. Jim Kidder and Reo were the original Osceola and Renegade. Since then, six different Renegades and 16 different riders have made the ride and planted the spear, which brings the game day crowd to its feet. Brendan Carter who hails from Calvary Ga., is the 16th different rider.

Bill Durham trained the riders and horses for 20 years before passing the honor and responsibility along to his son, Allen, who was a rider from 1992-1994. The clothing and rigging used by Osceola and Renegade are designed for authenticity and approved by the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida.

Prior to the 2011 season, ESPN's SportsNation voted Osceola and Renegade the best NCAA Football Tradition in the country. A framed rendering of the spear plant was presented to Bill and Allen Durham during the Oklahoma game on Sept. 17, 2011. That rendering resides in the Moore Athletics Center.

In 2013, Osceola and Renegade made their second appearance at a National Championship traveling to The Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., to watch the Seminoles claim their third national title. The only other time Osceola and Renegade appeared at a National Championship was 1993 for the Orange Bowl.

ATHLETICS

SHINING ON THE DIAMOND

Florida State's success on the baseball and softball diamonds is legendary. Mike Martin is the winningest active coach in NCAA baseball, his teams have been to 37 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, made 15 trips to Omaha for the College World Series and won 1,898 games under his guidance. The FSU softball team advanced to its ninth Women's College World Series in 2016 and won its 14th ACC Championship. Head Coach Lonni Alameda led the Seminoles to the national semifinals at the WCWS for just the third time in school history. In 2016, FSU was one of just four schools in the nation that sent both its baseball and softball team to Super Regionals and one of only two Universities to place one of those teams in the World Series. Florida State is also one of only two schools to send both its baseball and softball teams to Super Regionals for four consecutive years.

NOT JUST ANOTHER DAY AT THE BEACH

FSU has been at the forefront of the newly adopted NCAA sport of Beach Volleyball. After establishing the program in 2012, the Seminoles were ideally placed to hit the ground running when beach volleyball officially became an NCAA sport in 2016. Under new coach Brooke Niles, the team set the single-season record for wins with 32 during the sports' inaugural season as an official NCAA sport. The squad won the inaugural CCSA Conference Championship and finished as the national runner-up at the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship.

Niles was recognized for her outstanding effort as she was named National Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association. Her first year in Tallahassee was highlighted by a series of program firsts including a school-record for dual-match victories, a conference championship, the top-seed in the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championship and a national runner-up finish. Florida State won its first 14 matches under Niles, all on the road, as eight of those victories came against ranked foes including five ranked in the top 10. One of those wins came against eventual National Champion Southern California in Los Angeles as the Seminoles snapped the Women of Troy's 19-match home win streak.

ALL-AMERICAN FRESHMEN

Florida State's Dwayne Bacon and Malik Beasley, the Seminoles' top two scorers during the 2015-16 season, were both named to the 2016 Kyle Macy Freshman All-American Team presented by collegeinsider.com. Bacon and Beasley enjoyed two of the most productive seasons in school history. Both were named to the All-ACC Freshman team and were one of only three sets of teammates named to the 30-member squad.

Bacon was named the ACC Rookie of the Week a school-record five times last season. He finished his first collegiate season ranked 13th overall (and second among freshmen) in scoring and 20th overall (and third among freshman) in rebounding making him one of only two freshmen in the ACC who ranked in the top 20 in the conference in scoring and rebounding.

Beasley was named the ACC Rookie of the Week three times, ranked 16th overall in the ACC in scoring, eighth in free throw shooting percentage (.813), 10th in field goal percentage (.471) and 25th in rebounding (5.3). He was the only freshman in the ACC to rank in the top 10 in the ACC in field goal and free throw shooting and was one of only two players in the ACC who shot better than 40 percent from the field and better than 80 percent from the free throw line.

BOTH GOLF TEAMS MAKE THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

There are 303 school that sponsor men's collegiate golf and 264 that field women's teams. Yet there were only 12 universities in the nation that sent both its men's and women's teams to the NCAA Championship. Florida State was one of those schools. The women advanced from stroke play in the top 15 and moved on to play for the chance to move into match play. While they did not make it into the top eight, the women did finish in the top 15. The men's team finished one stroke out of advancing to the next round of stroke play at the championship and posted a top 20 finish.

STEFAN BRITS IS AN ATHLETE AND A SCHOLAR

As the first Florida State student-athlete to represent the Seminoles while pursuing a doctoral degree, Stefan Brits has enjoyed a historic career. The long jump specialist from Cape Town, South Africa authored a fitting final chapter, highlighted by his selection as the 2016 College Sports Information Directors Division I Men's Track & Field/Cross Country Academic All-American of the Year. Just the second four-time Academic All-American in program history, he completed his first year as a doctoral student in chemistry with a 4.0 GPA.

Brits owned the No. 1 long jump collegiately in 2016 (8.22 meters/26-11.75), setting the ACC Conference Championship record and securing a spot on South Africa's 2016 Olympic team. He was honored as the ACC Men's Outdoor Track & Field Scholar-Athlete of the Year. A five-time All-American, he placed third at the NCAA Indoor Championships as well.

ANOTHER NOLE IN THE WNBA DRAFT

Florida State Women's Basketball senior center Adut Bulgak was selected by the New York Liberty with the 12th overall pick in the first round of the 2016 WNBA Draft. The Edmonton, Canada, resident and Kenya native was the tenth Seminole to earn a selection in the WNBA Draft, including the fifth since 2009.

Bulgak's first-round selection marked the third consecutive FSU draft pick that has been chosen in the first round, with Natasha Howard (fifth overall in 2014) and Jacinta Monroe (sixth overall in 2010) being part of the group. It is the first time the New York Liberty has selected a Seminole in the WNBA Draft.

WINNING ON AND OFF THE FIELD

Since 2008, Florida State teams and student-athletes have been winning on and off the field

SOD CEMETERY

Spanning over six decades, "sod games" and the Florida State University Sod Cemetery have been a rich part of the Seminoles college football history, commemorating many of the greatest victories.

1962

In 1962, as the Seminoles completed their Thursday practice in preparation to face Georgia at Sanford Stadium, Dean Coyle Moore – a long-time professor and member of FSU's athletic board – issued a challenge: "Bring back some sod from between the hedges at Georgia."

OCT. 20 - FSU 18, GEORGIA 0

On Saturday, October 20, the Seminoles scored an 18-0 victory over the favored Bulldogs. Team captain Gene McDowell pulled a small piece of grass from the field, which was presented to Moore at the next football practice. Moore and FSU coach Bill Peterson had the sod buried on the practice field as a symbol of victory. A monument was placed to commemorate the triumph and the tradition of the sod game was born.

ON THE ROAD: UNDERDOG, UF, ACC TITLE, BOWLS

Before leaving for all road games in which Florida State is the underdog, all road games at the University of Florida and all ACC championship and bowl games, Seminole captains gather their teammates to explain the significance of the tradition. Victorious captains return with a piece of the opponent's turf to be buried in the Sod Cemetery inside the gates of the practice field.

Away from home and against the odds, Florida State sod games represent the most difficult battles on the football field. The Sod Cemetery stands as a tribute to those triumphs, to be enjoyed by the Seminole faithful.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

Florida State is one of the premier athletics programs in the nation with a tremendous success rate widespread amongst all of its 20 sports. In addition to football advancing to a fourth consecutive major bowl, softball reached the national semifinals of the Women's College World Series, women's soccer made it to the College Cup and beach volleyball finished as national runners-up during the 2015-16 year.

What makes Seminoles athletics one of the best in the country are the elite facilities afforded to student-athletes. From the best training facilities in great weather to the spacious venues, Florida State attracts not only the best of the best in the country but from around the world.

In continuing to keep Florida State's football program among the elite, exciting upgrades from the locker room, to coaches' offices and meeting rooms, as well as a brand new, state-of-the-art player's lounge have been completed over the past year.

THE MOORE ATHLETICS CENTER

The main hub for Seminole football and the Florida State Department of Athletics is the Moore Athletics Center, which is adjacent to Doak S. Campbell Stadium – and in the north endzone.

The four-story state-of-the-art building includes the football locker room, weight room, athletic training and rehab facility, tutorial and study hall space, computer labs for student-athletes, multi-purpose theatre for team meetings, press conferences and symposiums, classrooms and a dining facility with a full service kitchen and a mailroom. It's also the perfect hub of life for FSU's 400-plus student-athletes.

It's also home to the athletics administration and support staff housing the executive staff, business office, computer information services, coaches' video, Seminole Productions, college of communication faculty offices and student edit rooms, academic support, student services, compliance, sports information, digital media, marketing and promotions, facilities and event management. Designated spaces are available for athletic-training curriculum and a studio provided for the College of Communication students to gain hands on experience producing work for Seminole athletics.

The main level showcases Florida State's talented student-athletes with wall-to-wall vibrant memories of historic Seminole seasons and athletic achievements, including the 1993, 1999 and 2013 football national championships as well as FSU's three Heisman Trophy winners.

THE NEW MANNY GARCIA LOCKER ROOM

The Manny Garcia Locker Room underwent renovations prior to the 2014 season, upgrading the facility into without-a-doubt one of the nation's best. The unique semi-circle shape remains intact and features 120 new solid wood lockers created by combining design concepts of the ones used by the NFL's Dallas Cowboys and MLB's New York Yankees.

Each locker has a large stainless steel compartment in the bottom base for players to store clothing, shoes, bags and other personal belongings; a personal lock box, a universal mobile device charger, a built-in ventilation system flushing out old air and bringing in new air to dry out clothing and equipment. One of the main features of each locker is an iPad where individual and team messages can be left and displayed on for players from coaches and other football staff, practice or game film can be viewed on and class schedules can be viewed.

The remembrance of FSU's sealed lockers is kept in place with the focal point in the locker room which are statues of all the former 'Noles with retired jersey numbers and honored jerseys. The jerseys on the statues will stay lit the whole time and honor Fred Biletnikoff, Ron Sellers, Ron Simmons, Deion Sanders, Charlie Ward, Derrick Brooks, Warrick Dunn, Chris Weinke and Terrell Buckley.

By the number always being lit, it lends proof to the belief behind the fact that current players are sharing a locker room with all the great players who have played at Florida State.

The players' lounge serves as a relaxing lobby with large flat screen televisions, gaming consoles, comfortable seating and lounging chairs as well as a fruit and snack bar, Muscle Milk and Powerade dispensers. A Nike Display wall has full-size mannequins decked out in FSU uniforms as well as an interactive touch screen display to view Florida State's Nike football gear and uniforms.

PLAYER'S LOUNGE

A PLACE FOR FUN, A PLACE TO CHILL

The Seminoles' players lounge features three 75-inch TVs, seven arcade games and one very large 50-yard line marker on the ceiling. There are multiple living-room style seating areas, a fully stocked refrigerator, a Seminole-themed pool table and a ping pong table. There's multiple Pop-A-Shot basketball games and a football toss game.

In addition to room-wide surround sound, cell-phone charging stations and a nutrition counter, there are garnet and gold flourishes found in nearly every inch of the lounge.

Foosball and pool tables feature emblazoned FSU logos and wordmarks, and arcade basketball games are adorned with photos of Osceola and Renegade.

And oversized versions of the Seminole head logo and spear, complete with crisp backlights, hang from the walls.

AT HOME AT THE MOVIES

The centerpiece of the lounge is a movie theater – complete with a snack bar, 12 FSU-branded leather recliners and a 10-foot screen – where players can watch TV and movies or even gather for late-night film sessions.

The facility was fashioned out of the space that had been used for FSU's turf room on the second floor of the Moore Athletics Center. Coach Jimbo Fisher spearheaded the idea.

Before FSU's indoor practice facility opened in 2013, the Seminoles would hold makeshift practices inside the turf room during bad weather. But the IPF made the turf room redundant, so Fisher sought a better use for the space.

COACHES' SUITE

An updated coaches' suite located on the third floor of the Moore Athletics Center serves not only as a home away from home for the national championship winning football staff but houses a tribute to the history of FSU football.

UNCONQUERED HALLWAY

The Unconquered Hallway is the permanent home for the trophies of the three national championships won in 1993, 1999 and 2013 as well as the 15 Atlantic Coast Conference Championships, three Heisman winners and individual national award winners. An interactive display for all the national award winners also is housed in the space.

COACHES' LOBBY

The lobby right outside each position coaches' office has a case which holds every bowl and national championship ring won at FSU, while a timeline of the history of FSU football adorns the walls.

THE PATH TO THE NFL HALLWAY

The hallway right outside the office is maintained to feature the jerseys of every former 'Nole playing in the NFL on a 53-man roster each season. The Interactive NFL Display has a wall featuring the history of Seminoles who played in the NFL.

ALBERT J. DUNLAP ATHLETIC TRAINING FACILITY

Florida State unveiled its brand-new indoor practice facility in 2013, which allows the Seminoles to practice year-round in state-of-the-art championship facilities without disruptions from inclement weather conditions. The nearly $15-million, 92,000-square-foot facility features a 120-yard artificial turf field with a 2,000-square-foot training room, rehab area and storage space. The facility is climate controlled and includes platforms that allow for multiple video angles to be shot during practices. The field resembles Bobby Bowden Field inside Doak Campbell Stadium and includes garnet end zones.

In 2015, the facility was nominated for the American Institute of Architects Florida People's Choice competition.

FSU's two full-size natural turf fields outside of the facility also were updated and feature a new tower between fields for video and viewing purposes. The entire project was funded by donations, including the $5 million pledge by Al and Judy Dunlap in Feb. 2011.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

THE ROGER HOLLER CHAMPIONS TRAINING COMPLEX

The Florida State Seminoles train out of the Seminole Strength and Speed Complex. The state of the art facility includes a 14,700 square feet weight room, 5,000 additional square feet of complex training area, 24 self-contained powerlift work stations, a cutting edge video/audio system and over 80 pieces of customized free weight and selectorized machines. The staff continues to remain on the cutting edge of technology and recently installed several iPads into the weight area for athletes to conveniently access training regimens.

Certified Strength and Conditioning Coaches operate the Seminole Strength and Speed Complex. The coaches design individualized programs that include a regiment of strength training, power development, linear and lateral speed enhancement, mobility and endurance. Before a program is designed all student-athletes are put through a battery of tests to identify strengths and weaknesses.

Once testing is completed a computer-generated program is assigned to the student-athlete. A coach will guide the student-athlete through the program daily and progress will be monitored on a weekly basis by the strength and conditioning staff. Continuous supervision of the athletes will ensure a successful physical transformation into a collegiate athlete.

FSU STRENGTH & CONDITIONING STAFF A CLOSER LOOK

Florida State's strength and conditioning program has quickly become one of the most innovative and advanced programs in the country under the direction of Vic Vilorio and his staff of four full-time assistants. Using some of the top training methods and technologies, FSU's staff has transformed the Seminoles into one of the nation's most-fit teams, as evident by the on-the-field success.

“Stay in the Eye of the Storm”

The motto of the strength and conditioning staff is simple, “stay in the eye of the storm.” The most fundamental and important aspect of the Florida State University strength and conditioning program is that our coaches will always be on the floor coaching their athletes. No athlete is left to train on his or her own. Every workout, every exercise, every set, and every rep will be monitored by a coach. The coach will teach, instruct, provide feedback, and motivate the athlete.

ONE GOAL

It is the goal of the Florida State strength and conditioning program to help each athlete reach their full athletic potential by providing them with training programs that are scientifically based and founded on modern methods of strength and conditioning.

THE COMPLETE ATHLETE

The objective of the FSU strength and conditioning staff is not only to produce stronger, better conditioned athletes, but also to build discipline and mental toughness in each athlete through the implementation of a very structured and organized environment. Athletes are held accountable for the commitment and effort that they put into the program, and lifting and conditioning must be viewed as a vital element in the training program for athletes of any sport.

GPS TECHNOLOGY

The results have allowed Florida State to virtually eliminate soft tissue injuries and was a definite factor in helping the Seminoles win an ACC and FSU record 29 consecutive games, including three straight ACC Championships and the 2013 BCS National Championship.

NUTRITION

SEMINOLE SPORTS NUTRITION

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Sports Nutrition Department is to provide student-athletes with the resources they need to stay properly fueled both on the field and in the classroom. Through education, demonstration, and consultation, we strive to optimize health and performance which provides a set of skills that will continue to promote health and wellness throughout life. At Florida State, the elite become champions.

"THE MISSING LINK"

Nutrition can often times be the "missing link" for athletes in their training. Proper nutrition can help prevent injury, enhance the benefits of strength training programs and aid in the recovery process. Adequate fueling can turn an elite athlete into a champion.

NUTRITION EDUCATION

Every interaction is an opportunity to educate the student-athletes on how to properly fuel themselves. We provide team talks, cooking classes, handouts and one-on-one counseling to provide strategies to prepare student-athletes not only for athletic success, but to educate them for life after football.

FUELING THE ATHLETE

The sports nutrition staff offers a variety of different options for student-athletes to properly fuel themselves for their performance. We provide pre/post workout nutrition tailored to the needs of each student-athlete. The sports nutrition staff also provides nutrition around competition, on the road traveling and meal planning.

VISION

As Florida State University leads and embraces the future — entering new markets, connecting with new students, faculty and staff, and expanding its presence — it is essential that the Florida State Athletics brand grows with the university. The objective of this exercise is to make sure that the brand is consistent across all applications and captures new audiences in an authentic and meaningful way. The Seminole Tribe of Florida was consulted through the brand development process and approved all modifications of these beloved symbols.

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS BRAND

What are the elements that make up our Brand Identity? The words you choose. The type you use. The colors, graphics, and imagery you display. A unique and iconic primary logo. The way you position and apply the primary logo. These are the key building blocks that help tell the Florida State story and shape people's perception of Florida State University.

Perfection is in the details. Underlying all Florida State brand expressions is a detailed, well-ordered system of visual assets. This unified system defines the Florida State experience.

EVOLUTION NOT REVOLUTION

At first glance, the new Florida State Brand Identity System may look revolutionary. It's bold and intriguing. It's designed to serve as an evolution of an already iconic identity and position the brand for the future.

BRAND ATTRIBUTES

Brand Attributes are a set of characteristics that represent the essence of the Florida State brand. These attributes identify personality traits and serve as a filter for all of the components of the identity system. When you experience the Florida State brand, we want you to be reminded of:

RESPECT | INTEGRITY | STRENGTH | PRIDE
CHARACTER | FIGHT | PASSION | LEADERSHIP

PRIMARY IDENTITY— THE SEMINOLE LOGO

The Seminole logo is indisputably iconic and unique to Florida State Athletics. It signals a consistent foundation—honoring the brand equity that has been built across decades of competition while creating distinction and reinforcing the brand for the next generation. The mark is strong, youthful and bold paying off the true attributes of a Seminole Warrior. It purposefully incorporates the Florida State color palette, and with the head held high it expresses our position with purpose and conviction.

The Seminole logo is the primary representation of the brand and is used as the main identifying device for athletics. Reinforcement of the primary identity will build equity in Florida State Athletics. In primary or secondary colors, the Seminole logo works well across all media. With a flexible approach to palettes and logo staging, the Seminole logo now comes alive with renewed spark and energy.

FSU LOGO

The FSU Logo is a stylistic ligature. At the origin of typographical ligatures is the simple running together of letters in manuscripts. In writing and typography, a typographic ligature occurs where two or more letters are joined as a single glyph.

The FSU Logo was created from the custom unconquered alphabet. It works closely in support of the primary identity to represent Seminole Athletics. This type-based mark gives the identity flexibility while staying consistent with the main look and feel.

SEMINOLE SPEAR

Perhaps the most spectacular tradition in all of college football occurs in Doak Campbell Stadium when a student portraying the famous Seminole leader, Osceola, charges down the field riding an Appaloosa horse named Renegade and plants a flaming spear at midfield to begin every home game. Together, Osceola and Renegade highlight a pre-game ritual, considered to be one of the most popular in the nation.

Florida State's trademark helmet with the Seminole spear is well known throughout all of college football. This design was first introduced during Bobby Bowden's first year as head coach in 1976. Prior to that season, FSU had used a variety of different helmets ranging from gold with a garnet FSU, solid gold with garnet and white striping, an image of the state of Florida with STATE running down it, and various others. The refined spear now reflects the same visual language as the other elements of the identity system.

SEMINOLE PATTERN

In the early 1900s, a new decorative technique was developed by Seminole women, now commonly known as patchwork. Early patterns included blocks and bars of alternating color with occasional sawtooth designs that were sewn directly into garments. Patchwork was rapidly adopted as a standard means of embellishing the Seminoles' traditionally vibrant clothing. These authentic and meaningful patterns live on through today's Seminole natives, and are now an official element of the performance apparel palette for Florida State Athletics.

FSU and Nike were determined to incorporate meaningful symbolism into their uniforms and designers included Seminole lore in each element. The Seminole symbols for Fire, Arrow and Man on Horse (top to bottom, repeating) were the inspiration for this unique pattern.

1993 - FSU at Notre Dame

1851

Florida State University actually began in 1851 when a legislative act established the Seminary West of the Suwannee. The first students enrolled in 1857 and the Florida State College was co-educational until 1905 when the Buckman Bill sent all the female students to the "new" Florida State College for Women. The huge numbers of male college students wishing to enter school on the G.I. Bill after World War II forced the legislature to make FSU co-educational in 1946.

1902-04

Thirty-three years after Princeton and Rutgers kicked off American college football, the Florida State College played three seasons of football in Tallahassee. From 1902-1904, FSC played wearing the colors purple and gold. The 1904 squad was crowned state champions after defeating the University of Florida at Lake City and Stetson.

1946

Florida State University became a co-educational institution in 1946 when the first male students were enrolled, most of whom were coming back from World War II. The transition from FSCW, which was regarded as one of the nation's top colleges, to the new institution was remarkably quick and the development of an athletics program was almost as rapid.

1947

Florida State University fielded a football team in 1947 coached by Ed Williamson. On October 18, 1947, Stetson kicked off to the FSU three yard line. Don Grant returned the kickoff to the FSU 32 and 7,165 fans at Centennial Field celebrated the first football game. The team finished 0-5 on the season.

1948

Don Veller became FSU's second football coach in 1948 and would coach the team until 1952. An outstanding player at Indiana University, Veller inherited 20 lettermen from the first year, but only 12 would letter in 1948. Veller would lose just two games over his first three years, including an undefeated 8-0 campaign in 1950.

1950

Florida State played its first football game in Doak S. Campbell Stadium on Oct. 7, 1950 against Randolph Macon. 9,676 fans watched the Seminoles win 40-7, but the new home field was a story in itself. It was built on a former cow pasture and was completed in just five months. Tallahassee Rainey Cawthon was instrumental in selling over 1,000 season tickets at $50.00 each to fund the stadium and won a wheelbarrow ride down Monroe Street from contractor Red Coleman, who missed the completion date by two days. FSU players painted the stadium over the next summer for $1 per hour.

1953

Tom Nugent became FSU's third head coach in 1953 and would coach the Seminoles until leaving to become Maryland's head coach in 1958. An innovator on a national level, Nugent developed the I-formation and the typewriter huddle. Among the players he coached were FSU greats Bobby Renn and Lee Corso as well as a talented tailback named Burt Reynolds whose career was cut short by injury.

1960-70

Florida State's arrival on the national map occurred during Bill Peterson's 11 seasons as head coach. He came in 1960 when free substitution was still five years away in the game. He moved FSU boldly into the forefront of the passing game and led the Tribe to its biggest win yet when they topped No. 5 Kentucky 48-6 in 1964. He would post a 62-42-11 record in Tallahassee. Among a host of other things, Peterson developed the concept of the "hot receiver" in 1964 that remains in most offenses today.

1964

Fred Biletnikoff became FSU's first consensus All-American as a senior in 1964. He ranked fourth nationally with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns which did not include his four touchdowns in the Gator Bowl win over Oklahoma. Biletnikoff put FSU on the map and he was married under the goalposts at Doak Campbell in 1965. He would go on to have a Hall of Fame career with the Oakland Raiders. The national award given to the top college receiver in the country is named after him.

1966

Ron Sellers began a career at Florida State that would prove one of the most prolific in college history. He gained an unheard of 3,979 yards over his career. His statistics were so impressive that most lasted as national records all the way until 1987. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games and averaged 119.9 yards per game. He is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

1970

While integration of schools throughout the country came painfully slow, Florida State's first African-American player took the field in 1970. J.T. Thomas was a starter from the first game he played at FSU and he backed a sterling college career with three Super Bowl rings earned as a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1971

Larry Jones coached the Seminoles from 1971-1973. An 0-11 campaign in his last year spelled the end for the coach. Among notable players during his era were outstanding wide receiver Barry Smith, quarterback Gary Huff and Alabama transfer Billy Sexton.

1974-75

Darryl Mudra coached the Seminoles for two seasons and did his work from the pressbox on game day. Perhaps the biggest accomplishment of Mudra's brief tenure, that included the NCAA mandated scholarship limits for the first time, was the signing of an unheralded running back named Larry Key. Key would prove to be one of the finest running backs in Seminole history.

1976

FSU president Stanley Marshall and athletic director John Bridgers set up a dinner meeting at an airport hotel in Tampa where West Virginia head coach Bobby Bowden was coaching an all-star game known as the American Bowl. They offered him a four-year contract worth $37,500 and he became the Seminoles' eighth head coach on Jan. 12. Bowden was interviewed for the job six years earlier when it went to Larry Jones, but FSU officials felt he lacked the experience.

1977

Florida State ended a nine year drought versus the Florida Gators in convincing style with a 37-9 victory before 63,563 fans in Gainesville. The victory capped a brilliant regular season for the Gamet and Gold. It was the ninth victory in 11 games, the first time in Seminole history the school had recorded nine wins during the regular season. And, the win also returned FSU football to respectability throughout the south since head coach Bobby Bowden had said more than once that the program "would not be turned around until we beat Florida." Thus the victory - only the third in the 20 year series for the Seminoles - was more important than any other win in recent memory for Seminole coaches and boosters.

1979-80

Florida State got its first taste of the real big-time in 1979 and 1980 going to back-to-back Orange Bowls against Oklahoma. FSU went undefeated (11-0) over the regular season in 1979, but lost 24-7 to the Sooners and finished sixth in the final AP poll. FSU took a 10-1 record into the Orange Bowl showdown the next year before losing a heartbreaker 18-17.

DID YOU KNOW?

Scholarships In '51

It was not until 1951 that Florida State began to grant athletic scholarships and the move put added pressure on the program to win. FSU left the Dixie Conference and petitioned for membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference but were rebuffed. Interestingly, it was the University of Florida that sponsored FSU for admission to the SEC.

Seminoles First To Score Two

The late Vic Prinzi, who is a member of the Florida State Hall of Fame and was the color commentator for the radio network until his death in 1997, was the first college player ever to score a two-point conversion. On Sept. 13, 1958, the Seminoles took the season-opening drive of the Tennessee Tech game in for a touchdown and Prinzi, playing quarterback, ran in the two-point conversion to beat the other national games by just minutes.

Football Since 1902 Actually

Florida State College actually played football during the 1902-1904 school years and played it well. The first game in 1902 was a 5-0 win over South Georgia Military on Nov. 21 when touchdowns were worth five points. The NCAA nor the governing body at the time recognizes the early games for FSC, although the school won the state championship in 1904. The 1904 season included a 23-0 win over Florida in Lake City, Fla. The school then became the Florida State College for Women and would remain one of the nation's top all-female institutions until the large number of returning veterans from World War II triggered the state system to open Florida State University to men in 1946. The school resumed football in 1947, taking on Stetson in its first game.

1980

If one game can be singled out as the most important in the run of unprecedented success at Florida State, it would be the contest at Nebraska on Sept. 7, 1980. FSU won in Lincoln, 18-14, opening the eyes of the entire country. Nebraska fans shook off a mixture of shock and confusion to stand and give Bobby Bowden and his Seminoles a standing ovation as they left the field.

1981

FSU takes on the following schools in order all on the road: Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh and LSU. FSU won at Ohio State, Notre Dame and LSU, but, more importantly, won fans coast to coast for its undaunted spirit.

1981

In 1981 a freshman tailback named Greg Allen was given the football in the middle of legendary Death Valley with a sea of LSU fans around him. He finished the day with a remarkable 202 rushing yards that signaled the arrival of a superstar for the Seminoles. Later that year, he would rip Western Carolina for 322 rushing yards, which still stands as the best rushing game ever for a Seminole.

1986

Deion Sanders spent a quiet first two years at Florida State before exploding on the national scene in a preseason press conference. He would become one of the most popular players ever in college football and one of the greatest athletes in FSU history.

1991-92

On July 1, 1991, the Atlantic Coast Conference accepted Florida State University as its ninth member and the first addition to the league since Georgia Tech joined in 1978. FSU had competed in the Metro Conference for all sports other than football, which had been an independent. FSU's first ACC football game was a 48-21 win over Duke on Sept. 7, 1992.

1993

The Seminoles won their first national championship behind Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward in 1993. FSU played Nebraska in the national title game at the Orange Bowl and used freshman Scott Bentley's late field goal to win 18-16.

1995

A 31-26 come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter of the Orange Bowl against Notre Dame was FSU's 11th consecutive bowl win. The streak set an NCAA record as was FSU's 14-game unbeaten streak in bowls that was spoiled only by a 17-17 tie with Georgia in the 1984 Citrus Bowl.

1999

Bobby Bowden used to keep an empty picture frame in his office, which was reserved for his first perfect season. He filled the frame with a 1999 team photo. The Seminoles finished the year 12-0 and topped off the record run with a 46-29 win over Virginia Tech for the national championship in the Sugar Bowl.

2000

Chris Weinke literally rewrote the FSU record book over his senior season and took home the second Heisman Trophy for a Seminole player when he won the award in December of 2000. He would finish his career with a record of 32-3 as a starter.

2002

Bobby Bowden passed Bear Bryant and moved into second place on the all-time coaching wins list.

2003

Bobby Bowden defeats Wake Forest to become all-time winningest major college coach. The Seminoles won the ACC and earned the BCS bid.

2004

Bobby Bowden Field at Doak S. Campbell Stadium was dedicated on Nov. 20, 2004 prior to the Florida game.

2005

Florida State wins the inaugural ACC Championship game by a score of 27-22 over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville. Willie Reid was named the game's MVP. The conference title was FSU's 12th since joining the league in 1992.

2006

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Bobby Bowden and Charlie Ward would be two of the year's 15 inductees. Bowden and Joe Paterno, who was also inducted, were the first two active coaches to be honored.

2007

2008

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Ron Simmons would be one of 15 inductees. The Rhodes Trust named junior Myron Rolle one of 32 U.S. Rhodes Scholars for 2009 - the first time in nearly 25 years it has awarded the scholarship to a prominent college football player. Senior kicker Graham Gano was named the Lou Groza Award winner, making him just the second Seminole to ever garner the honor.

Legendary head coach Bobby Bowden (1976-2009) and longtime defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews (1984-2009) announced their retirements during the season and said their final farewells when FSU defeated West Virginia 33-21 in the 2010 Gator Bowl. The victory secured the Seminoles' 33rd straight winning season under Bowden. It was Florida State's 28th straight bowl appearance - the nation's longest active bowl streak. Bowden retired ranked second all-time in victories for NCAA major college football.

2010

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head coach at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC history.

2011

Jimbo Fisher led Florida State to its 30th consecutive bowl appearance in the Champs Sports Bowl and the Seminoles rallied for an 18-14 win over Notre Dame to win their fourth straight bowl game. Punter Shawn Powell earned consensus All-American honors. FSU defeated both Miami and Florida for the second straight year, something the 'Noles hadn't done in back-to-back seasons since 1998-99.

2012

Florida State took its place back among the elite in 2012. The Seminoles captured their first ACC Championship since 2005 and won a BCS Bowl by defeating Northern Illinois 31-10 in the Discover Orange Bowl on New Year's Day. The 'Noles finished No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 10 in the Associated Press Poll. Defensive end Boiem Werner was a unanimous All-America selection while placekicker Dustin Hopkins also earned All-America honors. Hopkins set a new FBS record by a kicker for career points (466) and also became the ACC's all-time scorer. Head coach Jimbo Fisher guided the Seminoles to their second 10-win season in just his third year as FSU finished 12-2 - the most wins since 1999 - and extended its consecutive bowl appearance streak (31).

2013

The Seminoles earned their third national championship with a 34-31 win over Auburn in the BCS National Championship Game on Jan. 6, 2014. Redshirt freshman quarterback Jameis Winston led Florida State to a 14-0 record and its first undefeated season since 1999. Winston earned the 2013 Heisman Trophy as he finished with 4,057 yards passing and a school-record 40 TDs through the air to go along with 219 yards and four scores on the ground.

2014

Florida State won its third consecutive ACC Championship, and 15th overall since joining the league in 1992, earning a spot in the inaugural College Football Playoff. The Seminoles posted a streak of 29 consecutive wins, setting FSU and ACC records, becoming just the 14th team in college football history to win 29 games in a row.

2015

Despite losing 12 starters and having 11 players drafted in the previous spring, the Seminoles had another banner year by finishing with a record of 10-3 and advancing to the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. FSU joined Alabama as the only team in the country to appear in four consecutive BCS or "New Year's Six" bowl games. Along the way, junior defensive back Jalen Ramsey collected consensus All-America honors, while redshirt junior Roberto Aguayo wrapped up his career as college football's most accurate kicker. Sophomore running back Dalvin Cook shattered the school record for rushing yards (1,691) en route to the Jim Brown Award, given to college football's top running back.

BOB CRENSHAW AWARD

Given in memory of Robert E. (Bob) Crenshaw (Played 1952-55), Florida State football captain in 1954 and student leader who was killed in a jet crash in 1958. The plaque's inscription reads: "To the football player with the biggest heart." The recipient is chosen by his teammates as the man who best exemplifies the qualities that made Bob Crenshaw an outstanding football player and person.

1976

Although FSU had considered dropping football due to a 4-29 record over the previous four seasons, Bobby Bowden is hired as head coach and records his only losing season at FSU with a 5-6 mark.

1977

In one season, Bowden turns the program around with a 10-2 record, FSU's first-ever 10-win season. Under Bowden's direction, FSU won its first bowl game since 1964 with a 40-17 drumming of Texas Tech in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl.

1978

Bowden and Florida State received the program's first preseason national ranking at No. 17. He led the Seminoles to a second straight win over Florida, marking the first time in history FSU had recorded two straight wins over the Gators.

1979

Bowden led FSU to the Orange Bowl in its first ever New Year's Day bowl. Bowden recorded FSU's first ever unbeaten regular season and the highest AP ranking at No. 4 entering the postseason and coached FSU to a school-record 11 wins.

1980

Bowden's 1980 team was the first in program history to finish in the AP Top 5. When it's looked at how FSU became a national power, the 18-14 win at Nebraska always comes to mind as a landmark victory. He was named National Coach of the Year (Bobby Dodd).

1981

Bowden and Florida State gained notoriety with a schedule that lined FSU up in successive weeks on the road against Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pitt and LSU. The Seminoles went 3-2 in that stretch while Florida State's overall schedule was nicknamed "Murderer's Row" and "Octoberfest."

1982

For the second straight year, Bowden and the Seminoles faced the nation's toughest schedule according to the NCAA. Bowden reached into his bag of tricks for a 34-17 upset win at Ohio State.

1983

Bowden surpassed former head coach Bill Peterson as the all-time winningest coach at FSU. He was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. The "War Chant" saw its birth and FSU sported its "mustard" uniforms for the first and only time.

1984

1985

Bowden coached FSU to its ninth straight winning season, capped off by a 34-23 Gator Bowl victory over Oklahoma State. Perhaps FSU's biggest victory came in the second game when FSU traveled to No. 10 Nebraska and defeated the Cornhuskers 17-13, a game Bowden would later call "one of the biggest wins in FSU history."

1986

Bowden and FSU recorded a 56-14 pounding of South Carolina in FSU's first-ever appearance on ESPN. Bowden led FSU to a perfect 6-0 record at home and the most points scored in a game by FSU in history with a 76-14 win over Tulsa. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

1987

Bowden missed his first national championship by one point when two Miami defenders knocked down a two-point conversion and FSU fell 26-25. FSU snapped a six-game losing skid to the Gators which marked Bowden's 100th victory at FSU.

1988

Bowden's preseason No. 1 ranked team fell at Miami breaking its streak of 11 opening day victories. The Seminoles would not lose again, winning 11 straight games. Bowden called one of his greatest trick plays, the Puntrooskie, at Clemson. FSU drubbed Florida 52-17 for the Seminoles' largest victory margin over the Gators.

1989

After a loss to Clemson, FSU went on to win 10 straight and earn a Top 3 ranking for the third straight year. FSU played in a third straight New Year's Day bowl with a win over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl, extending its bowl unbeaten streak to eight.

1990

Bowden earned his 200th career victory when FSU beat LSU 42-3. The 1990 meeting with Florida marked the first time in the series that both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as No. 8 FSU defeated No. 6 UF 45-30. Bowden and FSU beat Joe Paterno's No. 7 Penn State Nittany Lions 24-17 in the Blockbuster Bowl.

1991

Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Walter Camp) and led FSU to an 11-2 mark and fifth straight season of 10 or more wins. FSU was preseason No. 1 and stayed there 11 weeks before falling to Miami in Wide Right I. FSU defeated No. 3 Michigan 51-31, the most points ever allowed in the Big House.

The Bowden Era A CLOSER LOOK

- Most Victories By An ACC Coach In A Career: 389 (2nd in NCAA All-Time; Due to sanctions against FSU, NCAA recognizes 377)
- Inducted Into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame
- 31 Bowl Appearances in 34 Seasons at FSU
- 14 Consecutive Seasons with 10 or more wins

- 28 Consecutive Bowl Games (1982-2009)

THE LEGEND RETURNS

On Oct. 26, 2013, Bowden returned to Doak Campbell Stadium for the first time since his final season in 2009. In what was coined "Bobby Bowden Day," the coaching legend was honored prior to Florida State's game against NC State, which was won 49-17 by the 'Noles. Bowden planted the spear once again and gave a thank you speech to the Garnet and Gold crowd, talking about his memories as FSU's cherished leader.

BOWDEN IN BRONZE

Former head coach Bobby Bowden is bigger than life in front of the Moore Athletics Center at Florida State as a bronze statue of his likeness was unveiled in a ceremony on Sept. 24, 2004. The statue is one-and-a-half life-size of Bowden and was sculpted by Tallahassee artist Stanley Proctor. The artist also created a smaller piece of artwork, measuring just over 12 inches high, featuring Bowden and Doak Campbell Stadium.

1992

Bowden and FSU beat Duke in FSU's first game as a member of the ACC. FSU suffered Wide Right II at Miami and fans saw the birth of the "fast-break offense" in the comeback win at Georgia Tech. Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards. Bowden was named the 1992 Neyland Trophy Winner.

1993

Bowden brought home FSU's first national title with an 18-16 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Charlie Ward became FSU's first Heisman Trophy winner and won every award he was eligible for. Bowden was named ACC Coach of the Year and led FSU to 12 victories for the first time in school history.

1994

Bowden's squad set an NCAA record with the amazing 28 point fourth quarter comeback against Florida. He led the Seminoles to another ACC Title and Top 4 national ranking. Florida State would play Florida a second time in a game dubbed the Fifth Quarter in the French Quarter, as FSU won 23-17 in the Sugar Bowl.

1995

Florida State's streak of 29 straight ACC wins came to an end with a loss at Virginia. FSU still won the ACC Championship and the victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl preserved its NCAA record 11th straight bowl win. Bowden earned career win No. 250 in his 20th year as Florida State's head coach.

1996

Bowden guided FSU to its second national championship game as FSU celebrated 50 years of Seminole football. Florida State fell in a rematch to Florida in the national championship. Bowden was honored as the 1996 National Coach of the Year (Home Depot). FSU finished the season ranked No. 3.

1997

Bowden and FSU went 11-1 for the second straight season, capped off by a win over Ohio State in the Sugar Bowl. Bowden recorded his 200th victory at FSU. He was named ACC Coach of the Year for the second time. FSU finished No. 3, keeping alive the streak of 11 straight seasons of Top 4 finishes in the AP poll.

1998

Bowden led FSU to its second national championship appearance in three years. FSU won another ACC Championship despite falling at NC State 24-7 in only the second ACC loss for the Seminoles since joining the league. FSU went 11-2 and with a Top 4 ranking (No. 3) and 10 or more wins for a 12th-straight season.

1999

Bowden led FSU to its first undefeated season as FSU became the first team in the history of college football to go wire-to-wire as the AP No. 1 ranked team. Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Home Depot), a National Coach of the Decade Finalist (Home Depot) and his Seminoles were honored as the ESPN College Team of the Decade (any sport).

2000

FSU played in its third straight national championship game and fourth in five years. The 2000 season was the last of Bowden's streak of 14 straight AP Top 5 finishes and 14 straight seasons of 10 or more wins. The Seminoles finished the season 11-2, 8-0 in the ACC and a No. 5 ranking in the AP final poll.

2001

For the first time since joining the ACC in 1992, Bowden's Seminoles did not win the ACC championship but still went to their 11th straight New Year's Day bowl with an invitation to the Gator Bowl where FSU defeated Virginia Tech. With that win, Bowden tied Bear Bryant for second place on the all-time coaching wins list with 323.

2002

Florida State returned to the top of the ACC and the Seminoles played Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. FSU concluded the season ranked 21st in the final AP poll. During the season, Bowden recorded his 250th victory at Florida State and 325th victory of his career.

2003

Bowden led FSU back to another 10-win season and passed Joe Paterno as the all-time winningest major college football coach. The Seminoles captured the ACC title, its 10th in 12 years, and earned the BCS bid to the Orange Bowl, marking FSU's 22nd straight postseason trip and 13th consecutive January bowl game.

2004

Bowden coached FSU to its 23rd straight bowl and a No. 15 final ranking as he recorded FSU win No. 275 and career win No. 350 during the season. The field at Doak Campbell Stadium was named Bobby Bowden Field, a stained glass window depicting Bowden and a statue of his likeness were placed in front of the stadium.

2005

Bowden guided FSU to another ACC title in the inaugural ACC Championship game with a 27-22 win over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville which propelled FSU into the FedEx Orange Bowl against Penn State. The game was Bowden's 24th consecutive bowl, as he coached against Joe Paterno in an epic triple OT game.

2006

Bowden was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The Seminoles made their longest road trip in school history, venturing 2,600 miles to San Francisco for the Emerald Bowl where they beat UCLA. The game marked FSU's 25th straight bowl appearance and the win extended Bowden's winning-season streak to 30.

2007

Bowden earned his 31st consecutive winning season with a 7-6 record and made a Music City Bowl appearance. Bowden reached another milestone in his decorated career when he earned his 300th win at Florida State in a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008

Bowden coached his 'Noles to a 9-3 record, No. 21 national ranking and a tie for 1st in the ACC Atlantic Division. FSU concluded the season with a win over Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl and touted the nation's longest bowl streak at 27 straight. In FSU's win over Colorado in Jacksonville, Bowden recorded his 500th game as a head coach.

2009

On December 1st, Bowden announced that the bowl game would be his last as head coach of Florida State. He was carried off the field in his final game as his Seminoles defeated West Virginia, the school he coached prior to coming to FSU, in the Gator Bowl.

TRADITION

FSU Fight Song

While the "War Chant" has become familiar at FSU games, the Florida State fight song still remains the definitive sound of Seminole sports. FSU's band became the Marching Chiefs in 1950 and with that came the fight song. Tommy Wright, a member of the faculty in the School of Music, was perturbed that the Seminoles had been using "On Wisconsin" and the "Notre Dame Victory March" so he introduced the song in the Sewanee game, setting to music a poem by FSU Alumni Doug Alley.

History of the Garnet and Gold

Florida State's school colors of garnet and gold date back to the Florida State College championship football teams of 1904 and 1905. In those championship seasons, FSC donned purple and gold uniforms. When Florida State College became Florida Female College in 1905, the football team was forced to attend the University of Florida. The following year the FFC student body selected crimson as the official school color of 1905. The administration in 1905 took crimson and combined it with the recognizable purple of the championship football teams to achieve the color garnet. The now-famous garnet and gold colors were first used on an FSU uniform in a 14-6 loss to Stetson on Oct. 18, 1947.

War Chant

Florida State's "war chant" appears to have begun with a random occurrence that took place during a 1984 game against Auburn. In the 1960s, the Marching Chiefs would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer. In a sense, that chant was the long version of FSU's current "war chant." During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant melody. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the "war chant" portion after the band had ceased. Most agree the chant came from the fraternity section, but many spirited Seminole fans added the hand motion to symbolize the brandishing of a tomahawk. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season, it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, plus put their own special brand of accompaniment to the "war chant," for the sound we hear today. Atlanta Braves fans took up their version of the song and chant when former FSU star Deion Sanders came to the plate as an outfielder. The Kansas City Chiefs first heard it when the Northwest Missouri State band, directed by 1969 FSU graduate Al Sergel, performed the chant while the players were warming up for a game against San Diego.

Goal Posts Salute Peterson

The Bill Peterson era as head football coach at FSU was a time of great offensive innovation and of many firsts for the upstart Seminole program, including the first Seminole coach to beat the Gators at Florida Field, coaching the program's first All-American in Fred Biletnikoff and recruiting James Thomas, the first African American player to ever play football at FSU. A tradition of the Peterson era was to enter the field through the goal posts. As a tribute to the players and coaches of the Peterson era and their many firsts, "H" style goal posts were added to the field at Doak Campbell Stadium prior to the 2002 season and will forever be referred to as "Pete's Posts."

Tomahawks Can Be Won and Lost

Florida State's coaching staff and academic staff award tomahawks to individual players for great plays or contributions on the field and in the classroom. Players may get a tomahawk for a crucial play, a touchdown, a saving tackle or various other achievements on the field. In 1997 the Seminoles began receiving tomahawks for outstanding academic achievements as well. They look identical except the word academics runs down the handle of the tomahawk. What many fans do not know is that Florida State players can actually lose tomahawks as well. Poor performance on the field or in the classroom can cause a player to be stripped of the coveted decals.

SPECIAL LANDMARKS

"Unconquered"

Dedicated on Oct. 10, 2003, Fritz White's bronze statue "Unconquered" was designed to capture the indomitable spirit of the Seminole people and those who have adopted that spirit as a symbol for their university. The massive structure, including its granite-covered pedestal base, stands approximately 31 feet in the air and depicts a spear-brandishing Seminole astride a rearing horse. At sunset the night before each home game, the spear is ignited and burns until sunrise on the next morning after the game. George Langford's endowment of the project for up to $1 million helped make the statue a reality. Fifty-one artists were then considered before White eventually saw the statue dedicated 10 years after the concept was inspired by attorney and FSU graduate Stephen Reilly's trip to South Bend, Ind. for an FSU football game.

Sportsmanship Statue

Between Gates B and C of Doak Campbell Stadium stands the one ton, 15-foot tall Sportsmanship Statue given in honor of Pappy Strum by his daughter Margaret Strum Allesee, who is an FSU graduate and former Seminole cheerleader. The enduring symbol of the most important aspect of athletic competition was sculpted by FSU alumnus and accomplished artist Edward Jonas.

Three Different Helmets to One

For one season in 1962 the Florida State Seminoles took the field with three different helmets. Coach Bill Peterson's three-team system featured the two-way Chiefs, the defensive Renegades and the offensive Warriors with each group wearing a different helmet. By 1963 the Seminoles were back to just one helmet, an all-gold version which once again lasted just one season as the word "State" was added in 1964.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

Since Florida State University first fielded an intercollegiate football team 69 years ago, only ten numbers/Jerseys have been retired. Those numbers/jerseys — 2, 10, 16, 17, 25, 27, 28, 34, 50 and 55 — belonged to ten of the greatest players in Florida State football history — Deion Sanders, Derrick Brooks, Chris Weinke, Charlie Ward, Fred Biletnikoff, Terrell Buckley, Warrick Dunn, Ron Sellers, Ron Simmons and Marvin Jones. With his blessing, Sellers' #34 was brought out of retirement in 2003.

2 • Deion Sanders

- Defensive Back
- 1985-88

Deion Sanders' place in the history of college football was immortalized over a five month period in 2011 when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in August and the College Football Hall of Fame in December. Sanders redefined the position of cornerback over his historic career winning the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award as a senior at Florida State and landing two-time consensus All-America honors. He left FSU second on the all-time interceptions list, first for career punt return yards and became one of college football's all-time brightest stars.

10 • Derrick Brooks

- Linebacker
- 1991-94

Brooks was a two-time consensus All-American at outside linebacker for the Seminoles where his blend of speed and athleticism set a new standard for the position. He starred at FSU from 1991-94 leading FSU to its first national title as a junior and earning first team All-ACC honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. He was named the ACC Player of the Year in 1994 and was a finalist for the Butkus, Lombardi and Football Writer's Defensive Player of the Year Award in both 1993 and 1994. Brooks was just as highly regarded off the field earning first team Academic All-America honors in 1994 and winning an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. In addition, he was committed to public service causes throughout his Seminole career. Brooks carried his excellence both on the field and as a citizen into his Hall of Fame career as the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers' all-time leading tackler. He was voted to 10 consecutive Pro Bowls (11 total) and at the time of his retirement had made an NFL-leading 200 consecutive starts. He led his beloved Tampa Bay team to the Super Bowl title in 2002. As a professional, Brooks was the recipient of several prestigious awards, including the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award, the 2003 Bart Starr Award, the 2004 Bryon "Whizzer" White Award, and the 2008 JB Award for community service through the NFL Players Association, all of which recognize an NFL player annually for their commitment to the communities in which they live.

16 • Chris Weinke

- Quarterback
- 1997-00

Chris Weinke literally rewrote the Florida State record book over his career as the Seminoles' quarterback. He set 26 school records, including both the FSU and Atlantic Coast Conference records for career passing yards with 9,839. He led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999. He became FSU's second Heisman Trophy winner as a senior in 2000, while leading the nation in passing with 4,167 yards and averaging 347.3 yards per game. Weinke compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as the starting quarterback at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. His accomplishments were even more impressive considering he suffered a potentially career-ending neck injury as a sophomore. Weinke's place among Florida State's all-time greatest players was recognized when his jersey was retired in 2001, at the time making it one of only seven retired numbers/jerseys in school history. His place among the ACC's all-time best was recognized when he was voted one of the 50 best players in the history of the conference.

17 • Charlie Ward

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

Florida State's Charlie Ward began his senior season in 1993 chasing both the school's first national championship and the Heisman Trophy. Ward's passing and running skills were already well known qualities by 1993, but his inspired leadership and poise under pressure during his senior year elevated him to one of the game's all-time greats. So exceptional was Ward's command of the offense that coaches moved him into the shotgun to allow him to make adjustments during the play. Ward set 19 school and seven Atlantic Coast Conference records over his two years as the starting quarterback for the Seminoles. A consensus All-American, Ward won over 30 individual awards in addition to the Heisman. Ward ranks second in career total offense at FSU with 6,636 yards and has the highest completion rate for a career (62.3%) and lowest interception percentage (2.90%). Ward set the FSU record for touchdown passes in a season with 27 in 1993. Thousands of fans poured into Doak Campbell Stadium for a celebration of the national championship and Ward's Heisman, which included the surprise retirement of his number. He joined Fred Biletnikoff and Ron Sellers becoming only the third player in FSU history to be so honored.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

25 • Fred Biletnikoff

- Wide Receiver
- 1962-64

Biletnikoff played wide receiver at Florida State from 1962-64 under Head Coach Bill Peterson. He was FSU's first consensus All-American. As a senior, he ranked fourth in the nation with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns, not including four touchdown catches in the Gator Bowl. Following his collegiate success, Biletnikoff went on to star for the Oakland Raiders of the National Football League for 14 years. During that time, he played in four Pro Bowls and was the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XI.

27 • Terrell Buckley

- Cornerback
- 1989-91

Florida State retired the jersey of former Seminole and NFL star cornerback Terrell Buckley at halftime of the ULM game on Sept. 3, 2011. Buckley owns most of FSU's interception records following his outstanding three-year career from 1989-91 including the single season mark with 12 interceptions as a junior. He became FSU's second Jim Thorpe Trophy winner following the 1991 season and finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He totaled 21 career interceptions as a Seminole. Buckley was also one of FSU's all-time great punt returners and he scored seven career touchdowns, four on interceptions and three on punts. He also played two years for the FSU baseball team and ran track for the Seminoles. Buckley was the fifth player taken overall in the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers. He went on to an outstanding 15-year NFL career in which he totaled 50 career interceptions.

28 • Warrick Dunn

- Running Back
- 1993-96

Warrick Dunn's four-year career at Florida State established him as one of the most popular players in all of college football and the finest running back in school history. Dunn is the only Seminole ever to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. His 3,959 career rushing yards broke Greg Allen's school record set in 1984. He also broke Allen's single season rushing record when he ran for 1,242 yards as a junior in 1995. Dunn has the record for most touchdowns scored in a career with 49 over four seasons and rushed for over 100 yards more times (21) than any player at FSU. He was a three-time All-ACC selection as well as a member of the ACC All-Academic Team. He was selected to the First Team Football Writer's All-America squad as a senior and earned Second Team Associated Press honors that same year.

34

34 • Ron Sellers

- Flanker
- 1966-68

Sellers remains the most prolific receiver in FSU history. He held most of the NCAA receiving records from the end of his senior season in 1968 until 1987. A flanker for Florida State from 1966 to 1968, he accumulated 3,979 yards on 240 receptions. Sellers' career was marked by consistency, quality and quantity. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games, averaging 119.9 yards per game. Sellers also led Florida State to three bowl games during his playing days.

50

50 • Ron Simmons

- Nose Guard
- 1977-80

The greatest defender in Florida State history, Ron Simmons' No. 50 was retired in 1988. Simmons anchored the center of the defense that took FSU to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances in 1979 and 1980, resulting in FSU's highest national rankings ever at that time. A dominating nose guard and the Tribe's first two-time consensus All-American, Simmons seemed to camp out in opponents' backfields. He totaled an FSU record 25 quarterback sacks and 44 tackles for loss — a mark that held top ranking at FSU for 23 years. He was the first Seminole defender to have his number retired.

55

55 • Marvin Jones

- Linebacker
- 1990-92

Jones won both the Butkus and Lombardi Awards as a junior in 1992 and finished fourth in the balloting for the 1992 Heisman Trophy. He recorded 369 tackles over three seasons with the Seminoles, a mark that sits eighth all-time in the FSU record books. Jones played a vital role in leading Florida State to three top four finishes including a ranking of fourth in the Associated Press poll in 1990 and 1991, and second in 1992 with an 11-1 record and a 27-14 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. He was inducted into FSU's Sports Hall of Fame in 2000. A graduate of Northwestern High in Miami, Jones left FSU following his junior season and was selected with the fourth overall pick of the 1993 NFL Draft by the New York Jets. He played his entire 10-year professional career with the Jets and finished with 1,022 tackles over 142 games.

1993

Charlie Ward

- Quarterback

1993 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The most decorated player in the history of college football as a senior, Charlie Ward won every award he was eligible for in his final season. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993. A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history. In addition to the trophies listed on the previous page, Ward saw his No. 17 jersey retired and, remarkably, played in the NBA for more than a decade. He was only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award, presented to the nation's top amateur athlete.

Chris Weinke

- Quarterback
- 1997-00

2000 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Heisman Trophy when he was named the nation's best football player in December 2000. Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. Weinke also won the Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas trophies as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best quarterback. Weinke's No. 16 jersey was retired at ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

2013

Jameis Winston

- Quarterback
- 2013-14

2013 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

The dazzling playmaker and charismatic leader authored the greatest freshman season by a quarterback in college football history by leading Florida State to a 14-0 record and the 2013 VIZIO BCS National Championship. In the process, Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy at 19 years, 342 days and just the second freshman. In addition, Winston captured the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award while earning Consensus All-America accolades. The Bessemer, Ala., native became the first freshman to collect the ACC Player of the Year honor in the 61-year history of the conference and also nabbed the league's ACC Offensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year trophies. Winston elevated his performance when the stakes were highest, too. He was named Offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game after leading the Seminoles to a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The Seminoles trailed by 18 points (21-3) late in the second quarter to complete the largest comeback in the game's history. Winston clinched the victory by engineering the game-winning seven-play, 80-yard drive that started with just 1:11 remaining in the game and FSU trailing 31-27 and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kelvin Benjamin to give FSU the lead with 13 seconds left. Winston shattered the ACC record, Florida State record and national freshman record for touchdown passes (40) and broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057), while leading the nation and setting the ACC record for pass efficiency rating (184.8). Over his two-year career, Winston passed for 7,964 yards (third in FSU history) and 65 touchdowns (second in FSU history), while compiling a 26-1 record. His career pass efficiency mark (163.28) ranked as the 10th-best in college football history and is the FSU and ACC record. Winston won his first 26 starts - a feat unmatched by major NCAA Division I quarterbacks all-time and had five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, including a nation-leading four in 2014. He was also a valuable member of Florida State's nationally-ranked baseball team for two years as a pitcher and an outfielder, serving as the closer in 2014.

19/342

Age in years and days of Jameis Winston when he won the Heisman Trophy, making him the youngest winner of the award in history.

1:11

444

Yards Jameis Winston passed for at then-No. 3 Clemson on October 19, 2013, leading Florida State to a 51-14 victory. Winston added three touchdown passes and a rushing score as the Seminoles scored the most points ever in "Death Valley."

40

JIM THORPE AWARD

Deion Sanders

- Cornerback
- 1985-88

1988 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

One of the best athletes ever to wear a Florida State uniform, cornerback Deion Sanders won the Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back of 1988.

Sanders collected the prize after a career which saw him gather 14 career interceptions, not including three in bowl games. In his junior and senior seasons, FSU went 11-1 with a pair of New Year's Day bowl wins. In 1988, Sanders ranked in the top 10 nationally with five interceptions in nine games. He was the nation's top punt returner, averaging 15.2 yards per return.

The Ft. Myers, Fla., native ranks third on the FSU career interceptions chart and holds most of the school's punt return records. A three-sport star in football, baseball and track at Florida State, Sanders was the fifth pick in the 1989 NFL draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He became a successful two-sport pro — elected to the Pro Bowl seven times in football and started in centerfield for the Atlanta Braves and the Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2011.

Terrell Buckley

- Cornerback

1991 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

In 1991, Terrell Buckley capped the best season ever by a Florida State cornerback by becoming the second Seminole ever to win the Jim Thorpe Award. A junior, Buckley blew away the Florida State record for interceptions with 12 in 1991. He intercepted passes in eight of FSU's 12 regular season contests to lead the country in pickoffs. Against Michigan in Ann Arbor, his interception and 40-yard return for a touchdown on the game's first play set the stage for a 51-31 Florida State win. A native of Pascagoula, Miss., Buckley also demolished the Florida State career record with 21 INTs in just three seasons. His 501 career return yards broke an NCAA record that had stood since 1974. Following the year, Buckley entered the NFL draft and was selected by the Green Bay Packers with the fifth pick in the first round. He's been named one of the Top 100 Greatest College Football Players of all-time by CollegeFootballNews and named one of Sports Illustrated's Ten for the Ages' Defensive Back Game Breakers of all-time in college football. Buckley's FSU jersey No. 27 was retired in 2011.

BUTKUS AWARD

Paul McGowan

- Inside Linebacker
- 1984-87

1987 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Calling the Butkus Award for linebackers, "The Heisman of the Bad Guys," FSU inside linebacker Paul McGowan accepted the award from Dick Butkus himself in December of 1987.

The 6-1, 230-pound McGowan won the award by a one-point margin over Ohio State's Chris Spielman. McGowan won the award based on a senior season in which he totaled 150 tackles, including 97 solo stops and 11 behind the line of scrimmage. He was named to the Associated Press, Sporting News and Football News first team All-America squads.

Marvin Jones

- Inside Linebacker
- 1990-92

1992 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369 and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee for the NFL after his junior season, and at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.

LOU GROZA AWARD

The Lou Groza award recognizes the top place kicker of the year and is presented by the Palm Beach County Sports Authority, in conjunction with the Orange Bowl Committee.

Sebastian Janikowski

- Placekicker
- 1997-99

1998 & 1999 LOU GROZA WINNER

Sebastian Janikowski became the first Seminole to win the Lou Groza Award when he was named the nation's top kicker in 1998. He became the first kicker to win back-to-back Groza awards in 1999.

Janikowski set Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference records with 27 field goals in 1998. He nailed a remarkable 84.4 percent (27-of-32) field goals in 1999 and led the nation with an average of 2.23 per game. His 123 points were the most scored in a single season by a kicker in FSU or ACC history. He matched Bill Capece's Florida State record for field goals in a game by booting five at Maryland in 1998 and vs. NC State in 1999. His 53-yard field goal against Clemson tied for the third longest in Seminole history and he kicked 10 of 40 yards or more. He was named first team Associated Press and Football Writer's All-America along with earning first team All-ACC honors.

Graham Gano

2008 LOU GROZA WINNER

Graham Gano brought home the third Lou Groza Award in school history in 2008. That season Gano finished first in the FBS for field goals made, percentage of field goals converted and 50-yard field goals made. He was one of only two kickers in college to make over 90% of his field goal attempts that season and he was the highest scoring kicker in America. Gano was a Rivals.com, Scout.com and CBS Sports first team All-American, a Walter Camp, Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Phil Steele second team All-American. He also earned All-ACC First Team honors.

Gano was the first kicker in FSU history to convert over 90% of his field goals in a season. He is the Seminoles single season record holder for 50 yard field goals and he finished second for career 50-yard field goals at FSU despite kicking for just one season. At one point in 2008 Gano made 18 consecutive field goals covering 55 days after missing his first career field goal attempt against Wake Forest. He also made five straight attempts from 50 yards or longer.

Roberto Aguayo

- Placekicker
- 2013 - 2015

2013 LOU GROZA WINNER

Roberto Aguayo became the third Seminole to win the Lou Groza Award after his record-breaking redshirt freshman season in 2013.

Aguayo collected several All-America honors and All-ACC accolades while breaking the national record for points by a kicker in a season with 157 points. During Florida State's undefeated national championship run, Aguayo outscored eight the Seminoles' 14 opponents. He made 115 of his 116 kicks, including a perfect 94-94 on extra point attempts to set the FBS record for most extra points made in a season without a miss. His 94 extra points also set new ACC and FSU records. Aguayo led the nation in scoring average per game (11.2 ppg) among kickers and ranked third overall. He converted the first 70 kicks of his career - 12 field goals and 58 PATs - setting a new FSU record for consecutive kicks made to begin a career. Aguayo drilled 21 of his 22 field goal attempts, including a career-long 53-yard field goal against Syracuse.

Aguayo nearly joined Sebastian Janikowski as the second two-time winner of the Groza Award in 2014, finishing as one of three finalists for the award during a season where he captured consensus All-America honors and made 27 of 30 field goals and all 55 of his extra point attempts.

He became the most accurate kicker in NCAA history in 2015, finishing his career converting 48 of 52 field goals, while never missing an extra point.

Roberto Aguayo

LOMBARDI AWARD

The Lombardi Award honors the outstanding college lineman/linebacker of the year, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Marvin Jones

- Inside Linebacker
- 1990-92

1992 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369 and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee after his junior season for the NFL, and at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice ever when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.

Jamal Reynolds

- Defensive End
- 1997-00

2000 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Defensive end Jamal Reynolds became just the second Florida State player to win the Lombardi Award when he was named the nation's most outstanding lineman/linebacker following his senior year.

A consensus All-American following the 2000 season, Reynolds was another in a long and prominent line of great defensive linemen for the Seminoles that included 1999 Lombardi runner-up Corey Simon. Reynolds joined Seminole star Marvin Jones who won the Lombardi in 1992 from his middle linebacker position. Reynolds led the Seminoles in sacks as a senior with 12 and forced four fumbles for a defense that was among the nation's best in 2000. He finished the year with 58 tackles including 28 unassisted stops and had two safeties on the year. His 23.5 career quarterback sacks ranks fourth all-time at FSU and his 12 sacks as a senior ties him with Ron Simmons (1977) as the fifth best season ever. Reynolds was the first FSU player selected in the 2001 NFL draft when he was taken in the first round by the Green Bay Packers with the 10th pick. Reynolds' distinction as a consensus All-American puts him in the company of Peter Boulware (1996), Reinard Wilson (1996) and Andre Wadsworth (1997), who also earned the distinction at defensive end.

- 2009-13

2013 RIMINGTON TROPHY WINNER

Bryan Stork captured consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2013, leading Florida State to an undefeated 14-0 season and the BCS National Championship in the process. Stork won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's most outstanding center and was named to the All-ACC First Team. Stork was the anchor of the Seminole offensive line that protected Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston and also was named a finalist for the Outland Trophy, presented to the top interior lineman in college football. Stork made 40 career starts and served as FSU's most consistent lineman in 2013, finishing with the highest average grade. He was the centerpiece of an offense that set a national record with 723 points scored and led the nation with 94 touchdowns. The Seminoles set FSU and ACC records for touchdowns (94) and passing touchdowns (42). Stork was drafted in the fourth round (105th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Charlie Ward

Chris Weinke

- Quarterback
- 1997-2000

2000 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
2000 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Davey O'Brien Award. He became the third FSU quarterback to win the Johnny Unitas Award when he was named the nation's best quarterback joining FSU alums Charlie Ward (1993) and Casey Weldon (1991).

Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history.

Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in the NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owns the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000.

Weinke also won the Heisman Trophy as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best player. Weinke's No. 16 jersey was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

Casey Weldon

- Quarterback
- 1988-91

1991 JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER

Quarterback Casey Weldon capped a great senior season with the 1991 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. Weldon, who was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, completed 189-of-313 passes for 2,527 yards and 22 touchdowns in leading the Seminoles to an 11-2 record and 4th-place finish in the Associated Press poll.

A native of Tallahassee, Weldon was truly a hometown hero who won over fans with a combination of exceptional talent and great desire. He led the Seminoles to a 10-2 win over powerful Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl as a senior.

Jameis Winston

- Quarterback
- 2013-14

2013 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
2013 MANNING AWARD WINNER

The dazzling playmaker and charismatic leader authored the greatest freshman season by a quarterback in college football history by leading Florida State to a 14-0 record and the 2013 VIZIO BCS National Championship. In the process, Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy at 19 years, 342 days and just the second freshman. In addition, Winston captured the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award while earning Consensus All-America accolades. The Bessemer, Ala., native became the first freshman to collect the ACC Player of the Year honor in the 61-year history of the conference and also nabbed the league's ACC Offensive Player of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year trophies. Winston elevated his performance when the stakes were highest, too. He was named Offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game after leading the Seminoles to a 34-31 come-from-behind victory over No. 2 Auburn in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The Seminoles trailed by 18 points (21-3) late in the second quarter to complete the largest comeback in the game's history. Winston clinched the victory by engineering the game-winning seven-play, 80-yard drive that started with just 1:11 remaining in the game and FSU trailing 31-27 and ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kelvin Benjamin to give FSU the lead with 13 seconds left. Winston shattered the ACC record, Florida State record and national freshman record for touchdown passes (40) and broke the national freshman record for passing yards (4,057), while leading the nation and setting the ACC record for pass efficiency rating (184.8).

Over his two-year career, Winston passed for 7,964 yards (third in FSU history) and 65 touchdowns (second in FSU history), while compiling a 26-1 record. His career pass efficiency mark (163.28) ranked as the 10th-best in college football history and is the FSU and ACC record. Winston won his first 26 starts - a feat unmatched by major NCAA Division I quarterbacks all-time and had five fourth-quarter comebacks in his career, including a nation-leading four in 2014. He was also a valuable member of Florida State's nationally-ranked baseball team for two years as a pitcher and an outfielder, serving as the closer in 2014.

MACKEY AWARD

The John Mackey Award honors the nation's most outstanding tight end and was established in 2000. The award is named after the legendary NFL tight end who was elected to the Pro Bowl five times and won a Super Bowl title with the Baltimore Colts.

Nick O'Leary

- Tight End
- 2011-14

2014 JOHN MACKEY AWARD WINNER

In 2014 Nick O'Leary added a new national honor to FSU Football's lore as he became the first Seminole to win the John Mackey Award as the nation's best tight end. The native of Palm Beach, Fla., finished with 48 catches for 618 yards and six touchdowns, averaging nearly 13 yards per catch (12.9). Throughout his career O'Leary was a favorite red zone target of quarterback Jameis Winston, and finished his senior season strong with four TDs over the final four games. O'Leary was a primary target for first-down conversions as a senior, with 28 of his 48 catches (58.3 percent) moving the chains. One of O'Leary's signature performances came against rival Florida on Nov. 29, 2014, when he hauled in two touchdowns to help the Seminoles come back for a 24-19 victory at Doak Campbell Stadium. An excellent blocker and pass-catcher, O'Leary's contributions helped FSU's offense average 33.7 points, 303.3 yards passing and pile up an average of 441.4 total yards of offense.

O'Leary wrapped up his four-year career as FSU's all-time leader among tight ends in career receptions (114), yards (1,591) and touchdowns (18). His 17 touchdown receptions are tied for the second-most in ACC history. O'Leary collected consensus All-America honors and All-ACC First Team accolades in 2014. He was a John Mackey Award finalist, All-ACC second team selection and third-team All-American as a junior in 2013.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

All-time Florida State gridiron greats Walter Jones and Derrick Brooks are used to making history.

The longtime NFL stars added an achievement that will without a doubt move to the top of their accolade-filled biographies when they were inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August, 2014.

Jones and Brooks became the first pair of first-ballot Hall of Famers from the same class who attended the same college in over 40 years.

The pair's journey together started 20 years ago. Just as Brooks was wrapping up his All-America career at Florida State in 1994, Jones was joining the Seminoles out of Holmes Community College (Miss.) for the 1995 season.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

They never played on the same team at Florida State, but Jones distinctly remembers how excited he was to follow in the footsteps of the star linebacker whom he called the face of the Seminoles' program.

Jones and Brooks were the best at what they did for over a decade in the NFL. Brooks went to 11 Pro Bowls and never missed a game in 14 seasons (all with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers), while Jones became the NFL's premier left tackle, going to nine Pro Bowls over 12 seasons with the Seattle Seahawks.

Both retired in 2008, and, six years later, Jones and Brooks were teammates for the first time as first-ballot Hall of Famers. Their selections to Canton give Florida State four members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Deion Sanders was elected in 2011 and Fred Biletnikoff was selected in 1988.

Florida State in the All-Time Bowl Championship Series Standings (1998-2013)

From 1998 to 2013, the Bowl Championship Series produced rankings used to identify the two teams that would play in the BCS National Championship at the end of the season after the other bowl games. The BCS relied on a combination of polls and computer selection methods to determine relative team rankings to narrow the field to two teams in order to crown an undisputed national champion. The BCS also selected matchups for the other BCS bowl games. The BCS was discontinued in 2013. Florida State appeared in the first three BCS National Championship games (1998, 1999, 2000), winning the second in 1999. The Seminoles won the final BCS National Championship in 2013.

Florida State in the All-Time College Football Playoff Rankings (2014-present)

The College Football Playoff began in 2014 and was created to select the four best teams to play for the CFP National Championship. A selection committee ranks teams based on conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, comparison of results against common opponents and other factors. The final four teams play in two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl with the National Championship rotating to a different city each year and always playing on Monday night. The CFP rankings also selects the teams that play in the four remaining "New Year's Six" bowls that are not selected for the semifinals that year. Florida State played Oregon in the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinal on Jan. 1, 2015 at the Rose Bowl. The Seminoles also appeared in a "New Year's Six" Bowl in 2015, facing Houston in the Peach Bowl on Dec. 31, 2015.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

ED WILLIAMSON (1947) 0-5-0

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and no team name. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year, although it finished 0-5. Williamson was not paid for coaching the team.

DON VELLER (1948-52) 31-12-1

Don Veller won 30 of his first 34 games as head coach at FSU before the Seminoles began playing a major college schedule. His overall record included an undefeated (8-0) season in 1950, the year the Tribe moved into Doak Campbell Stadium. Veller owns the second highest winning percentage of FSU coaches (.716). He is credited with laying the early foundation for the FSU football program.

*Due to sanctions imposed on Florida State by the NCAA, the NCAA recognizes Coach Bowden with 377 overall victories and 304 wins at FSU.

TOM NUGENT (1953-58) 34-28-1

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State, as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and his 1958 squad was the first FSU team to play Florida. Nugent also served as athletic director while head coach of the Seminoles.

PERRY MOSS (1959) 4-6-0

Moss was one of two FSU coaches who spent only a year at the school. Midway through the 1959 season, reports were published that Moss would leave to join the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. True to the reports, he departed after a brief year in Tallahassee.

BILL PETERSON (1960-70) 62-42-11

Bill Peterson took over a football program in deep trouble in 1960. When he left, 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first 25 years of Florida State football. Under "Pete," the Seminoles went 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964, when the "Seven Magnificents" led Florida State to a 9-1-1 record and FSU's first ever win over Florida.

LARRY JONES
(1971-73) 15-19-0

Larry Jones compiled a 15-19 record in three years as the Seminole head coach. In his first two seasons, the popular coach led his teams to a 15-8 record, but he is probably remembered most for the 1973 campaign, when his team did not win a game.

DARRELL MUDRA
(1974-75) 4-18-0

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State, and he was successful after he left. At FSU, Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and wasn't able to bring the program back to the glory years it enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra coached from the press box instead of the sidelines.

1964

Bill Peterson led Florida State to one of the greatest seasons in school history in 1964. The Seminoles finished 9-1-1, defeated Florida for the first time and routed Oklahoma in the Gator Bowl.

BOBBY BOWDEN (1976-2009) 316-97-4*

Bobby Bowden spent 34 years at the helm of the Seminole program that he resurrected beginning in 1976. By far the winningest coach in school history, Bowden accumulated more wins than the previous seven head coaches combined. He finished his career as major college football's all-time second-winningest coach. Bowden took the Florida State program to the top of the college football world and won two national championships (1993, 1999). Bowden's Seminoles were one of the most dominant bowl teams ever posting a 22-10-1 record with NCAA records for consecutive bowl wins (10) and consecutive bowl appearances without a loss (14). Bowden is the only coach in the history of college football to lead teams to 10 or more wins over 14 straight seasons. He is also the only coach ever to lead his team to 14 straight finishes among the Associated Press Top Five.

* Due to sanctions imposed on Florida State by the NCAA, the NCAA recognizes Bowden with 377 overall victories and 304 wins at FSU.

JIMBO FISHER

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010 and in six seasons has led the Seminoles to a BCS National Championship, two BCS Bowl wins, three ACC Championships, four bowl victories, five seasons with double-digit wins, six consecutive bowl appearances and four ACC Atlantic Division Titles. In his first year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. In Fisher's second year in 2011, the 'Noles swept in-state rivals Miami and Florida for the second straight year. FSU also won its fourth straight bowl game with a win over Notre Dame in the Champs Sports Bowl. Fisher's third season culminated with 12 wins, an ACC Championship and a win in the Discover Orange Bowl. FSU finished in the top 10 in both the Associated Press (No. 10) and USA Today Coaches (No. 8) Polls. In his fourth season, Fisher led FSU to a 14-0 record for the first time in school history as it won the 2014 Vizio BCS National Championship over Auburn, 34-31, at the Rose Bowl. Fisher's offense amassed an FBS record 723 total points during the season, culminating in the school's third national championship. In year five, Fisher again led FSU to the Rose Bowl, failing to Oregon in the first-ever College Football Playoff semifinal. The Seminoles finished 13-1 and captured their third straight ACC Championship. Along the way, FSU set a school- and ACC-record by winning 29 consecutive games - a streak that began in the 2012 ACC Championship Game. In year six, Fisher guided a young Seminole squad to a 10-3 mark and a berth in the 2015 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl - the fourth straight BCS/NY6 bowl appearance for FSU. The Noles improved their record to 11-1 against Miami and Florida by sweeping the Hurricanes (29-24) and Gators (27-2) for the third consecutive season. Florida State rose to as high as No. 9 in the AP poll and finished at No. 14 in the final AP poll - the fourth straight season with a Top 15 finish and sixth straight in the Top 25.

JOHN THRASHER

University President

John Thrasher, a Florida State University alumnus and former state legislator, is the university's 15th president.

Thrasher assumed the presidency on Nov. 10, 2014, after a successful career as a state legislator, businessman, lobbyist and lawyer. As president, Thrasher has focused his efforts on elevating FSU's reputation as a preeminent research institution. He has presided over a $1 billion fundraising campaign, advanced the university's academic and research mission, championed diversity and inclusion, and welcomed the best and brightest students in the university's history.

Thrasher earned a bachelor's degree in business from Florida State in 1965. After graduating, he joined the U.S. Army where he received the Army Commendation Medal in Germany and was awarded two Bronze Stars for his service in Vietnam. He was honorably discharged as a captain in 1970.

Thrasher then returned to his alma mater to earn a law degree with honors in 1972.

After working in private law practice in Daytona Beach and Tallahassee for several years, Thrasher returned to Jacksonville to serve as general counsel of the Florida Medical Association, a position he held for 20 years. He also served as "of counsel" to the Jacksonville law firm of Smith, Hulsey & Busey from 1996 to 2008. Thrasher was a partner of Southern Strategy Group, a Tallahassee-based governmental relations firm, from 2001 to 2009.

Thrasher's political career began in 1986 when he was elected to the Clay County School Board where he served as vice chairman, then chairman. He then became a state representative in 1992, and he was re-elected without opposition in 1994, 1996 and 1998.

Thrasher was unanimously elected as the speaker of the Florida House of Representatives in 1998. He was elected to the Florida Senate in 2009 and subsequently re-elected. He served as chairman for the Republican Party of Florida in 2010.

From 2001 to 2005, Thrasher was the first chair of Florida State University's Board of Trustees. He was a key supporter of legislation that brought funding to the development of FSU's College of Medicine, and a building at the college is named in his honor.

In 2016, he was inducted into the FSU College of Business Hall of Fame. He currently serves on the College Football Playoff Board of Managers.

Born in Columbia, S.C., Thrasher moved to Florida as a child and grew up in Jacksonville. He and his wife, Jean, have three children and eight grandchildren.

STAN WILCOX

Vice President/Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Stan Wilcox was named FSU's 11th full-time Director of Athletics in August of 2013 and promoted to Vice President in July of 2016. In his three years on the job the Seminoles won the school's third football National Championship in 2013 and the University's first-ever soccer National Championship in 2014. Also, the athletic department has recorded two top 15 finishes in the Learfield Sports Athletic Director's Cup fielding fewer sports than almost any other school in the top 25 of the standings.

Wilcox has been at the helm during a span that is one of the most successful in the history of Seminole athletics. FSU has claimed 10 ACC Coach of the Year honors in the last two years and won 15 ACC titles. During Wilcox's tenure there have been 16 ACC Player of the Year honors awarded to Seminoles and FSU student-athletes have received more than 150 All-America honors. Add to that a Heisman Trophy winner and 15 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and the arc of the program under his direction is apparent.

Facilities upgrades have also been a major focus since Wilcox arrived in Tallahassee. In the last year the Tucker Center, home to FSU's men's and women's basketball programs, has been completely transformed with new seating, state-of-the-art scoreboards and numerous infrastructure improvements. The arena is currently undergoing another $10 million worth of renovations, which includes new locker rooms, player lounges, training rooms and auxiliary areas. Seminoles football offices, locker rooms, common areas, meeting rooms, coaches' locker rooms and players' lounge areas have all been significantly renovated or newly constructed. In his short time at the helm, locker room renovations for soccer, softball and beach volleyball have also been completed.

Wilcox came to Florida State from Duke where he served as Senior Deputy Director of Athletics from 2008-2013. During his time at Duke, Wilcox's duties included managing the day-to-day operation of the department and oversight of the football program. Other oversight responsibilities included Human Resources, Contracts, Legal Affairs, Athletics Training, Strength and Conditioning, Equipment, Campus Recreation, Physical Education, Marketing and Promotions, Ticketing, Digital Media, Sports Information and Video Operations. In addition, Wilcox was responsible for coordinating football scheduling.

Before arriving at Duke, Wilcox, a former basketball letterman at Notre Dame, spent three years as the deputy director of athletics at his alma mater. Prior to returning to South Bend in 2005, he served 11 years as an associate commissioner of the BIG EAST Conference.

While working at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox was the league's representative to the NCAA Management Council from 2000-05 and served on the Management Council subcommittees on incentives and disincentives, governance, nominations and the task force to review the NCAA's one-time transfer exception rule. His national compliance responsibilities extended to the NCAA recruiting task force and the basketball issues committee. His internal BIG EAST Conference duties included handling the league's NCAA governance, legislative, enforcement, compliance services and legal issues. In recognition of his outstanding service, he was awarded the 2001-02 National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators Outstanding Achievement Award.

In addition to his Florida State duties, Wilcox currently holds several national and ACC leadership positions including: membership on the NCAA Administrative Cabinet; 2015-16 Chair of the ACC Athletics Directors; Chair of the ACC Women's Basketball Committee; and, for the last 12 years, serving on the Advocates for Athletic Equity (AAE) Board of Directors.

Throughout his career Wilcox has spent considerable time expanding opportunities for others. He helped to create the Minority Opportunity Athletics Association and subsequently served as a member of its Board, and from 2003 to 2005 he was President of the Black Coaches Association (BCA).

Before his tenure at the BIG EAST Conference, Wilcox worked as a legislative assistant at the NCAA from 1989-94. Prior to that, he worked as a senior court analyst for the Kings County Supreme Court in Brooklyn, N.Y., from 1982-89. Following his graduation from Notre Dame in 1981 with a degree in economics, he spent one year as an account executive for Serres, Visonos & Rice Insurance in New York, N.Y. and was a graduate assistant basketball coach at C.W. Post College.

A native of North Babylon, N.Y., Wilcox played in 100 career games on the hardwood for the Fighting Irish and was a member of Notre Dame's 1978 club that faced Duke in the NCAA Final Four in St. Louis, Mo. He helped the Irish to a four-year ledger of 92-26 with four NCAA Tournament berths. Wilcox went on to earn a juris doctor degree from the Brooklyn Law School in 1988 and is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

He is married to the former Ramona Harrell and has three daughters, Soraya, Yasmeen and Nadia, and Ramona has three sons, James, Brian and Charles.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

CINDY HARTMANN

Deputy Director of Athletics for Administration

Cindy Hartmann was hired in the spring of 2014 to the newly created position of Deputy Director of Athletics for Administration at FSU. She joined FSU's executive athletic staff with primary responsibility for personnel management and human resources. She also is the sport administrator for the softball and men's and women's swimming and diving programs.

Prior to Florida State, Hartmann served as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance at Duke for five years. At Duke she administered the compliance office and served as primary sport oversight for the Blue Devil's rowing program and secondary administrator for women's basketball. Before transitioning to her compliance role, Hartmann served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Human Resources beginning in 2008. Prior to her work at Duke, she worked at the University of Dayton for over a decade serving most recently as an Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator from 2001-07.

A native of Syracuse, NY, Hartmann's previous experience in college athletics includes stints at Georgia Perimeter College, Georgia State University, the University of Connecticut, and the University of Tennessee.

Hartmann currently serves on the ACC Equity Committee. She recently completed a four-year appointment on the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She also served a four-year term (2002-06) on the NCAA Women's Basketball Committee and one year (2001-02) as a member of the NCAA Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet.

After earning four varsity letters as a member of the basketball team, Hartmann graduated from Syracuse University in 1991 with a degree in photojournalism. She went on to receive a master's degree in education-sport administration from Georgia State University in 1995.

Hartmann and her husband, Troy, are the parents of two children, Samuel and Olivia.

MATT BEHNKE

Senior Associate Athletics Director Business/Chief Financial Officer

Matt Behnke is Florida State Athletics' Senior Associate Athletic Director for Business and Chief Financial Officer. This is his fourth year serving in this role.

As the Department's chief financial officer, Behnke is responsible for all departmental business and financial matters, including budgetary oversight and financial reporting. He will assist in the departments' strategic planning efforts as well as serve as the Department's representative with all other University financial divisions. In addition, he will oversee the department's information technology functions. He serves as the financial liaison to all athletic direct support organizations (DSO's), including Seminole Boosters, Inc. and FSU Financial Assistance, Inc. Under the guiding principles of transparency and enhanced financial reporting, Behnke has led the efforts to simplify the Department's fiscal affairs by consolidating the multiple budgets of the Department and reporting the Department's budget in a transparent and concise manner. The result, the Department's Athletic Budget Reporting Package and the enhanced Annual Financial Statements, have been recognized for its presentation of the fiscal condition of the Department.

Behnke has been involved with Seminole athletic finances since 2004 as a member of the Seminole Boosters, Inc., the University's athletic development and fundraising organization. Becoming the Booster Chief Financial Officer in 2009, he oversaw all financial matters and worked with the department's business functions on all consolidated reporting functions. He was responsible for strategic planning, budgetary development and communication, financial reporting, student-athlete endowment investment implementation, and Seminole athletic facility financing. He led the effort to finance the new Albert J. Dunlap Indoor Training Center (opened in August 2013) and the new Student Housing Facility (opened in August 2014).

A native of Three Oaks, MI, Behnke graduated from Florida State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1998. He began his career at the public accounting firm Thomas Howell Ferguson P.A. in Tallahassee, where he earned his CPA certification from the State of Florida Board of Accountancy.

Behnke has previously served on the FSU Fraud Prevention & Detection Committee as well as numerous Florida Institute of CPA committees. He currently serves as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference Finance Committee as well as the Seminole Boosters Student-Athlete Endowment Committee.

Behnke is married to the former Kelly May, and they have one son, A.J.

KARL HICKS

Deputy Director of Athletics for External Operations

Karl Hicks was hired in the spring of 2014 to the newly-created position of Deputy Director of Athletics for External Operations at FSU. Hicks oversees all external operations for athletics including tickets, sports information, marketing and promotions, communications, website and risk management and will serve as the staff liaison with Seminole Productions as well as oversight of the men's basketball program.

Hicks was the ACC Senior Associate Commissioner for Men's Basketball Operations from 2007-2014. During his seven years at the league office his responsibilities included oversight of all men's basketball operations, as well as management of the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament and two NCAA Men's Tournament second and third rounds hosted by the conference in 2009 and 2012, respectively.

Prior to his role with the ACC, Hicks served as the Assistant General Manager and Senior Vice President of Basketball Operations for the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats from 2003-2007. His initial foray in professional sports came in 2000 when he was hired by the NBA as Executive Director of the newly-created National Basketball Development League, where he spent three years. He also served at the Southeastern Conference (1998-2000) as Assistant Commissioner for Institutional and Student Services and at the NCAA (1994-1998) as an Enforcement Representative.

A 1983 graduate of the University of New Hampshire with a B.A. in Communications, Hicks was a member of the men's basketball team and went on to serve as an assistant basketball coach at his alma mater (1984-1985) and at the American University in Washington, DC (1985-1990).

Hicks earned a master's degree in business administration from the University of Maryland in 1992, and resides in Tallahassee with his wife Melanie and son Eli.

MONK BONASORTE

Senior Associate Athletics Director Football Oversight

Monk Bonasorte is in his ninth year as Senior Associate Director of Athletics at Florida State and among his responsibilities is oversight of internal operations within the athletic department and oversight of Florida State's 2013 National Championship football and 2014 National Championship women's soccer program.

Currently, Bonasorte is responsible for administrative oversight of the following departments: Equipment, Athletic Training, Coaches Video and Strength & Conditioning.

A member of Florida State's All-Time football team as named by Athlon Magazine, Bonasorte earned four varsity letters (1977-80), played in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl and two Orange Bowls (1980 and 1981) and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995 as one of the top defensive backs in school history. He ranks second in school history with 15 interceptions while his eight interceptions in 1979 ranks as the second highest single season total in school history. He has been a member of the Seminole Radio Network's pregame football broadcasts since 1995.

Bonasorte joined the Florida State athletics department executive staff in 2008 after a 13-year career as the president and executive director of the Florida State University Varsity Club - the organization that gives back to every Seminole letter winner and allows them to give back to the current letter winners. He helped build the FSU Varsity Club into one of the top organizations of its kind across the nation.

As a player, Bonasorte earned All-America Third Team honors in 1979 by the Associated Press and All-America Second Team honors from Football News in 1980 starring on one of the toughest defensive units in Florida State history in 1979. He led the nation in interceptions for the majority of the 1979 season and finished with eight to rank fourth nationally and set a Seminole record for interceptions in a season. The Seminoles ranked sixth nationally and fifth nationally during his junior and senior seasons respectively.

Bonasorte spent seven years working with the Elmont Sports Group - a leader in the building and marketing of professional sports teams. He served as the marketing director for two seasons for the Tallahassee Scorpions of indoor professional league. He served as the director of marketing for the East Coast Hockey league Tallahassee Tiger Sharks (1997-99) and served as the Vice-president and General Manager for the Tallahassee Thunder of the Arena1 Football league (1999-2003).

Bonasorte and his wife, Beverly, have two sons, T.J. and Rocky.

JIM CURRY

Senior Associate Athletics Director for Governance and Compliance

Jim Curry has been with the Florida State compliance office since 2011 and was named Senior Associate Athletic Director for Governance and Compliance in 2016. Curry has spent over a decade working in college athletics and more than nine years in the compliance field. He previously served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance at Coastal Carolina and Maryland before coming to Florida State. Since joining the FSU staff in December of 2011 as an Assistant Athletic Director, Curry has been promoted to Associate Athletic Director and now Senior Associate AD, where he serves on the department's senior leadership team.

Since coming to FSU, Curry has been at the forefront of the athletic department's efforts to continually adjust and interpret new and evolving NCAA regulations relating to cost of attendance, satellite camps, social media in recruiting, student-athlete meals and much more. His innovative approaches to educating student-athletes, their families, Florida State fans and the local media have been far-reaching and varied but always focused on emphasizing the rules that govern all member institutions. On top of all his duties directing the athletic department's compliance efforts, Curry is also responsible for administrative oversight for both the men's and women's tennis teams.

Curry has also been heavily involved in NCAA governance throughout his career and continues to be an instrumental voice for Florida State. He currently serves on the NCAA's Division I Initial-Eligibility Waivers Committee. He is also a member of the ACC Student-Athlete Welfare Committee. In the past, Curry has worked with the ACC's Compliance Workshop Planning Committee and as a member of the NAAC Forecasting Committee.

The Gardiner, Maine native is married to Marisa Button and the couple welcomed their first child, Quinn, into the world in May of 2016.

VANESSA FUCHS

Senior Associate Athletics Director/SWA

Vanessa Fuchs has a long history at Florida State University as a student-athlete and administrator and in May of 2012 she was promoted to the role of Senior Associate Athletic Director/Senior Woman Administrator after serving as the department's Associate Athletic Director for Compliance since 2010.

As a member of the department's senior leadership team, Fuchs has direct oversight of Women's Basketball, Indoor Volleyball, Beach Volleyball, Sports Medicine, Compliance and Student Services while also chairing the sport administrator group responsible for day-to-day administrative support for each of FSU's 20 sports. In addition, Fuchs currently serves as co-chair of the athletics department Substance Abuse and Drug-Testing Program, Title IX Deputy Coordinator for athletics, is a member of the university's Diversity and Inclusion Council Communication Subcommittee and serves on the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) Women's Basketball, Women's Volleyball, Autonomy and SAAC Committees. In 2015, Fuchs was appointed to serve on the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Committee after completing a four-year term on the Board of Directors for the National Association for Athletic Compliance (NAAC). In June of 2015, the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators named Fuchs the DI Administrator of the Year.

In June of 2013, former Florida State President Dr. Eric Barron named Fuchs the school's interim Athletics Director as she became the first female to lead the Seminoles' Athletic Department. The former Seminole basketball player was one of just seven females leading an athletics department among the 124 schools that participated at the FBS level in 2012.

Since joining the athletics staff in 2010, Fuchs has focused her time on providing strategic direction for departmental initiatives focused on student-athlete welfare, gender equity, ethnic diversity and Title IX. Fuchs oversaw the facilities staff from 2012-2015 and during that time, the department's 10-year Master Facilities Plan was completed. Fuchs was also instrumental in building a comprehensive NCAA rules education program, implementing a department-wide recruiting and compliance software system and establishing a new team structure for the compliance office. All of which assisted the department in a successfully fulfilling its NCAA probationary period which concluded in March 2013.

Prior to arriving at Florida State, Fuchs committed seven years to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in Indianapolis, Indiana. In 2007, her extensive knowledge of NCAA legislation, interpretations and the NCAA's governance process earned her a promotion to Associate Director of Academic and Membership Affairs (AMA).

Fuchs remained rooted in AMA throughout her tenure with the NCAA. Fuchs was primarily responsible for supervising the functions of the Legislative Relief Waiver team and contributed heavily to issuing interpretations, serving as a staff liaison to NCAA governance committees and leading project teams for the association.

Before embarking on her career with the NCAA, Fuchs got her start working for the Atlantic Coast Conference as a Championships Intern in 2001. The Pompano Beach, Fla., native was a four-year letter winner for the Seminoles' women's basketball team from 1997-2001. She was the team co-captain in her senior year. Fuchs finished her career as a three-time ACC Honor Roll selection.

Fuchs graduated Magna Cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in communications at Florida State University and earned her master's degree from the University of North Carolina in sport administration. Her father, Don, was a pole-vaulter at Florida State and her brother Joseph is also an FSU alumnus.

Mission Statement

The mission of Student-Athlete Academic Services (SAAS) at Florida State University is to help student-athletes strive for excellence in all aspects of life. This is accomplished by creating an environment that supports academic, athletic and personal achievement, utilizing highly qualified and dedicated support staff and administrative personnel. A combined effort helps individuals become better students, athletes, and citizens, and prepares student-athletes to make transitions to the next level of participation academically and athletically.

More specifically, the drive toward excellence focuses on the advancement of learning, developing leadership skills, and fostering the personal growth of the student-athlete, while offering a high quality athletics program. SAAS personnel provide programs that develop meaningful standards of scholarship, leadership, integrity and self-responsibility. This focus extends to all phases of academic and professional development, culminating with graduation and job placement or graduate school.

Academic Advising

The advisors in SAAS serve as a portion of the advising unit for all student-athletes. The staff advises students through the liberal studies curriculum, degree prerequisites and major requirements. Advisors work with students in a number of areas related to academic experience at Florida State University, with a primary emphasis in advising and monitoring progress toward the selected degree program, taking into consideration all variables which would enhance or impede each student toward the goal of graduation. By partnering with on-campus major advisors, the SAAS staff provides comprehensive assistance in all areas of university advising.

Support Services

In addition to academic advisors, student-athletes have the opportunity to work with staff learning specialists. The SAAS learning specialists provide proactive, sustained, individualized support enhancing student success and developing independent learners. Additional responsibilities include academic needs assessment as well as referrals for further testing.

Tutoring Program

The Athletics Department at Florida State University provides our student-athletes with one of the finest and most comprehensive tutorial programs in the nation. The tutorial program is a key support service available to all student-athletes.

SAAS hires approximately 80 tutors a year, from a variety of academic departments, who provide individualized assistance with course comprehension and study skills. The tutoring program provides student-athletes the opportunity to meet individually with tutors, develop refined study habits, learn various ways of approaching and understanding material, and effective test preparation methods.

Tutorial assistance is a free service available to all student-athletes in any of their coursework and may be obtained by filling out a tutorial request form through GradesFirst or through discussing their needs with their advisor.

Mentoring Program

The SAAS Mentor Program is designed to assist incoming freshmen, transfers and other select student-athletes with their transition into Florida State University. This developmentally-oriented program creates relationships between the mentors and mentees that foster a well-rounded learning experience in both academics and other aspects of student-athletes' lives.

In these one-on-one meetings, student-athletes work with their assigned mentor in areas of communicating with professors, note taking, study strategies, university policies, time management and accountability. The overall goal of the Mentor Program is for the student-athlete to move forward from this process so that they are able to proceed throughout the rest of their collegiate career with the appropriate tools to be successful.

Seminole Athletics Touts...

- In the spring 2016 semester, 252 student-athletes achieved a 3.0 grade point average or better. In all, 12 of the Seminoles' 18 teams had a semester GPA over 3.0.
- A total of 19 student-athletes made the President's List with a perfect 4.0 GPA. 87 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors.
- The Athletics Department posted a semester GPA of 2.940 and a cumulative GPA of 2.963.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Computer Lab

The Student-Athlete Academic Services computer lab is located in the Moore Athletic Center on the second floor outside of the SAAS office. There are numerous PC compatible computers and several printers available for use by the student-athletes. The computer lab is available to student-athletes with a current FSU ID card. The entire Student-Athlete Academic Services area is also equipped with wireless internet and can easily accessed using the standard FSU issued login.

Matt Schmauch Academic Commitment Award

The Matt Schmauch Commitment Award was established in honor and memory of former Academic Support Assistant Director Matt Schmauch, who passed away in June of 2003 and is given annually to a deserving football student-athlete. The award does not necessarily go to the football player with the highest GPA. Rather, it goes to the player who is dedicated to getting a degree, is accountable and responsible in the classroom and works every day to be a better student.

Bridge Program

Student-Athlete Academic Services, in conjunction with Athletic Student Services and numerous other university units, offer incoming student-athletes a "Summer Bridge Program" to aid the transition from high school to college. The program is an intensive week-long orientation that incorporates the standard FSU orientation with the athletics department orientation and additional programming throughout the six-week summer session. Seminars, designed to acclimate the students to the University community, are conducted weekly. Seminar topics include media training, health and nutrition, academic mapping requirements, the Academic Honor Policy and Student Codes of Conduct, as well as communicating with faculty and faculty expectations.

Academic Honors and Awards Programs

Student-Athlete Academic Services is committed to recognizing the academic success of all student-athletes. The annual Golden Torch Gala is an academic awards banquet held each fall and is a highlight of the year. At this event, the ACC Honor Roll student-athletes, and individuals with the highest GPA on their respective teams are recognized, as well as the men's and women's teams with the highest combined GPA.

Student-athletes are notified of potential honors, awards and other recognitions and are encouraged to apply. A combination of a strong grade point average, community service activities, and leadership experiences make for a student-athlete capable of obtaining unlimited academic honors, awards and postgraduate opportunities. Florida State student-athletes have achieved great satisfaction in obtaining recognition for academic achievements. Over the past two decades, more than $470,000 in Postgraduate Scholarship monies has been granted to FSU student-athletes as well as numerous other academic honors.

About Student Services

The Office of Student Services strives to establish a commitment to the total growth and development of each student-athlete. Through the N.O.L.E.S. program (New Opportunities for Leadership, Education and Service), an administrative commitment to academic and athletic excellence, as well as personal development, these efforts are supported with programs and services in personal, career and leadership development.

Personal Development

Fostering the development of personal growth is a fundamental component of the N.O.L.E.S. program. This support program ensures that the student-athletes will be provided with opportunities to focus on personal growth areas such as values clarification, goal setting, fiscal planning, decision-making and personal responsibility. Programming focuses on helping the student-athletes develop a healthy lifestyle while they are at Florida State University and habits that will benefit them throughout their lives.

Career Development

Preparing for life after college is a major focus of the N.O.L.E.S. program. The program is designed to work in cooperation with Florida State's Career Center to acquaint students with the job search process, provide networking opportunities and ultimately assist with job placement. The program places a priority on the development of the total person, with the goal of developing individuals who will have rewarding and productive lifestyles after they leave Florida State University.

Community Service

Serving the community is the focus of the Seminole Spirit program. Student-Athletes are challenged to give service to our community and individuals who are in need. With a clearly defined program of service, student-athletes are given the opportunity to develop a lifelong commitment to volunteerism. Over the years, our commitment to community service has grown by leaps and bounds. The Florida State University Department of Athletics has been recognized by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for having one of the most successful outreach programs in the nation, impacting the lives of thousands of children annually. During the 2015-16 academic year, Florida State's student-athletes performed over 6,100 hours of services, with the Women's Golf team winning the Athletic Directors Cup for Service for performing over 26 hours per student-athlete.

Leadership Development

The Florida State University Department of Athletics is committed to developing programs of excellence that foster leadership development. Currently, the Office of Student Services offers three leadership programs to our student-athletes. The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) has been in place at Florida State for over 15 years and is a fantastic group of motivated student-athletes. The SAAC is made up of FSU student-athletes representing every sports team and spirit group. Regularly scheduled meetings occur bi-weekly which gives the student-athletes an opportunity to discuss issues confronting student-athletes, here at Florida State, as well as in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and across the nation. The SAAC at Florida State has many responsibilities: they take the lead on a variety of events, starting with New Student-Athlete Orientation, the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole Awards Banquet, where seniors from each team are recognized and student-athletes who have excelled in the area of community service are honored.

In addition to leadership program and opportunities provided to the student-athletes on the SAAC, there are two additional leadership programs that are offered to all male and female student-athletes. WILD (Women in Leadership Development) Women and REAL (Reliable Educated Accountable Leaders) Men provide an opportunity for small groups of male and female student-athletes to further their leadership skills.

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

Established in 1953, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Through its first 63 years of competition, ACC schools captured 146 NCAA team championships, including 74 in women's competition and 72 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles went to ACC student-athletes 163 times in men's competition and 129 times in women's action. Given the ACC's strong history and the strengthening of its ranks with the additions of Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse in 2013, followed by Louisville in 2014, those numbers – and the league's longstanding tradition of excellence – appear destined to grow in the years ahead.

- The ACC enjoyed another banner year in football 2015, with three teams ranked in the final College Football Playoff Standings Top 10 in Clemson (1), Florida State (9) and North Carolina (10).
- The ACC is one of only two conferences to have placed a team in either the National Championship Game or College Football Playoff in each of the past three years.
- Clemson was ranked No. 1 for all six weeks of the College Football Playoff Standings and advanced to the 2015 National Championship Game, tying the FBS record for most wins in a seasons with 14.
- Since 2012, the ACC leads all conferences in wins in BCS/New Year's Six Bowl Game, with a 5-3 record.
- Over the past three years, the ACC has had a total of 115 players chosen in the NFL Draft, the second highest total of any conference.
- In the FBS listing of the winningest active coaches with five or more years of FBS head coaching experience (career winning percentage), the ACC has five coaches listed among the Top 15 nationally, the most of any conference.
- The ACC has won four consecutive Orange Bowl games, the longest winning streak in the OB by any conference in 57 years.
- Nine ACC teams earned bowl berths in 2015, giving the league 31 bowl teams over the past three seasons.

2015-16 Review

The 2015-16 academic year saw ACC teams capture five more national team titles. The ACC has averaged more than four national titles per year over the past 19 years and has claimed multiple NCAA titles in 33 of the past 35 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the Atlantic Coast Conference have led the way in nine of the last 10 years among Autonomy 5 conferences in the "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report.

2015-16 National Championships

ACC member schools made strong bids to claim even more NCAA titles in 2015-16, placing as runners-up in football (Clemson), men's basketball (North Carolina), women's basketball (Syracuse), men's soccer (Clemson), women's soccer (Duke), beach volleyball (Florida State) and women's ice hockey (Boston College).

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 27 sports during the 2016-17 academic year--13 for men and 14 for women. The first ACC championship was held in swimming at North Carolina State University on February 25, 1954.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming and diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet held in tennis October 6-8 at Wake Forest University. Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, field hockey, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming & diving, indoor and outdoor track & field, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing, with volleyball deciding its champion by regular-season play.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina with seven charter members – Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest – drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted

Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially join the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

The Unconquered People

By Barry Ray
FSU Office of News and Public Affairs

As a people, few have prevailed over more trying circumstances than the Seminole Indians of Florida. Over the course of almost two centuries, Florida's Seminoles endured three wars with the U.S. government, resisted numerous efforts to relocate them to federal reservations in the West, and ultimately made their home in one of the world's most inhospitable environments, the Florida Everglades. That they have not only survived, but thrived — all the while maintaining their fierce independence and rich culture — is a tribute to their courage and perseverance. This is their story.

Long before European explorers ever visited the area now known as Florida, native peoples had been living here for thousands of years. In fact, as many as 100,000 members of four Indian nations — the Apalachee, the Tequesta, the Timucua and the Calusa — were living in highly organized settlements throughout the peninsula when the Spanish first arrived in 1513.

The native peoples' lack of resistance to smallpox, yellow fever and other "European" diseases, as well as later slaving raids from the English colonies of Georgia and South Carolina, eventually decimated their numbers. By the mid-18th century, the Indian nations of Florida had ceased to exist.

In their place, groups of Indians from a confederation of tribes collectively referred to as the Lower Creeks began moving into Florida from Alabama and Georgia. They had been pushed out of their former homes by the encroachment of white settlers, as well as by conflicts with other tribes. It was around this time that the name "Seminoles" first appeared; there are several possible explanations as to its origins.

When the first English speakers began arriving in Florida in 1763, they found many Creeks living as yat'siminoli, or "free people," across the northern part of the Florida peninsula. ("Yat'siminoli" was a term used in the Mikisúkî, or Miccosukee, language, which still is spoken today.) The settlers may have simply ignored the Indians' separate tribal affiliations and called them all Seminolies, or Seminoles.

Others believe that the Seminole name comes from the Spanish word cimarron, meaning "wild men" or "unconquered." The Indians may have been given this name because they had escaped from slavery in the English-controlled colonies to the north.

With the end of the American Revolutionary War in 1784, English-speaking settlers began moving southward in ever greater numbers, buying or seizing land from the native inhabitants. By 1813, some of the Creek tribes in Alabama rose up against the white settlers and the Indian tribes that supported them. This conflict, known as the Creek War of 1813-14, proved disastrous to all of the tribes. U.S. troops led by Gen. Andrew Jackson crushed the uprising and forced a treaty on the Creeks that took more than 2 million acres of land from them. Several thousand Creek warriors and their families migrated south into Spanish Florida, where they and the Seminoles increased their resistance to white settlement.

In 1814, such conflicts escalated into the first of three Seminole wars. Over the next four years, Jackson illegally entered Spanish Florida numerous times to burn Seminole villages and kill resistance leaders.

With the end of the First Seminole War in 1818, many Indians moved further into Florida. By 1820, the year before Spanish Florida became a U.S. territory, there were at least 5,000 Seminoles, Creeks and Mikisúkî people living here. However, a series of federal treaties failed to protect their rights and, in 1835, war broke out again.

The Second Seminole War (1835-42) proved to be the longest, most costly, and the last of the U.S. wars of Indian removal fought east of the Mississippi River. It also would be the first guerilla-style war faced by U.S. troops. Led by the fierce warrior Osceola, the Seminoles were aided by runaway slaves, who received

The Symbol: Seminoles

Florida State would play two games in 1947 before students demanded the school acquire a symbol. While details conflict, most believe the account of a poll of the student body is accurate. The Florida Flambeau reported that Seminoles had won by 110 votes over Statesmen. The rest of the top contenders (in order) were Rebels, Tarpons, Fighting Warriors and Crackers.

In the 1950s, a pair of students dressed in Native American costumes and joined the cheerleaders on the field which eventually evolved into the majestic symbol of Osceola and Renegade that FSU now enjoys. Today, the Seminole Indian Tribe participates in many campus activities.

Florida State University is proud of its longstanding cooperative relationship with the Seminole Tribe of Florida. The Seminole people have suffered many hardships and injustices, but they have remained brave, dignified and proud. The Seminoles are unconquered. They symbolize what we hope will be the traits of all of our graduates, including our student-athletes.

protection from their allies in return for a portion of the agricultural staples that they grew. These so-called "Black Seminoles" also had a reputation as fierce fighters, and were equally determined to preserve their freedom.

The fighting ended in a stalemate in 1842, and an uneasy peace lasted for 14 years. In 1856, however, Seminole leader Billy Bowlegs and his followers were provoked by U.S. soldiers. They retaliated, and the ensuing series of skirmishes became known as the Third Seminole War (1856-58).

When U.S. troops once more withdrew — again with no treaty or victory — the Seminole Wars finally ended. All told, more than 3,000 Seminoles had been forcibly removed from Florida to the Western territories of Arkansas and Oklahoma. As few as 300 remained in Florida, and they took refuge within the dense swamps of the Everglades. However, their place in history was assured as the only American Indian tribe never to have signed a peace treaty with the U.S. government.

From the 1920s onward, as the development boom exploded in South Florida, the Seminoles lost more and more of their hunting lands to tourists and settlers. They became agricultural workers in the vegetable fields of South Florida, and also ran tourist attractions, wearing their colorful patchwork clothing, producing souvenirs and wrestling alligators.

On Aug. 21, 1957, the Seminole Tribe of Florida was established through a majority vote of Florida's Seminole Indians. This vote gave the Seminoles federal recognition as a self-governing tribe with a constitutional form of government. The Seminole Tribe of Florida now has almost 3,000 members living on five reservations across the peninsula at Hollywood, Big Cypress, Brighton, Immokalee and Tampa.

The Seminoles work hard to be economically independent. Tourism and gaming profits pay for infrastructure and schools on their reservations, while citrus groves, cattle agriculture, aircraft production, tobacco sales, land leases and aquaculture are other significant sources of revenue.

Having persevered through two centuries of adversity, the Seminole Indians of Florida have earned the right to call themselves "the unconquered people." Their indomitable spirit is one that Florida State University proudly seeks to emulate in all of its endeavors.
